Published by Authority.

From Tuesday June 17, to Saturday June 21, 1800.

St. James's, June 18, 1800.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted by His Excellency the Marquis Cornwallis, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to His Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the City of Cork.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the City of Cork, in Council assembled, impressed with the deepest Sense of Horror, when we reflect, that the Earth teemed with a Monster capable of raising his Arm against the sacred Person of a Sovereign so justly beloved and revered, who reigns in the Hearts of his People.

On so awful an Occasion we feel truly anxious to unite with every other good Subject throughout your Majesty's Dominions, in expressing our most joyful Congratulations on the happy and providential Escape your Majesty has had from the murderous Attempt of so execrable an Assassin.

We offer up our most devout and unceasing Thanksgiving to the Supreme Dispenser of all earthly Happiness for His merciful Interposition, in preserving a Life so valuable, and on which the Welfare of Millions depends.

May that Gracious God still continue to protect and shield your Majesty, in the Hour of Danger, from all traitorous Conspiracies; and may your Life be prolonged to the latest Period that in the ordinary Course of Nature is allotted to any human Being; and, when accomplished, may perfect and permanent Happiness await you in a future State, as a Reward for a most exemplary and virtuous Discharge of every Duty that could endear your Majesty to the ardent Love and Affection of all your faithful Subjects.

Done at the Council Chamber, Cork, the Twenty-sixth Day of May One thousand eight hundred.

Mich. Busfield, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Citizens of the City of Limerick, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Citizens of the City of Limerick, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the warmest Effusion of our heartfelt Congratulations on your recent Escape from the horrid and traitorous Attack of an Assassin.

Impressed with the most awful Horror at the disastrous Consequences which might have followed so desperate an Attempt, we mix our Prayers with our Acknowledgments to the Divine Mercy, that the same Providence which has so signally sheltered your Majesty's invaluable Life may continue its Divine Protection for the Happiness of all your People, and for the Deliverance of Europe.

Any Circumstance whatsoever which awakens our Apprehensions that your Majesty's Kingdoms may be deprived of your gracious Superintendance, serves only to excite our additional Admiration of your exalted Virtues; and whilst it reminds us of the Blessings we have enjoyed under your auspicious Reign, it increases our Attachment to your Royal Person, and redoubles our Solitude for your Safety.

Signed by Order,

Edward Parker, Town Clerk.

Limerick, May 29, 1800.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Freemen, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the City of Waterford and its Vicinity, approach the Throne with sincere and heartfelt Sentiments of Joy and Gratitude for the especial Care of Providence, which has preserved from the atrocious Attack of an abhorred Assassin, the beloved Father of his People.

Attached by the most lasting and dearest Ties to that glorious Constitution which secures to these Realms their proud Pre-eminence in Happiness, we feel those Blessings closely interwoven with the Safety of our Sovereign, whose mild and equal Rule has seated his Throne most firmly in the Hearts of his Subjects.

With anxious and unceasing Solitude we look up, in common with the Millions who acknowledge in their Monarch a Father and a Friend, to the beneficent Care of Providence for a Continuance of that paternal Rule, to which, under its Protection, we are already indebted for so many and such signal Blessings.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Sovereign and Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Hillsborough, in the County of Down, and Kingdom of Ireland.

Sheweth,

THAT they have heard with the greatest Abhorrence of the late most atrocious Attempt made upon the Person of your most sacred Majesty:

That they are devoted to the Support, unalterably and most affectionately attached to your Person, Family, and Government; and return their most sincere and devout Thanks to Almighty God for His providential Interposition in the Preservation of your Majesty's Life from the Hands of an Assassin.

They humbly presume to join their Prayers with those of your Majesty's loyal Subjects, that God may continue His protecting Care, and preserve your Life against every traitorous Attempt, and that your Majesty may long reign over these Kingdoms.

George Atkinson, Deputy Sovereign.

