From Saturday July 12, to Tuesday July 15, 1800.

St. James's, July 11, 1800.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted by His Excellency the Marquis Cornwallis, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to His Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Wicklow.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Wicklow, beg Leave to present to your Majesty our most heartfelt and sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's late providential Escape from the traitorous Attack made on your sacred Person by the Hand of a desperate Assassin.

Animated with the most lively Gratitude for the Blessings we have enjoyed under your Majesty's paternal Government, we offer up our most fervent Prayers for the Preservation and long Continuance of your Majesty's Life, so necessary and important to the Happiness and the Welfare of the British Empire, and of the whole civilized World.

Signed, by Order,
Thomas Archer, High Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Aldermen, Burgesses, Freemen, and Freeholders of the County of Carrickfergus, assembled in the Town-Hall this 25th Day of June 1800, beg Leave to express our most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Deliverance from the late atrocious Attempt of a barbarous Assassin against the sacred Life of your Majesty.

Sensible of the manifold Blessings which the Empire has enjoyed in the auspicious Reign of your Majesty, and of the bright and attractive example of every moral and religious Virtue, so eminently displayed in the uniform Tenor of your Majesty's Life and Conduct, we shudder at the Consideration of the Hazard to which that invaluable Life was exposed, and of the Magnitude of the Loss which the Empire at large would have sustained, had not Providence mercifully interposed its protecting Care.

Deign, most gracious and beloved Sovereign, to accept this unfeigned Assurance of the most inviolable Attachment of your ancient and loyal Corporation of Carrickfergus to your Majesty's Person and Family.

May the Almighty Protector of religious Kings and States guard your Majesty and your Realms against the nefarious Attempts of foreign Enemies and domestic Traitors, and vouchsafe to these Kingdoms the inestimable Blessing of continuing long the British Sceptre in your Majesty's illustrious and paternal Hand.

Signed by the Sheriffs, on the Part and by the unanimous Desire of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, Freemen, and Freeholders, assembled in the Town-Hall pursuant to public Notice.

Thos. Kirk, B. Martin, Sheriffs.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Carlow.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WHEN the desperate Malevolence of mad Fanaticism dares attempt the Subversion of Order and our happy Constitution, when the august Person of a beloved Sovereign is not sacred from its parricidal Attacks, it becomes all the loyal and the just to oppose its baneful Efforts; accept then, gracious Prince, the congratulatory Effusions which your Subjects of the County of Carlow now offer your Majesty. Feeling, as we do, for your Majesty's Safety, Gratitude to the Supreme Being for his kind Interference in your Majesty's Favour fills all our Hearts; with Horror do we contemplate that Wickedness which portended Danger to your Majesty; and with awful Veneration do we acknowledge the Hand of Providence interposing to frustrate it. Attached, as we are, to your illustrious Family, judge of our Fears by our Love for your Royal Person, in the glorious Cause of fighting against your Majesty's public Enemies, no Danger could appal us, no Dread enervate us; it is only when we consider your Majesty's Safety exposed to the insidious Attempts of late Wickedness we tremble and are afraid; trusting, however, to the Goodness of the Divine Being, we look forward with Hope that we shall long enjoy the Blessings of your Majesty's Presence and excellent Government; to that kind Being we continually recommend your Majesty, and in thanking him for your Majesty's Preservation, we trust we make our Congratulations most acceptable to your Majesty; they flow from our Hearts with that Fervor which Gratitude for such manifest Blessings inspires.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Kerry.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Kerry, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty the Assurances of our inviolable Attachment to your Person and Government, and to express our Indignation at the late atrocious Attempt against the Life of a Sovereign, no less distinguished for a sacred Regard to the Duties of his exalted Station than for the Exercise of the private Virtues wherein he has afforded so bright an Example to his Subjects.

We humbly hope that these Effusions of Loyalty will be received with Favour by your Majesty as coming from a County upon which the Machinations of Traitors have been practised in vain, and which, amidst the Rebellion and Insurrections which broke out in other Parts, maintained its Allegiance and Love of the Constitution inviolate through all Orders and Descriptions of its Inhabitants.

Deeply sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's benign Government, and of the many Proofs which we have experienced of your paternal Regard for your Subjects of Ireland, we pray that the Almighty will continue to preserve your invaluable Life, granting you a long and prosperous Reign over a loyal and a grateful People.

*Glandore, Governor and Cust. Rot.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders of the King's County assembled at Birr, beg Leave to approach your Throne with every Demonstration of Joy and Gratitude to Providence for your Majesty's late Escape from the Attempt of the worst of Assassins. We want Words to express our Detestation of that Wretch who could be so lost to every Sense of Religion and Virtue as to attempt the sacred Life of a King who deservedly reigns in the Hearts of his Subjects, and whose public and private Virtues render him the Admiration of all good and enlightened Minds. Inviolably attached to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government, we pledge ourselves to support your Majesty against all your Enemies foreign or domestic, public or private, over all whom we trust (with God's Assistance) your Majesty will triumph, and long reign the Father of a grateful and happy Nation. We pray your Majesty to be pleased to accept those the heartfelt Congratulations and unalterable Sentiments of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Freeholders of the King's County.

Signed by Order,
James Ruddock Gray, High Sheriff of King's County.

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Armagh.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Armagh, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty with Expressions of the most respectful Attachment to your Royal Person.

Sensible of the Blessings we have long enjoyed under the Influence of your Majesty's Care, we lament the late atrocious Attempt to deprive us of them in the Life of our beloved Monarch.

Permit us, Royal Sire, to add our most fervent Prayers that your Reign may continue happy and prosperous; and that Providence may long preserve you the Sovereign and the Father of your People.

Gosford, Governor.

Thos. Verner, High Sheriff.

Armagh, 24th June 1800.

St. James's, July 11, 1800.

THE following Address has been presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the General Convention of the Royal Burghs of Scotland, assembled in their Annual Meeting, according to the Ancient Statutes of this Realm, embrace with Eagerness the earliest Opportunity which this our Annual Meeting has afforded us of approaching your Throne with our unfeigned Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the Danger to which the Attempt of Assassination, by a Maniac, lately exposed your Royal Person.

We rejoice in knowing, and in respectfully conveying to your Majesty the Assurance that the great Body of those Communities which we have the Honour to represent, as they concur with us in Sentiments of strong Attachment to your Person, and in steady Loyalty to your Government, concur with us also in Astonishment and Horror at the atrocious Attempt, and in heartfelt Joy at your Majesty's Preservation.

While we offer our thankful Acknowledgments to the Almighty for the past Protection He hath vouchsafed to your Majesty, we cordially unite with the general Voice of your Subjects in praying that He may still long preserve your sacred Life, which is endeared to us by many illustrious, personal, and princely Virtues, and which, in the present Situation of public Affairs, appears so important to the Interests of your Empire, of Europe, and of the World.

Signed in our Presence, and by our Appointment, at Edinburgh the Eighth Day of July, in the Year One thousand eight hundred.

James Stirling, Prefes.
