WITH the most ardent Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, we, the Inhabitants of the Town of Liverpool, humbly approach the Throne, anxious to express our deep Concern and Horror at the late daring Attempt against your Majesty's sacred Person, and to offer our heartfelt Congratulations that the protecting Hand of Providence has again interposed to preserve your Majesty in the Moment of imminent Danger, that you may continue a Blessing to your People, and receive additional Proofs of their inviolable and unbonded Loyalty and Attachment, and of the dutiful and affectionate Interest which they take in the Safety and Happiness of your Majesty and of every Branch of your Royal Family.

Permit us, Sire, to express our Hope, that through the Continuance of Divine Protection, every Attempt of your Enemies, both at Home and Abroad against your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, may, like the present, find its only Result in the additional Honor, Safety, and Happiness of your Majesty, and in giving still further Stability to that glorious Constitution which has raised this Country to a Degree of Prosperity unparalleled among the States of the World.

To our Sovereign Lord the KING's Most Excellent and Sacred Majesty.

The humble and dutiful Address of the ancient and loyal Corporation of Tenby, in the County of Pembroke.

Royal and Sacred Sire,

WE, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of your Majesty's ancient and loyal Borough of Tenby, in Common-Hall there assembled, astonished and alarmed at the late abominable, traitorous, daring, and desperate Attempt to assassinate your Majesty, even in public, and while surrounded by a Multitude of your Majesty's most loyal and affectionate Subjects, request here most humbly, dutifully, and cordially to congratulate your Majesty on this providential Escape, offering our unfeigned Thanks to the great and good God for this new Instance of Divine Interposition to prolong your Majesty's Days for the special Benefit of your Empire; and, with all Reverence, hoping that this gracious Favour conferred on us by Omnipotence is a kind Testimony that your People are not yet deemed so unworthy as to be resigned by the benevolent Father of all Mankind to the infernal Malice and diabolical Enmity of secret Traitors at Home, and of implacable Enemies Abroad. May all your Majesty's Subjects both here and elsewhere, so righteously conduct themselves as to induce our Almighty Creator to protect and preserve your Majesty's Life and Health during many future Years, not only for the particular Welfare of your Subjects, but for the general Good of Christendom; and not only for the Conservation of the British Constitution in Church and State, but to uphold Laws human and divine, and social Order throughout the World, endangered as they even now are by innumerable profligate and abandoned Miscreants prevalent for the present over extensive Regions too near to the Britannias, and almost solely controuled through your Majesty's Exertions and Auspices; to support which, and to defend your Majesty's Person and Government from all Foes, both Foreign and Domestic, we solemnly assure your Majesty that we, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects of this Borough of Tenby will ever readily contribute, at the Hazard and Expence of our Lives and Fortunes; and sincerely hope and believe that an Union of all the British Islands will considerably increase the Power requisite effectually to guard both Prince and People, and promote the common Prosperity of all your Majesty's Dominions.

a corruptible for an incorruptible Crown, and your Posterity, in Peace, in Glory, and Felicity, continue to sway the Sceptre of the British Empire to the End of Time!

Truly sensible of your Majesty's benign Disposition, and the Mildness of your Government, we return our sincerest Thanks to the Almighty Power for his divine Interference, in the Preservation of a Life so inestimable to ourselves and all your Majesty's Subjects, and humbly implore that he will graciously vouchsafe long to preserve and protect your Majesty's Life and Person.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall in Saffron Walden, this Twenty-third Day of May, One thousand eight hundred.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Attached to your Majesty by every Sentiment which can most endear a Sovereign to his People, by the long Experience of your Majesty's paternal Affection towards us, and by our Veneration for the distinguished Virtues which adorn your Majesty's Character, and which are always most eminently displayed in the Hour of Trial; we acknowledge with all Humility and Gratitude that merciful Interposition of Providence which has been so signally manifested on this Occasion; and we make it our earnest Prayer to Almighty God, that he will long preserve to us the same Blessings, and continue to watch over and protect a Life so justly dear to a free and loyal People.