St. James's, June 18, 1800.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the ancient Town and City of Peterborough.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the ancient Town and City of Peterborough, humbly presume to approach your Royal Person, and should consider ourselves extremely wanting in Justice to our Feelings, did we for an Instant delay the Opportunity of testifying our heartfelt Satisfaction at the providential Escape which your Majesty has so recently experienced, in the merciful Preservation of your sacred Life, from the daring Attempt of an atrocious Assassin, and also of expressing our Gratitude in the warmest Sense in return for the unremitting Solitude which your Majesty has ever evinced for the Happiness and Welfare of your People since the Period your Majesty has, with the most exemplary Rectitude, swayed the Royal Sceptre of this envied Island, the Wonder and Asylum of surrounding Nations. If ever there was a Time when Men in all Ranks and Stations were more than ordinarily called upon humbly to acknowledge the gracious Interposition of that Almighty Power, by whom Kings reign, it is the present; we cannot, therefore, but be zealously anxious to offer up at the Throne of Grace our unfeigned Thanks for the marvellous Deliverance which God has vouchsafed to us in the Protection of your Majesty, His anointed. Deeply impressed with a becoming Sense of this loving Kindness of the Lord, we shall ever cherish it as an Incitement to our ardent Wishes, that Heaven may long preserve to us your Majesty's invaluable Life; and shower down upon your Majesty the choicest Tokens of its Beneficence. Be graciously pleased, Sir, to accept this your Majesty's loyal Subjects' Tribute of Affection, and we doubt not that it will be the Ambition of all your People to proffer their Regard by similar Testimonies of Duty and Reverence; and as Posterity may learn from your Majesty's bright Example how Kings should live, may they learn also from the general Zeal and Attachment of your Majesty's Subjects how they may be best honored.

[Presented by the Honorable Lionel Damer and French Laurence, Esq; Representatives of the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Perth, beg Leave to offer our fervent Congratulations on the merciful Interposition of Divine Providence so recently displayed in protecting the sacred Person of your Majesty from the late atrocious and treasonable Attempt of an Assassin.

Deeply impressed with the most lively Gratitude for the many Benefits we have enjoyed under your Majesty's Government, and admiring the public and private Virtues of your Majesty, we felt with the deepest Abhorrence so unmerited an Outrage.

That your Majesty, guarded and protected by an ever-watchful Providence, may long reign over these Realms, and in the Hearts of your loyal and faithful Subjects, is the earnest Prayer and Supplication of your Majesty's free, happy, and loyal Subjects, Inhabitants of the County of Perth.

Signed by our Prefes, in our Name, and by our Appointment. Atholl, Prefes.

[Presented by the Earl of Kinnoull.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Nobility, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Kincardine.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Nobility, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Kincardine, most humbly request Permission to approach your Majesty's Throne, to express our Feelings and Sentiments on the late treasonable Attack on the best of Sovereigns.

It was with the utmost Astonishment, Horror, and Indignation, we heard of the daring and outrageous Violence attempted against the sacred Person of your Majesty, under whose gracious Government this Realm has long experienced so many great and inestimable Blessings.

Animated with every Sentiment of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty, and Gratitude for the unequalled Happiness these Kingdoms enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, we most sincerely join with the whole Nation in humble and grateful Thanksgiving to Divine Providence for its signal

Interposition in protecting your Majesty from so execrable an Attempt; and we pray to Almighty God, that he will long continue to preserve a Life so justly dear to us and our fellow Subjects.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the Meeting, by Alexander Burnet, of Strachan, Esq; Advocate, Sheriff Depute of the County, our Preses, at Stonehaven, the Twenty-eighth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred, and of His Majesty's Reign the Fortieth Year.

God save the King.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Glamorgan, beg Leave to offer your Majesty the strongest Assurances of our utmost Abhorrence of every Attempt to injure your Majesty's most sacred Person; and with the most sincere Devotion we offer up our Thanksgivings to Almighty God for having so graciously extended his Mercy to the World in general, and to these Kingdoms in particular, in the Protection of your Royal Person from the late most daring and wicked Attempt of a desperate Assassin; and we sincerely pray, that the same Almighty Being, who hath hitherto preserved your Majesty, may long continue you to reign over a prosperous and happy People.

