

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Portreeve and Inhabitants of the Borough of Mitchell in the County of Cornwall, beg Leave to approach your most excellent Majesty to express our heartfelt Satisfaction at the Preservation of your sacred Person from the Blow of the Assassin.

When we reflect on the calamitous Situation to which this Country would have been reduced if it had been deprived of your paternal Care, we are penetrated with Horror.

That the Divine Providence may extend to your Majesty a long Life, amidst a loyal and happy People, is our most ardent Wish.

Given under our Common Seal this Seventh Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred.

[Presented by John Simpson, Esq; Member of Parliament for Saint Michael's, and accompanied by Sir Christopher Hawkins.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of the Borough of Clifton Dartmouth Hardness, beg Leave humbly to congratulate your Majesty on your late providential Escape, unhurt, from the daring Attempt made against your Royal Person.

At the same Time we humbly express our utmost Abhorrence and Detestation of that Offence, your Majesty will permit us to entertain a sincere Hope that there doth not exist within the Kingdom of Great Britain a Person, endowed with common Understanding, of so depraved a Heart as to entertain a Wish of injuring your Majesty's sacred Person.

May the Hearts of all your Majesty's Subjects be filled with humble Thankfulness to that Divine Being who hath hitherto so mercifully preserved your Majesty's Life, and that it may please him long to continue your Majesty to reign over a free and loyal People, are our most earnest Prayers.

Signed by the Order and on the Behalf of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses, by

Walter Prideaux, Deputy Town Clerk.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Capital Burgeses, and Burgeses of the Borough of Bishop's Castle.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Capital Burgeses, and Burgeses of the Borough of Bishop's Castle, humbly beg Leave to present to your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's Escape from the late daring and wicked Attempt against your Royal Person.

With unfeigned Gratitude we return our Thanks to the Supreme Disposer of human Events for his providential Protection of your Majesty's Person and Life.

That your Majesty may long reign over a free, happy, and united People, is our most fervent Prayer.

John Oakeley, Bailiff.

[Presented by Henry Strachey, Esq; one of the Representatives of the Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Magistrates, Town Council, and Inhabitants of the Royal Borough of Wigtown.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates, Town Council, and Inhabitants of the Royal Burgh of Wigtown assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with our heartfelt Congratulations on Occasion of your Majesty's Safety from the Hand of a desperate and vile Assassin, and with Assurance of our sincere Expressions of Gratitude to the All-wise Disposer of Events for his Interposition in the Protection of your Majesty's sacred Person.

A Life so justly dear to the Empire, and so important to the World, interests every Individual: that it may long be preserved from every Danger is our ardent Prayer; for we glory in being the faithful Subjects of a Sovereign who is the Father, the Friend, and the Benefactor of his People.

Subscribed in Presence and by Appointment of the Meeting, at Wigtown, the Sixteenth Day of June One thousand eight hundred, by

James Hamay, Baillie.

[Presented by the Earl of Galloway.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Council of the Royal and ancient Burgh of Dingwall.

WE, the Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Dingwall, for ourselves, and as representing the Community of said Burgh, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne to express the Horror and Detestation we feel at the late atrocious Attempt against your Majesty's sacred Person, and our heartfelt Congratulations to your Majesty for your Preservation from so great a Danger.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our Attachment to your Royal Person and Family, and we acknowledge with all Humility and Gratitude the Interposition of Providence, and earnestly pray to God to continue to us the great Blessings we have enjoyed under your Majesty's happy Government, and to preserve a Life so justly dear to us and the whole Kingdom.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and by our Appointment, this Eighteenth Day of June One thousand eight hundred, by

Charles M'Kenzie, Provost.

[Presented by William Dundas, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of Kirkwall.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's remote but loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of Kirkwall, beg Leave to approach the Throne and to congratulate your Majesty on your happy Escape from the late Attack on your Person by a desperate Assassin.

Warmly and firmly attached to your Majesty by every Tie which can endear a virtuous and patriot