We will never cease to pray, that it may please God still to protect your Majesty from all Assaults of open Violence, to confound all Devices of secret Treason, and to grant a long Continuance of a Life so valuable, so dear to a truly loyal and affectionate People.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Judges, Advocates, and Proctors of your Majesty's Ecclesiastical and Admiralty Courts, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with our cordial Congratulations on the Interposition of Providence lately manifested in the Preservation of your Majesty's Life.

Deeply affected with Concern at finding that the Hand of any one of your Majesty's Subjects should be armed with Violence against the sacred Person of our Sovereign, we feel some Consolation in reflecting that the universal Grief and Anxiety which such an Event has excited, have furnished to the World a new and striking Demonstration, how universally your Majesty reigns in the Hearts of a loyal and united People.

That the same Guardian Care, which has on this Occasion protected a Life so justly endeared to them, may long continue to preserve it for their common Security and Happiness, is the fervent Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects.

SIRE!

LES Pasteurs & Anciens de l'Eglise Helvetique établie à Londres, en leur nom, & en celui de leur Congrégation, supplient votre Majesté qu'elle daigne accueillir avec Bienveillance la Déclaration de leurs Sentimens sur un Evénement dont la Seule Pensée est si affreuse qu'ils peuvent à peine se résoudre à le designer.

Mais si l'Horreur d'un Attentat sur la Personne auguste & sacrée les a pénétrés de Douleur & d'Effroi, la Protection Divine si visiblement déployée dans ce jour sur votre Majesté leur montre une Garde invincible que veille autour d'Elle & en éloigne les Dangers. Avec quels Sentimens d'Amour et de Respect tous les Coeurs ont accueilli ce Récit étonnant de la Sérénité, de la Grandeur d'Ame d'un Monarque cheri, qui à l'Instant même du Péril inaccessible à toute Crainte, & sensible aux Affections d'Epoux, de Pere, & de Roi, n'est occupé qu'à inspirer sa Confiance à ceux qui l'entourent. Ainsi tout ce qui met le Cœur de votre Majesté à une nouvelle Epreuve ne sert qu'à déployer de nouvelles Vertus.

Pénétrés de la plus respectueuse Reconnoissance pour la Protection dont nous jouissons avec nos Compatriotes, sous le Gouvernement paternel de votre Majesté, nous adressons au Ciel le plus ardent des Prières pour qu'il conserve long Temps des jours si chers à tous vos Sujets, & qu'il répande avec Abondance ses plus précieuses Bénédictions sur votre Majesté & sur son auguste Famille.

The humble Address of the Society of Writers to your Majesty's Signet in Scotland.

WE, the Society of Writers to your Majesty's Signet in Scotland, request Permission to approach the Throne, and under the deepest Sense of Gratitude to Almighty God, for defeating the late atrocious Attempt against your sacred Person, to express our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's Preservation.

When we contemplate your Majesty's Public Conduct and your Private Virtues, it is with Difficulty we can persuade ourselves to believe that there exists a Mind so depraved as could prompt the impious

Hand of Treason to rise against the Life of a Sovereign, whose Throne is guarded by the universal Love, Veneration, and Loyalty of his People.

With these Sentiments, while we feel Abhorrence at the flagitious Attempt, we pray for your Majesty's Safety and Welfare; and judging from the Past, we preface, with pleasing Anticipation, the Continuation of that large Portion of human Happiness, which under Divine Providence and your benign Influence, our unrivalled Constitution has hitherto diffused through every Part of the British Dominions.

We earnestly pray that his good Providence may continue to guard you from all Dangers, and long preserve you the Sovereign and the Father of your People.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Justices of the Peace for the City and Liberty of Westminster, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Deliverance from the atrocious Attempt lately made on your Majesty's sacred Person.