[Presented by Robert Jenner, Esq; Sheriff, Sir Charles Morgan, Charles Morgan, Esq; and J. K. Tynte, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Common-Council, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Town and County of Haverfordwest, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincere Congratulations on the providential Preservation of your sacred Person from the daring Attempt of an Assassin. We presume not to investigate by what treasonable Motives a Subject could be led to commit so horrid an Act; but we may venture to say there is no Government under Heaven where a Person thus accused would meet so fair a Trial as under the existing Laws of this Country, during the Whole of your Majesty's Reign, so justly administered and mildly executed.

Unwilling to suppose that any of our Countryman can for a Moment hesitate in the Preference of our blessed Constitution over all the chaotic Anarchy which has too much desolated Europe, we deem it unnecessary to declare that we will stand forward to oppose internal Foes with as much Loyalty as we displayed in resisting the foreign Enemy who landed on our distant Coasts.

Feeling the many Acts by which your sacred Majesty has endeared yourself to your Subjects, we (on our own Petition happily and long united with your Majesty's other Dominions) beg Permission to join our fellow Subjects in a fervent Prayer for a long Continuance of that Life so justly valuable to every Part of the Empire.

[Presented by Lord Milford.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign;

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen and Gentlemen of the County of Banff this Day specially assembled, beg Leave to approach the Throne of our beloved Sovereign, to testify our high Indignation at the late most daring and atrocious Attempt against your sacred Person, and to present our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape.

Happy in the Possession of the most enviable Constitution, and sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and equitable Government, we fervently pray that the same overruling Providence may continue to shield your Majesty from the Designs of your Enemies, and that your Majesty may long reign on the Throne of these Kingdoms, and in the Hearts of a loyal, grateful, and united People.

Signed in our Name and by our Appointment, at Banff, this Thirtieth Day of May One thousand eight hundred.

Banff, Preses.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Selkirk.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Selkirk, beg Leave humbly to approach the Throne to congratulate your Majesty upon your fortunate Escape, under Protection of Almighty Providence, from the late treasonable Attempt of a daring Assassin against a Life so justly dear to these Realms, and to assure your Majesty of our sincere and heartfelt Indignation at a Crime atrocious and horrible in every Point of View.

Attached as we are to your Majesty by those Sentiments which cannot fail to endear a Sovereign to his Subjects, we come forward on the present Occasion with an unanimous Repetition of our high Veneration for your Majesty's distinguished Virtues and your paternal Affection towards us, and it is our earnest Prayer that your Majesty may long continue to reign undisturbed over a happy and loyal People with the best Blessings of Heaven upon your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

Subscribed by our Authority and in our Presence, by Mark Pringle, Preses.

Selkirk, 3d June, 1800.

[Presented by Lord Napier, His Majesty's Lieutenant of the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

S I R E,

WE, your Majesty's faithfully attached Subjects, the Gentlemen of every Description, and whole Inhabitants of the County and Town of Nairn, met to solemnize the Anniversary of your Birth, feeling a cloudy Damp hanging over the Conviviality usual on that Occasion, from the many Attempts made against your Life, particularly that late premeditated one in Drury-Lane Theatre, cannot help expressing an anxious Wish that the Assassin (if such he is found by the Laws of his Country,) may not find shelter from exemplary Punishment under the false Cloak of an Infliction from that Deity who has commanded "Thou shalt not kill."—From that Almighty God who has hitherto protected, and whom we most fervently implore, may continue to protect and preserve your Majesty long in Health and Happiness, the Parent of your People.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Meeting.

James Brodie, Lieutenant of Nairnshire, Preses.

Nairn, 4th June, 1800.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Pembroke.

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Pembroke, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, to testify, by this humble Address, our Abhorrence of the Infernal Attempt upon your Majesty's valuable Life, and to convey our warmest Congratulations on your providential Escape from the premeditated Design of a Blood-thirsty Traitor.

