St. James's, May 30, 1800.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and the Rest of your Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and the Rest of your Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere Congratulations upon your Majesty's late providential Escape from the atrocious Attempt of an Assassin.

Sire, The blow which was aimed at your Majesty's Life struck at the Heart of every British Subject. An united People raise their Voice in Thanks and Adoration to Almighty God for this great and signal Mark of Divine Favor, in preserving to them their beloved Sovereign and common Father.

May your Majesty long continue to reign over a zealous, happy, and loyal People.

By Order of Court,

Edward Grosse Smith, Clerk.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the President and Fellows of Sion-College; within the City of London.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the incorporated Clergy of your City of London, beg Leave to approach your royal Presence with our most cordial Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the late atrocious Attempt on your sacred Person, and with the most heartfelt Sense of this repeated Instance of the Divine Mercy toward the People of this Land, in preserving a Life so valuable and dear to us.

Sensible of the various and great Blessings, both Ecclesiastical and Civil, which we enjoy in common with the Rest of your Majesty's Subjects under your mild and paternal Government, we fervently implore the Supreme Disposer of all Events to watch over and guard your royal Person from every Attempt made against it; and to grant that your Majesty may long continue to reign in the Hearts of a grateful and loyal People.

Given under our Common Seal this Twenty-eighth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred.

John Moore, President.

[Presented by the Reverend John Moore, LL. B. President, John Brand, M. A. and James Davies, Deans.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Magistrates, Clergymen, and Inhabitants of the City and Close of the Cathedral Church of Lichfield.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, with all Humility and Reverence, beg Leave to address your Majesty with our unfeigned Expressions of Duty and Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to offer our sincere Congratulations upon your Majesty's recent providential Escape from the daring and wicked Attempt upon your Majesty's sacred Person; and to declare our Indignation at what must be viewed with Abhorrence by every honest Briton.

We acknowledge with Gratitude to Divine Providence, that under the benign and auspicious Reign of your Majesty, we enjoy all the Blessings which a free Constitution can bestow, maintained no less by the personal Virtues, which so peculiarly dignify and adorn your Majesty, than by the Wisdom and Clemency of your Majesty's Administration; and we heartily pray that your Majesty may long continue to reign (undisturbed either by the open Attack of public Enemies, or by the dark Designs of the base Assassin,) not only over the Persons, but in the Hearts of your faithful Subjects, a mild and just Distributor of the Laws, and an Example of every moral Excellence to your People.

[Presented by Sir John Wrothslley and Mr. Anson.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dean of the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter at Westminster, together with the Lord High Steward, Deputy Steward, High Bailiff, Chief