We contemplate with the deepest Sorrow that a Human Being exists in your Majesty's Dominions capable of so horrid an Act of Treason. We beg your Majesty will be assured our vigilant and active Endeavours as Magistrates and faithful Subjects, will at all Times be exerted to guard and protect your sacred Person, and to support our excellent Constitution.

May the Almighty grant to your Majesty a long Continuance of a Life so truly dear to us, the Comfort and Happiness of which we feel it our indispensable Duty to promote by a constant Attention to the due Administration of those Laws with the execution of which we are entrusted for the Preservation of Peace and good Order, and the Encouragement of Religion and Virtue, of which your Majesty is so bright an Example.

St. James's, May 30, 1800.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Grace presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses, the Common-Council of the Royal Borough of Axbridge, in the County of Somerset.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave most humbly to evidence our deep Concern that in any Human Mind should have been wrought a Design so diabolical and atrocious as that lately put in Execution against your Majesty's sacred Person, and to express our Horror and Indignation at the treasonable Attempt, and also to express our heartfelt Congratulations to your Majesty, your Royal Consort, and dutiful Offspring, as also to the Country at large at your providential Escape therefrom.

Attached to your Majesty, as in Duty bound to preserve Fidelity to so invaluable a Sovereign, we thankfully acknowledge the merciful Interference of Divine Providence so openly shown in the Preservation of your Majesty, and make it our incessant Prayer to the Supreme Being that He will long, very long, protect and preserve a Life so replete of good Example, and so justly dear to us.

Given under the Common Seal in the Council Chamber of said Borough, the Twenty-third Day of May One thousand eight hundred.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Wigan, in the County of Lancashire, assure your Majesty, that the paternal Care extended by your Majesty to all Ranks and Degrees of your Subjects awakens on every Occasion of Danger to your sacred Person the most lively and affectionate Sensations; and although your Royal Virtues secure you from the parricidal Attempts even of the most abandoned and desperate, yet the Hazard to which your high Pre-eminence has recently exposed you, by raising the Arm of a Being, impotent to appreciate the Evils resulting from the Deed either to himself, these Realms, or civilized Mankind, against his Sovereign's Life, calls upon us to thank Almighty God that he has thus vindicated his Divine Providence in shielding you from the fatal Blow, and to mingle our Prayers with the Rest of the Nation for the Preservation of a Life so justly dear and invaluable to us.

Given under our Common Seal the Twenty-third Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Lord Keith, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Mediterranean to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated on board His Majesty's Ship Minotaur, off Genoa, the 7th May, 1800.

SIR,

YOU will be pleased to lay before their Lordships the enclosed Copy of a Letter from Captain Dixon, of His Majesty's Ship Lion, to Sir Thomas Troubridge, Bart. containing a Narrative of the Circumstances attending the Capture of the Guillaume Tell, and a List of the killed and wounded on board His Majesty's Ship on that Occasion.

The honorable Testimony borne by Captain Dixon to the meritorious Conduct of the Officers engaged with him in the Pursuit and Capture of this Ship, cannot fail to attract their Lordships' Attention, and ensure the Honor of their Countenance and Support.

I have the Honor to be, Sir, &c. &c. &c.

KEITH.

*Lion at Sea, off Cape Passero,

SIR,

I Have the Honor to inform you that Yesterday Morning, at Nine o'Clock, Cape Passero bearing N. $\frac{1}{2}$ E., distant Seven Leagues, the French Ship of War Le Guillaume Tell, of Eighty-six Guns and One Thousand Men, bearing the Flag of Contre Amiral Decres, surrendered, after a most gallant and obstinate Defence of Three Hours and a Half, to His Majesty's Ships Foudroyant, Lion, and Penelope.