Conscious of the manifold and great Blessings we have enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and merciful Government, whilst the Nations all around us groaned under heavy Loads of Oppression, we return our most humble and grateful Thanks to the King of Kings, for giving a different Direction to the Pistol, when levelled at your sacred Person; and, as we are always anxious for the Preservation of our Religion, our Liberty, and our Laws, we solemnly assure your Majesty, that we will lend every Support that Zeal, Affection, and Fidelity can furnish to your Administration: and we most earnestly pray, that the same watchful Providence may protect and continue your Majesty long to reign over a free, happy, and contented People.

We acknowledge, with all Humility and Gratitude, the merciful Interposition of that Providence, so signally manifested on this Occasion in the Preservation of your Majesty's Life, rendered dear to us from the long Experience of the Happiness and many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's just and mild Government: and we offer up our Prayers to Almighty God, that the same Divine Providence may, by protecting your Majesty's invaluable Life, insure to us the Continuance of those Blessings.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Inhabitants of Stonehaven, Head Burgh of the County of Kincardine in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Inhabitants of Stonehaven, assembled for the Purpose, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne, and with real and unfeigned Satisfaction, to congratulate your Majesty on your Majesty's late providential Escape from the daring and wicked Attempt on your Majesty's sacred Person.

Deeply sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, and of the inestimable Proofs which your Majesty has invariably manifested for the Happiness and Prosperity of your Subjects, it is with the utmost Abhorrence we look back on so atrocious an Attack on a Sovereign whose whole Life has been engaged in Acts of universal Benevolence to his People.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our most zealous, faithful, and firm Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and to the happy Constitution under which we live, and of our Readiness to guard the same with our Lives; and we earnestly pray, that your Majesty's Life, so valuable to your Subjects, may be long preserved against the Attempts both of foreign and domestic Enemies, and that your Majesty may long continue to reign over, and be the Ornament of a free and a happy People.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Portreeve, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Swansea, with all Humility beg Leave to address our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Escape from the late Attempt of an abandoned Assassin on your sacred Person. Words are inadequate to express our Horror of so heinous a Crime which was meant to deprive the Realm of the best of Kings, the Father of his People, or our Joy at the Failure in the Perpetration of the horrid Deed. We cannot be too thankful to that kind Providence which hath in every Respect, but more especially in this, watched over the Safety of these Kingdoms, for having averted the dreadful Blow; nor with too much Zeal and Gratitude offer up our earnest Prayers at the Throne of Divine Power for the Continuance of that Protection so long and conspicuously manifested to your Majesty's Goodness and Virtues, and pray for the latest Period of human Life to be fixed to your Majesty's Years for the Blessings and Welfare of your Subjects.

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of York.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of Dunfermline, in Council assembled, beg Leave to express those Sentiments of Horror and Indignation which in common with the rest of our fellow Subjects we feel at the late treasonable and diabolical Attempt against your Majesty's sacred Person, and our most sincere Congratulations on your Preservation from such imminent Danger.

From whatever Motive this foul and nefarious Deed may have sprung, whether originating in the dark and bloody Conceptions of Treason, or the melancholy but dreadful Workings in the Mind of a Maniac, it is equally a Source of Wonder and Astonishment, that such an horrible Idea could have found Place in the Imagination of any Person living under the Protection of your Majesty's Government. Happily through the Interposition of Divine Providence Assassination has missed its Aim, and the British Empire is relieved from the Apprehension of suffering from so direful a Calamity.

Warmly attached to your Majesty's Person and Family, and sensible of the many Benefits derived from your mild and equitable Government, it is our earnest Prayer, that these Blessings may be continued, and that Providence will long preserve a Life so essentially necessary to the Happiness and Prosperity of these Kingdoms.

