

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Council of the City of Aberdeen, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of the City of Aberdeen, beg Leave at this Time most humbly to approach the Throne, under a deep Sense of the great Importance of your Majesty's valuable Life, to the Happiness and Prosperity of these your Kingdoms; and to assure your Majesty, that we reflect with equal Astonishment and Horror on the late most atrocious and treasonable Attempt made against your Majesty's sacred Person; at the same Time when we consider the very signal Preservation of your Majesty, in so critical, and alarming a Situation. We feel the utmost Gratitude and Thankfulness for the remarkable Interposition of the Divine Providence, so eminently manifested on this Occasion, in saving your Majesty from so great and imminent a Danger; and do in the most dutiful and affectionate Manner congratulate your Majesty, and the whole of these Kingdoms upon so providential and momentous a Deliverance to yourself, to your Royal Family, and to your faithful People.

That Almighty God may long continue to protect and preserve your Majesty's precious and invaluable Life as a lasting Blessing to your Royal Family, and all your faithful Subjects; and that your Majesty may long, very long, reign over a People deeply sensible of the many signal Advantages and Blessings which they enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, are the daily and ardent Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most loyal and devoted Subjects and Servants, the Magistrates and Council of the City of Aberdeen.

Signed in their Name and Presence, and by their Appointment, and the Common City Seal is hereto affixed. At Aberdeen the Twenty-first Day of May, in the Year One thousand eight hundred.

By William Shepherd, Chief Magistrate.

[Presented by Alexander Allardice, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the City of Aberdeen.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Common-Council of the City of Glasgow.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Common-Council of the City of Glasgow, most humbly approach your Throne with sincere and heartfelt Congratulations upon your Majesty's providential Escape from the late traitorous Attack upon your sacred Life, by the Hand of a desperate and insatuated Assassin.

When we consider the dreadful Calamity which a Completion of that most wicked and daring Attempt would have proved to your affectionate Subjects, our Hearts are filled with Gratitude to Almighty God for having averted it; and we feel with renewed and increased Thankfulness the innumerable Blessings which we enjoy under your benign and paternal Government.

That your Majesty's Reign may be prosperous and glorious, and that you may long live to confer these Blessings upon a grateful and happy People, is our most devout and fervent Prayer.

Signed and sealed, with the Seal of the said City, in the Name and Presence and by Appointment of the Magistrates and Common-Council of the said City, in Council assembled, at Glasgow, the Twenty-first Day of May, One thousand eight hundred Years, by me Baillie, and in Absence of the Lord Provost, Chief Magistrate of the said City.

[Presented by the Lord Provost.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of your ancient and loyal City of Chester, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to express our unfeigned Joy, and to offer our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's late providential Escape from the atrocious Attack of an Assassin.

We most humbly return Thanks to the Almighty, for the Mercy vouchsafed to us, by the Preservation of a Life so inestimably dear to your Majesty's Subjects, and we most devoutly implore a Continuance of Safety and Protection to your Royal Person and Family, on which the Welfare of these Kingdoms so much depend.

Given under our Common Seal this Twenty-sixth Day of May, one thousand eight hundred.

[Presented by Lord Belgrave, Colonel Grosvenor, and Hugh Leicester, Esq; Recorder of Chester.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bailiff, approved Men Burgeses, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Andover.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff approved Men Burgeses, and principal Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Andover, humbly beg Leave to present to your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the late most horrid Attack made upon your sacred Person; and to testify our utmost Detestation and Abhorrence of that most wicked and atrocious Attempt.

We earnestly beseech the Almighty, whose Guardian Providence preserved your Majesty from this imminent Danger, to the unspeakable Joy of your grateful Subjects, to protect your Majesty from the Designs of all your Enemies, and to grant you a long and prosperous Reign over a People enjoying true Happiness and real Liberty under your Majesty's just and excellent Government.

Dated the Twenty-sixth Day of May, in the Fortieth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Presented by the Honorable Conston Wallop and Mr. Ashton Smith, Representatives of the Borough.]
