

of all your People, have been struck with Horror and Indignation at the atrocious Attempt against your Majesty's sacred Person, we bless with cordial Thanksgiving the providential Hand of Almighty God which averted the Blow and preserved the Object of our ever grateful Loyalty and Attachment.

Endeared as your Majesty is to us by your Character, by your public and private Virtues, by the Events of the Times, and by the dark and flagitious Attempts of Malignity and Treason, we beg Leave to lay before your Majesty the sincere and genuine Sentiments of our Loyalty and Veneration, together with the Assurance of our humble Gratitude to Almighty God for your Majesty's most providential Deliverance, and our fervent Prayers that His Divine Protection will continue to defend and guard your Majesty's Virtues so conspicuous and beneficent, and the Life of a Monarch so beloved and revered.

Signed by Order of the Meeting,
W. Lloyd, Sheriff.

Roscommon, 14th June 1800.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Magistrates, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Kildare.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg that your Majesty will be pleased to receive our warmest Assurance of Love and Attachment to your sacred Person.

The late Attempt against your precious Life hath filled our Minds with Horror and Indignation.

We at the same Time declare our Gratitude to the Supreme Being by whose Interposition that most atrocious and wicked Design was frustrated, and are confident that the same Power will continue to preserve the Life of a Monarch so justly dear to his People.