THE undersigned, the unfortunate Debtors confined in Giltspur-Street Compter, in the City of London, most humbly beg Leave thus to approach the Person of their Sovereign with their dutiful and sincere Congratulations on the miraculous Escape it has pleased Almighty God to grant to the Father of his People, by rendering abortive the foul Intent of a black Assassin; and to assure your Majesty that though the Laws of their Country deprive them of the inestimable Blessings of Liberty, yet their Loyalty to your Majesty's Person and illustrious Family is unhaken, and they bow with Resignation to those Laws, convinced their Intent is the well-being of Society.

That when they shall have the Happiness of again becoming Members of the Community, they will ever be ready to prove their Attachment to their Sovereign and the Constitution of their Country.

And they most fervently pray that the King of Kings may long preserve the sacred Life of your Majesty, continue to your Majesty's loyal Subjects those Blessings they have hitherto enjoyed under their mild Ruler, and make every Individual sensible of the Favours of Providence to your Majesty's People.

The humble Address of the President, Vice Presidents, Treasurer, Directors, and Members of the Royal Humane Society.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, Directors, and Members of the Royal Humane Society, presume humbly to approach your sacred Person, with the most heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Escape from an atrocious and treasonable Attempt against the invaluable Life of our much-loved Sovereign, to acknowledge with grateful Awe the signal Interposition of Divine Providence, which averted impending Assassination, and to offer to your Majesty our reverential Admiration of the truly great Magnanimity with which you endured the daring Assault.

Honoured as we are by the Patronage which your Majesty has graciously condescended to bestow on our Society, instituted for the Preservation of Life in Cases of peculiar Calamity, from which not the highest Rank is an Exemption; and animated in our Endeavours by the Example and personal Exertions of an amiable young Prince, whose Pride and Glory it is to hail your Majesty his august and Royal Father; most warmly do we participate in the general Joy diffused through an affectionate, a loyal, and an united Nation.

Long, very long, may your Majesty continue to reign the Monarch of your People's Affection, the Patron of Science and the Arts, and the Guardian, under God, of true Religion and our incomparable Constitution.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of Lanark, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave most humbly to approach your Majesty's Throne, and to offer our most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Preservation from the late most daring and atrocious Attempt on your Majesty's most sacred Person.

When we contemplate the many Blessings enjoyed by these Kingdoms under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, we are struck with Horror and Detestation at an Attempt to deprive your Majesty's dutiful Subjects of a Sovereign so justly endeared to them from his many Virtues, and whose paternal Regard and unremitting Care has always been directed to promote the best Interests of his People.

We implore the Divine Providence long to preserve your Majesty's most valuable Life for a Blessing to your loyal Subjects, and declare our most zealous Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and our present happy Constitution.

The humble Address of the States of His Majesty's Island of Jersey.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the States of your Majesty's Island of Jersey, humbly crave Leave to present our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the late atrocious Attempt on your sacred Person.

Difficult would be the Task to describe to your Majesty the Sentiments of Detestation which pervaded this small but most loyal Part of your Majesty's Dominions at the Recital of so foul a Deed; a Crime of that black and heinous Complexion must at all Times chill with Horror every feeling Heart. But how is that Horror increased, when the traitorous Blow is aimed against a Prince, whose Reign has been distinguished by unnumbered Blessings, whose every Action has constantly had for its favourite Object the Welfare and Prosperity of his Subjects!

We lift up our Hearts in Gratitude to that Almighty Power, who in his tender Mercies to the British Empire, has preserved a Life on which depends the Happiness of Millions; and we offer up our Prayers for its Prolongation with an Earnestness and Fervency, proportioned to the Love and Veneration so justly due to the best of Sovereigns, to the Father of his People.

By Order of the States.

The humble Address of the President and Fellows of the Royal College of Physicians in London.

DEIGN, Gracious Sovereign, to receive the Congratulation of the President and Fellows of the Royal College of Physicians in London on the Occasion of your Majesty's late signal Escape from the desperate Attempt against your Majesty's sacred Person, and against the Welfare of the British Empire.