To detail the Particulars of this very important Capture, I have to inform you, that the Signal Rockets and cannonading from our Batteries at Malta, the Midnight preceding, with the favorable strong Southerly Gale, together with the Darkness which succeeded the setting of the Moon, convinced me the Enemy's Ships of War were attempting to effect an Escape, and which was immediately ascertained by that judicious and truly valuable Officer Captain Blackwood, of the Penelope, who had been stationed a few Hours before the Lion and Valette, for the Purpose of observing closely the Motions of the Enemy; nearly at Midnight an Enemy's Ship was descried by him, when the Minorca was sent to inform me of it, giving Chace himself, apprizing me by Signal that the strange Ships seen were hauled to the Wind on the Starboard Tack. I lost not One Moment in making the Signal for the Squadron to cut or slip, and directed Captain Miller, of the Minorca, to run down to the Foudroyant and Alexander with the Intelligence, and to repeat the Signal.

Under a Prefs of Canvas I gave Chace until Five A. M., solely guided by the cannonading of the Penelope; and, as a Direction to the Squadron, a Rocket and Blue Light were shewn every Half Hour from the Lion. As the Day broke, I found myself in Gun-shot of the Chace, and the Penelope within Musket-shot, raking her, the Effects of whose well-directed Fire during the Night, had shot away the Main and Mizzen Top-Masts, and Main-Yard; the Enemy appeared in great Confusion, being reduced to his Head-Sails, going with the Wind on the Quarter.

The Lion was run close alongside; the Yard-Arms of both Ships being just clear, when a destructive Broadside of Three Round Shot in each Gun was poured in, luffing up across the Bow, when the Enemy's Jib-Boom passed between the Main and Mizzen-Shrouds; after a short Interval, I had the Pleasure to see the Boom carried away, and the Ships disentangled, maintaining a Position across the Bow, firing to great Advantage.

I was not the least solicitous either to board or be boarded, as the Enemy appeared of immense Bulk and full of Men, keeping up a prodigious Fire of Musketry, which, with the Bow Chafes, she could for a long Time only use, I found it absolutely necessary, if possible, to keep from the Broadside of this Ship: after being engaged about Fifty Minutes, the Foudroyant was seen under a Prefs of Canvas, and soon passed, hailing the Enemy to strike, which being declined, a very heavy Fire from both Ships, Broadside to Broadside, was most gallantly maintained, the Lion and Penelope frequently in Situations to do great Execution; in short, Sir, after the hottest Action that probably was ever maintained by an Enemy's Ship, opposed to those of His Majesty, and being totally dismasted, the French Admiral's Flag and Colours were struck.

I have not Language to express the high Sense of Obligation I feel myself under to Captain Blackwood for his prompt and able Conduct in leading the Line of Battle Ships to the Enemy, for the Gallantry and Spirit so highly conspicuous in him, and for his admirable Management of the Frigate; to your discriminating Judgment it is unnecessary to Remark, of what real Value and Importance such an Officer must ever be considered to His Majesty's Service: the Termination of the Battle must be attributed to the spirited Fire of the Foudroyant, whose Captain, Sir Edward Berry, has justly added another Laurel to the many he has gained during the War.

Captain Blackwood speaks in very high Terms of the active and gallant Conduct of Captain Long of the Vincejo during the Night; and I beg to mention the Services of Captains Broughton and Miller.

The crippled Condition of the Lion and Foudroyant made it necessary for me to direct Captain Blackwood to take Possession of the Enemy, take him in Tow, and proceed to Syracuse.

I received the greatest possible Assistance from Lieutenant Joseph Patey, Senior Officer of the Lion, and from Mr. Spence the Master, who, together with the other Officers and Ship's Company, shewed the most determined Gallantry.

Captains Sir Edward Berry and Blackwood have reported to me the same gallant and animated Behaviour in the Officers and Crews of their respective Ships.

I am sorry to say that the Three Ships have suffered much in Killed and Wounded, and that the Loss of the Enemy is prodigious, being upwards of Two Hundred.

I refer you to the inclosed Reports for further Particulars as to the State of His Majesty's Ships, and have the Honor to remain, Sir, &c. &c. &c.
