

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 7, to Tuesday June 10, 1800.

St. James's, June 4, 1800.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Citizens, and Inhabitants of the City of Gloucester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WITH the deepest Abhorrence of the late impious Attempt on your Majesty's Life, an Attempt which nothing could excite but the most outrageous Insanity, or the still more outrageous Influence of that baneful Spirit which seeks the Destruction of all Order, and of every Thing estimable in Society, we the Mayor, Citizens, and Inhabitants of your ancient and loyal City of Gloucester, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincerest Congratulations on that gracious Providence, which shielded your sacred Person from the Blow of the Assassin.

Endeared to us by the great and amiable Example of your whole Demeanour, by our ample Experience of your mild and equitable Government, and above all, by your tried Love of our envied Constitution, it will be our unceasing Prayer, that your Majesty may long rule an affectionate People, alike victorious over foreign Enemies, and safe from domestic Traitors.

[Presented by John Pitt and Henry Howard, Esqrs. Members for the City of Gloucester.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean, and Clergy of Bristol, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with every Expression of the most ardent Gratitude to Divine Goodness for the late signal Protection of a Life so valuable to the best Interests of Mankind, so dear to faithful Subjects, attached to your Majesty by the united Obligations of political Obedience and personal Veneration, and grateful to your Majesty for the parental Care with which you have invariably regarded their religious and civil Liberties.

May the same Almighty Power continue to watch over and protect your sacred Person; may no Englishman be void of the Horror which we feel at the Crime of Assassination, or be uninfluenced by Reverence for that Example of undaunted Firmness in Danger, which your Majesty has repeatedly given to your Subjects, who value it the more, as they know it to be founded on the noblest Principles of Religion.

[Presented by the Bishop of Bristol, accompanied by the Dean of Bristol.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Durham.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Durham, humbly present to your Majesty our sincere Congratulations on your providential Deliverance from the late wicked and atrocious Attempt on the sacred Person of your Majesty.

With Indignation and Astonishment we contemplate this most foul and horrid Attempt. We most humbly declare our Admiration of your Majesty's Virtues, our Loyalty and Affection to your Person and Government, and our Gratitude for your Majesty's constant Care and solicitude for the Welfare of your People.

We beg Leave to express our anxious Zeal for the Security of your Majesty's Person, and our Attachment to the Constitution, and to offer our Lives and Fortunes to guard and defend your Majesty's most valuable Life against all your Enemies foreign or domestic.

Signed at the unanimous Resolution of the County Meeting, held at Durham the Second Day of June, One thousand eight hundred, and in the Name of the said Meeting.

Hedworth Williamson, Sheriff,

[Presented by the Bishop of Durham and Sir Ralph Milbank, Bart. and Rowland Bourdon, Esq; Members for the County.]