At the same Time that we feel the deepest Sense of Horror and Astonishment, that amidst all the Protection and Favor which we derive from the Mildness of your Majesty's Government, and your daily Solicitude for the Prosperity of every Order of your Subjects, there should exist in the Mind of any one Man in your Majesty's Dominions a Design, so nefarious in its Object, and so dreadful in its Consequences; at the Time we express the warmest Emotions of Gratitude to Almighty God, for the peculiar Intervention of his Divine Providence in averting the dreadful Calamity with which we have been threatened, we accompany the Expressions of our sincere Attachment to your Majesty's Person with our most earnest Prayers, that he may vouchsafe, in his Wisdom and Goodness, to continue to your Majesty an uninterrupted Enjoyment of Health, and of every Blessing which can be derived to your Government from the Happiness and Unanimity of a loyal and affectionate People.

The humble, loyal, and dutiful Address of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, in General Court assembled.

PERMIT, most gracious Sovereign, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, to offer their heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's late providential Preservation; they reflect with Abhorrence on the atrocious Attempt of the desperate Assassin, and with Dread on the Danger to which, in the Moment of it, the dearest Interests of your People were exposed; but they view with the sincerest Sympathy the lively Sensibility with which all Ranks of Persons in your Majesty's Dominions have expressed their affectionate Attachment to your Royal Person.

While under the Impression of these Sentiments they approach your Royal Presence, they desire to avail themselves of this happy Occasion to convey to your Majesty their dutiful and cordial Acknowledgments of the Benefits, which, among many Advantages of your Majesty's Reign this Company have in their particular Situation derived from the Promotion and unparalleled Prosperity of their Interests in India; they exult, Sir, in the grateful Reflection, that the Extensions of Territory have, under your Majesty's Auspices, been uniformly marked by an Extension of the Interests of Humanity itself; and that where British Valour has conquered, British Mercy has saved.

May that Providence which has so signally interposed in the Protection of your Majesty's valuable Life, continue to preserve it for the Happiness of your People, and may your Majesty's Example in the Exercise of those Virtues which have distinguished your Majesty's illustrious House in the Government of these Realms be transmitted to the latest Posterity.

The humble Address of the Grand Lodge of Freemasons of Scotland.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Grand Master and other Officers of the Grand Lodge of Scotland, with the Masters and Proxies of Lodges, and their Wardens in Grand Lodge assembled, approach your Majesty's Throne with Reflections of Horror in common with all your other affectionate Subjects, on the possible Event of a recent Attempt upon the sacred Person of your Majesty, which, but for the Proof of that Atrocity, we should, for the Honor of Humanity, have doubted the Reality.

The miserable Person who made this wicked Attack on a Life so justly precious to the whole Community, must, according to our Feelings, have either been visited by the Supreme Being with the greatest Affliction to which our Nature is liable, or be of a Description of Men (if such are entitled to the Appellation,) of which we are fully convinced there exists not another solitary Individual throughout the extended Dominions of your Majesty.

The Magnanimity displayed by your Majesty on so trying an Occasion will ever, on Recollection, fill the Eyes of your faithful Subjects with Tears of Gratitude, as establishing your entire Confidence in your affectionate People, and as having had an Effect pleasing, we are well aware, to your Majesty, of preventing many and serious Mischiefs among the great Concourse of your Subjects then assembled, whose Fears were alive for the Safety of their beloved Sovereign.

We take this Opportunity of assuring your Majesty of the Purity and Simplicity of our ancient Order, and of our sincere Attachment to the glorious Constitution of our Country, founded on a Basis which, from its Stability, cannot be shaken by Foes foreign or domestic: and conclude with our most anxious Wishes for the long Continuance and Prosperity of your Majesty's Reign, and for the permanent, unimpaired, and undisturbed Felicity of your Majesty, and of every Branch of your illustrious House.

The more we contemplate the numerous Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, and the repeated Proofs of your Majesty's unremitting Solitude for the best Interests of your Subjects, the greater Abhorrence and Indignation do we feel against such a diabolical Attack on a Sovereign who has been so long enthroned in the Affections of his People.

