THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Winchester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, beg Leave to approach the Throne with every sincere and heartfelt Expression of Congratulation on the recent Escape of your Majesty from the imminent Danger to which your sacred Person was exposed from the atrocious and abominable Attempt of a detestable Assassin.

We feel and acknowledge with humble Gratitude the special Favor of Divine Providence that has saved this Country from the greatest Calamity that could befall us; that has preserved a beloved Sovereign to his Subjects, a Father to his People, a Friend to Humanity, and an Example to Mankind. And we rely with Confidence in the Almighty Power long to protect and to continue your Majesty in the Practice of those public and private Virtues which have so justly endeared you to your People, and will hand down the Name of your Majesty with Veneration to the latest Posterity.

Given under our Common Seal, in our Council-Chamber, this Twenty-seventh Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred.

[Presented by Sir Richard Gamon, attended by Sir Henry Mildmay and Viscount Palmerston.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty, of the City of Norwich, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

DEEPLY impressed with a Sense of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, and anxiously solicitous for the Preservation of a Life so inestimably dear to all your Majesty's Subjects, we the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of Norwich beg Leave to approach the Throne with our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the Attempt of an Assassin.

While our utmost Abhorrence is excited against the Person who could meditate so heinous a Crime, we cannot but offer our Thanks to Almighty God for having been pleased to frustrate his wicked Intention, and to pray that your Majesty may long live and reign over a free, happy, and loyal People.

Given under the Common Seal of the said City the Twentieth Day of May One thousand eight hundred, in the Fortieth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Presented by John Harvey, Mayor, and Robert Harvey, Mayor Elect, with the City Members.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy and Inhabitants of the City of Coventry.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the City of Coventry, beg Leave most humbly to approach your Majesty to express our Indignation and Horror at the late atrocious and treasonable Attempt against your Majesty's sacred Person, and humbly to present to your Majesty our heartfelt Congratulations on the Preservation of a Life dear to your People, by every Tie of Love, Gratitude, and Affection.

Sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and just Government we look up with Devotion and Thankfulness to that good Providence by which your Majesty has been so signally protected and preserved in a Moment of great and imminent Danger.

Inspired with every Sentiment that can attach a grateful and affectionate People to their Sovereign, who makes their Happiness and Welfare the End of his Government, and the Guide of his Conduct, it is our earnest Prayer to that Almighty Being, by whose kind Providence this Nation has been so often and so signally preserved, that he will defend your Majesty against all malevolent Designs, and that your Reign over us may be long and glorious, easy to yourself and happy to your People.
