Bishop of Chester and others against Mann and others.
Whoever can produce the Certificate of Burial, or give Intelligence of the Death of Richard Hindes, who was Cousin of the Reverend Thomas Hindes, late of Hampton-Gay, in the County of Oxford, Clerk, who died in 1768; and which Richard Hindes, it is believed, in the Years 1765, 1766, or 1767, went on board a West Indiaman for Jamaica, but has never been heard of since, shall be liberally rewarded, on Application to Mr. Charles Ventris Field, Solicitor for the Plaintiffs, Friday-Street, Cheap-side, London.

To be peremptorily sold by Auction, by Order of and before the acting Commissioners, in a Commission of Bankrupt against Francis Heywood and George Palfreyman, at the House of Alexander Patterson, the Sign of the Bridgewater-Arms, in Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, on Thursday the 17th Day of July next, at Six o'Clock in the Evening, pursuant to such Conditions of Sale as shall be then and there produced, All those capital Premises called Cragg Works, situated at Wild Boar Clough in the County of Chester, about Five Miles from Macclesfield and Buxton, Ten from Leek and Congleton, and Twenty-five from Manchester.

The Premises consist of a very good New built Stone Messuage or Dwelling-House, containing a Dining Room 30 Feet by 21; a Drawing Room 15 Feet by 16; a Breakfast Parlour, a Study, a large Kitchen and Back Kitchen; Six good Bed Chambers and Servants' Rooms, with Stabling for Twelve Horses; and all other suitable Offices and Out-Buildings.

Also all that large Building, lately used as a Cotton Mill and Printing Shop, 65 Yards long by 12 wide, Four Stories high, with a Water Wheel in the Centre of the Building 33 Feet Diameter by 8 Feet wide, with turning Shafts the whole Length of the Building; also a Dye-House 25 Yards by 8, a Bowk-House for Two Keers, a Dry-House, an Overlooker's-House, Twelve good Cottages for work-People, and a House suitable for the Accommodation of One Hundred Apprentices.

Also about Forty-three Cheshire Acres of Land. The Premises are extremely convenient for the Purpose of carrying on the Spinning, Printing, Bleaching, and Dying Businesses to a large Extent, being supplied with a very powerful and constant Stream of Water, with a Fall of upwards of 100 Feet, besides a great Number of fine Springs of soft Water.

The above Messuage or Dwelling-House and Buildings are of Free-stone, (with which the Estate abounds) have been erected within the last Six Years, and command a delightful View of the adjacent Country of many Miles round.

The Premises are holden by Lease under the Earl of Derby for the Lives of the said Francis Haywood, aged about 35;

George Palfreyman, aged about 29; and one John Needham, aged about 12, subject to a small Yearly Rent of 2 l. 11 s.

There is a Coal Mine very near the Premises. Mr. George Palfreyman, on the Premises, will shew the same; and further Particulars may be had by applying to Mr. Richard Jackson, of Manchester, Drysalter, one of the Assignees; Messrs. William Douglas and Co. Merchants, in Manchester; or to Messrs. Chesfhyre and Walker, or Mr. Seddon, Attornies, in Manchester.