We renew to your most gracious Majesty our Assurances of Loyalty to your Majesty's Person and Government, of our Attachment to our most excellent Constitution, and of our Readiness to defend with our Lives your Majesty's most valuable Life, which God long preserve, both against the daring Attempts of foreign Enemies, and the secret Machinations of domestic Treason.

Copy of a Letter from the Earl of St. Vincent, K. B. Admiral of the White, &c. to Evan Nepean, Esq. dated on board His Majesty's Ship Ville de Paris off Ushant, the 12th Instant.

SIR,

I Enclose for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, Letters which I have this Instant received from Rear-Admiral Sir John Borlase Warren, giving an Account of the Boats of the Ships under his Orders having cut out from St. Croix Three Armed and Eight other Vessels laden with Provisions for the Combined Fleet in Brest.

The Unicorn being short of Water, I have directed Captain Wilkinson to see the Prizes into Plymouth, and to rejoin the Squadron the Instant he shall have completed his Water and Provisions.

I am, Sir, &c. &c. &c.

St. VINCENT:

Renown, off the Penmarks,
11th June 1800.

MY LORD,

I Beg Leave to inform you, that having observed a Convoy of Brigs and Chasse Marées at Anchor near a Fort within the Penmarks, destined for the Fleet at Brest, and being of Opinion that they might be cut out, I directed Two Armed Boats from this Ship, commanded by Lieutenants Burke and Jane, together with Lieutenant Killogrivoff of the Russian Navy, as well as from each Ship of the Detachment under my Orders, to rendezvous on board the Fisgard, and to follow Captain Martin's Directions for their further Proceedings, whose Letter to me is enclosed: and I am happy to say that the Service was performed with much Gallantry and Success on the Part of the Officers and Men of the Ships employed. Although some Loss on our Part has been sustained, I trust the Measure will meet your Lordship's Approbation.

I have the Honor to remain, &c. &c. &c.

JOHN BORLASE WARREN.

The Earl of St. Vincent, K. B.

Fisgard, off the Penmarks,
June 11, 1800.

SIR,

IN pursuance of the Directions you gave me yesterday Evening, Two Boats from each Ship named in the Margin *, assembled on board the Fisgard, in order to attack the Convoy laying at Saint Croix; and at Eleven o'Clock, being as near the Shore as the Darkness of the Night would permit, (and the Mode of Attack previously determined,) they proceeded under the Command of the following Officers: Lieutenant Burke, Renown;

* Renown, Fisgard, Defence, and Unicorn.

Lieutenant Dean and Lieutenant Gerrard, Figgard; Lieutenant Stamp, Defence; and Lieutenant Price, Uhiéorn; but the Wind being fresh from the South East prevented their reaching the above Anchorage till after Day-light, when, in Opposition to a heavy Battery, Three armed Vessels, and a constant Fire of Musketry from the Shore, they took the Three armed Vessels and Eight Others, laden with Supplies for the Fleet in Brest; the Rest, amounting to Twenty Sail, run upon the Rocks, where many of them will certainly be lost.

I have the Pleasure to assure you, that the Officers and Men employed on this Service shewed a Degree of Zeal and Intrepidity that can only be equalled by the cool, steady Conduct which I had the Satisfaction to observe in them when passing through a very intricate Navigation under a constant Discharge of Cannon from the Shore.

Lieutenants Burke and Dean speak highly in favour of Mr. Jane, Acting Lieutenant of the Renown, Mr. Fleming, Mate of the Figgard, and Lieutenant Killogriwoff of the Russian Service (a Volunteer); and I am glad they have had this Opportunity of recommending themselves to your Notice.

The Enemy have lost several Officers and Men; and I am sorry to annex the Names of several Wounded in our Boats.

I have enclosed a List of Vessels captured.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

F. B. MARTIN.

Rear-Admiral Sir J. B. Warren, Bart. K. B.
