

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 14; to Tuesday June 17, 1800.

St. James's, June 11, 1800.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Council of the City of Brechine, North Britain.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of the City of Brechine, beg Leave to approach your Majesty to express our most sincere Feelings on the late atrocious Attempt against your Majesty's sacred Person, upon hearing of which our Minds were strongly impressed and deeply affected with Astonishment and Horror. At same Time we beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most humble and affectionate Congratulations on your providential Escape from the Danger which threatened your sacred Life; and we most sincerely pray that the Almighty, who has so recently interposed his protecting Arm for the Preservation of a Life so justly dear to your dutiful and loyal Subjects, will long continue to guard and watch over the same, for the Defence of your Subjects, our Laws and Liberties, both Civil and Ecclesiastical, and for the Happiness and Blessing of your Royal and illustrious Family.

Signed in our Presence and by our Appointment, Thomas Molison, Chief Magistrate. Brechine, 30th May 1800.

[Presented by Mr. Allardyce, Representative in Parliament for the City of Brechine.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Masters, and Burgeses, and other Inhabitants of the City and Liberty of Saint Andrew, in Wells.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Masters, and Burgeses, and other Inhabitants of the City and Liberty of Saint Andrew, in Wells, beg Leave to approach your Throne with the Offer of our sincere Congratulations on your late happy Escape from a desperate and daring Attempt against your invaluable Life.

When we mark in the strongest Terms our most Abhorrence and Indignation at such base and treasonable Designs, we cannot but express our Gratitude for the Divine Interposition repeatedly manifested in your Favor by averting a Blow which might have proved so calamitous to the British Empire.

We implore the Almighty to continue to be your best Safeguard and Defence that you may long live to reign in the Hearts as well as over the Persons of all your Majesty's faithful Subjects.

Signed on Behalf of the Meeting.

John Brock, Mayor.

[Presented by Charles Taylor, Member for Wells.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Peter, in Exeter, beg Leave to lay our humble Address at the Foot of your Throne.

Impressed with every Sentiment of Duty and Affection which can attach grateful Subjects to the Father of his People, we shudder at the Recollection of the late horrid Attempt upon the sacred Person of your Majesty; at the same Time we adore with unfeigned Thankfulness the Interposition of that Almighty Hand, which, in defeating the desperate Designs of this Treason has vouchsafed to add another signal Instance of Mercy and Protection to our Church and Nation.

In this Expression of our Duty and Allegiance we are confident that we speak the Sense of every Lover of our Country, but not to forget our peculiar Character as Ministers of the Gospel of Peace and Order, we presume to assure your Majesty as well of our united Endeavours, as of our individual Exertions in our respective Stations, to promote both by Precept and Example, those Principles and Sentiments of Loyalty which are inseparable from a due Regard for the public Welfare, praying always with all Perseverance for the Continuance of a Life rendered invaluable to your Subjects by all the Virtues which can make a Throne illustrious or a People happy.

Given under our Common Seal this Twenty-ninth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred.

[Presented by the Bishop of Exeter.]

