

"Naval Stores, and more effectually to prevent the Exportation of Salt-Petre, Arms, and Ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council." But it is, nevertheless, His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or any other Ships or Vessels or Boats, in the Service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any Ship or Vessel from taking or having on board such Quantities of Naval Stores as may be necessary for the Use of such Ship or Vessel during the Course of her intended Voyage, or by Licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the Time being; nor to the Exportation of the said several Articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards or Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies: Provided that, upon the Exportation of any of the said Articles, for the Purposes of Trade, to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards or Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the Exporters of such Articles do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they shall be entered Outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they are so entered Outwards, and for the Purposes specified, and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up, until Proof be made, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles have been duly landed at the Places for which they were entered Outwards. And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Farwaker.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 2d of July 1800,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty having been pleased to appoint Thomas Johnes, Esq; to be Lieutenant of the County of Cardigan, he; this Day, took the Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

St. James's, July 2, 1800.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted by His Excellency the Marquis Cornwallis, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to His Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Community, and Citizens of the City of Londonderry, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Community, and Citizens of the City of Londonderry, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, in Conjunction with our loyal Fellow-Subjects, with our most joyful Congratulations on your happy Escape from the late desperate Attack of a frantic Assassin.

We contemplate with Horror the fatal Consequences which might eventually have succeeded so iniquitous an Attempt, and pour forth our most grateful Acknowledgments to the Father of Mercies for his gracious Protection of your sacred Person.

Enjoying the happy Effects of your mild Administration, and looking forward to the Completion of the Prosperity and Happiness of our Country under your auspicious Reign, our Hearts are impressed with the warmest Sentiments of Loyalty, Gratitude, and Affection.

Signed by Order,

June 4, 1800. Sam. Montgomery, Chamberlain.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Corke, legally convened at the King's Old Castle on the Twelfth Day of June One thousand eight hundred.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Corke, legally convened, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the warmest Effusions of Loyalty and heartfelt Congratulations on your recent Escape from the horrid Attempt of a base Assassin.

Attached to your Majesty by every Sentiment of Affection which a loyal and dutiful County can feel for a Sovereign, endeared to his People by his just and mild Government which we have so long and happily experienced, we beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the merciful Interposition of Divine Providence, so strongly manifested in Behalf of your Majesty's sacred Person; and we sincerely pray that the same Divine Interposition will long preserve a Life dear to all the loyal Subjects of your Majesty's Dominions, and enable your Majesty to continue those Blessings we have fully enjoyed under your Majesty's auspicious Reign.

Henry Pusley, High Sheriff of the County of Corke.
