

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Down.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Down, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty the Assurances of our inviolable Attachment to your Person and Government, and to express our Indignation at the late atrocious Attempt against the Life of a Sovereign, no less distinguished for a sacred Regard for the Duties of his exalted Station than for the Exercise of the private Virtues wherein he has afforded so bright an Example to his Subjects.

Deeply sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's benign Government, and of the many Proofs which we have experienced of your paternal Regard for your Subjects of Ireland, we pray that the Almighty will continue to preserve your invaluable Life, granting you a long and prosperous Reign over an happy and grateful People.

Signed by Order,

Savage Hall, High Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Longford, beg Leave to offer our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's late providential Escape from the Attack of an impious Assassin.

With unfeigned Gratitude we acknowledge the Goodness of that Providence whose Hand was extended to preserve thy sacred Person, trusting that the Merits of your Majesty's Life, spent in the Practice of Religion and Virtue, (so eminently conspicuous to all the World,) may, through the Aid of the Almighty, secure your Majesty from any future Attack.

Grateful for your Majesty's paternal Care, and Solicitude for the Welfare and Prosperity of your Subjects, we humbly implore that your Majesty's exemplary Virtues may be crowned with long and happy Years, amidst the Praise and Acclamations of a fond and loyal People. W. Thompson, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Antrim, in your Kingdom of Ireland, duly convened by the High Sheriff at the County Court, on Tuesday the 1st Day of July 1800, beg Leave to offer our sincere Congratulations, and to express our unfeigned Joy for the late providential Deliverance of your Majesty from the atrocious Attempt of a desperate Assassin against your sacred Person.

The calm Magnanimity displayed by your Majesty in the Moment of sudden Danger and Alarm must impress the Minds of your faithful Subjects with Admiration; and we reflect with just Pride, on that generous and noble Courage and Intrepidity possessed by your Majesty which has ever distinguished your illustrious Family, and, by the Exertion of which, our Liberties and glorious Constitution have been preserved inviolate,

We earnestly pray that the Divine Providence may continue to protect a Life so important; a Life marked by every public and private Virtue, by the constant Discharge of every religious and moral Obligation; a Life which should ever be held most dear to all who live under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government.

Signed in the Name, on the Behalf, and at the unanimous Request of the Meeting.

G. A. M^cCleverty, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Sovereign, Burgesses, and Free Commons, in Behalf of themselves and the loyal Inhabitants of the Antient Borough of Baltinglass, in the County of Wicklow.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sovereign, Burgesses, and Free Commons of the Antient Borough of Baltinglass, in your Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland, though far removed from your Majesty's sacred Person, are not the less attracted by the many Virtues which have distinguished your Reign, and have drawn to your Majesty the Hearts of even the most remote of your Subjects; we beg Leave to offer up our most unfeigned Congratulations to your Majesty on your happy Escape from the wicked Attempt of an Assassin, calculated to deprive us of the signal Blessings it has pleased the Almighty to bestow on us through the Medium of so beloved a Sovereign, Blessings which it is our constant Prayer to the same Almighty King of Kings long to continue to us; and in Support of which, the Constitution and Laws, we took up Arms when lately compelled (by the infuriate Rage of Rebellion, which prevailed with peculiar Violence in our Vicinity) to suspend our corporate Functions, and are determined to defend with our Lives and Fortunes for your Majesty, for your illustrious House, and for the Happiness of ourselves and our Posterity.

In Testimony whereof we have caused our Recorder and Town-Clerk to affix our Corporation Seal hereunto, the Thirtieth Day of June, in the Fortieth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

Hillsborough, Sovereign.

Geo. Powell, Recorder.

Tho. Allen, Town-Clerk.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Lisburn, in your Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland, assembled in the Town-House this Third Day of July One thousand eight hundred, beg Leave to express our most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's happy and providential Deliverance from the late daring Attempt of Assassination.

We are deeply impressed with a due Sense of the important Blessings resulting to the Empire at large from your Majesty's mild and truly paternal Government, and of the Magnitude of national Misfortune which must have attended the Success of so atrocious a Design against your Majesty's sacred Person.
