

- A French Bark, from Cette bound to Marseilles, laden with Wheat: taken by the Petterell, Captain Aulten, March 21, 1800.
- A French Bombarde, from Cette bound to Marseilles, laden with Wheat: taken by Ditto, March 21, 1800.
- The American Brig Nymph, from Penzance bound to Naples, laden with Pilchards: taken by the Netley Schooner, Lieutenant Bond, March 26, 1800.
- The French Privateer Victoire, of Two Guns and Twenty-eight Men: taken by the Mutine, Captain Hofte, March 29, 1800.
- The Tartan St. Leonardo, from Bastia bound to Genoa, laden with Corn and Biscuit: taken by the Minotaur, Captain Louis, March 29, 1800.
- A Genoese Vessel, from Capraia bound to Genoa, laden with Corn and Sundries: taken by the Entreprenante, Lieutenant Swiney, March 29, 1800.
- The Danish Ship Young Johannes, from Marseilles bound to Altona, laden with Wine, &c.: taken by Caroline, Captain Bowen, April 8, 1800.
- A Genoese Settee, from Languedoc bound to Nolle, laden with Wine: taken by the Salamine, Captain Briggs, April 9, 1800.
- The French Tartan La Madona de Montenero, laden with Salt Fish, Sugar, &c.: taken by Ditto, April 11, 1800.
- The Imperial Pinco Nanicella Nostra Signora della Guardia, from Port Tore bound to Leghorn: recaptured by the Santa Teresa, Captain Campbell, April 13, 1800.
- The Ragusan Ship Ardite, from Besserte bound to Leghorn, laden with Wheat and Calavances: recaptured by Ditto, April 13, 1800.
- The Corsican Latteen Sloop Conception, from Marseilles bound to Corfica, laden with Leather, Cloth, and Sundries: taken by the Constance, Captain Hay, April 13, 1800.
- The French Ship St. Jean Baptiste, from Marseilles bound to Finale, laden with Wheat: taken by the Phoenix, Captain Halsted, April 23, 1800.
- The Genoese Brig La Vertue, from Marseilles, laden with Corn: taken by the Pearl, Captain Ballard, April 28, 1800.
- The Genoese Settee Cofianza, from Marseilles, laden with Corn and Wine: taken by Ditto, April 28, 1800.
- The French Polacre Ship La Bellone, from Valette bound to Marseilles, laden with Cotton: taken by the Succes, Captain Peard, April 28, 1800.
- A Cartel Vessel from Alexandria, laden with Nine Hundred Shells: detained by Sir Thomas Troubridge, at Malta, April 28, 1800.
- The Genoese Settee L'Annunciation, from Marseilles, laden with Oil: taken by the Pearl, Captain Ballard, May 2, 1800.
- A Genoese Settee, from Marseilles, laden with Corn: taken by Ditto, May 3, 1800.
- La Stella de Nort: taken by the Phaeton, Captain Morris, and Mutine, Captain Hofte, May 3, 1800.
- Santa Maria: taken by Ditto, May 3, 1800.
- Nostra Senora del Carmine: taken by the Phaeton, Captain Morris, and the Mutine, Captain Hofte, May 3, 1800.
- Fiat Volantes Deos: taken by Ditto, May 3, 1800.
- Nostra Signora del Assunta: taken by Ditto, May 3, 1800.
- Nostra Signora de Sonfove: taken by Ditto, May 3, 1800.
- San Nicolas: taken by Ditto, May 3, 1800.
- San Joseph: taken by Ditto, May 3, 1800.
- The Genoese Polacre Ship St. Giovanni, from St. Remo, empty: taken by Ditto, May 8, 1800.
- Genoese Polacre Brig L'Achille, from Marseilles bound to Genoa, laden with Corn and Wine: taken by Ditto, May 8, 1800.
- Genoese Polacre Barque St. Antonio, from Cette to Genoa, laden with Wine: taken by Ditto, May 8, 1800.
- Genoese Polacre Brig La Santa, from Ardis bound to Port Maurice, laden with Wine: taken by Ditto, May 8, 1800.
- Genoese Polacre Ship La Conception, bound to Port Maurice, empty: taken by Ditto, May 8, 1800.
- Genoese Polacre Ship Madona del Carmine, from Cette bound to Genoa, laden with Wine: taken by Ditto, May 8, 1800.
- Genoese Settee Signora del Carmine, from Marseilles bound to Genoa, laden with Corn: taken by Ditto, May 8, 1800.
- Genoese Settee St. Guiseppe, from Marseilles bound to Port Maurice, laden with Corn: taken by Ditto, May 8, 1800.
- Genoese Settee Immaculate Conception, from Cette bound to Genoa, laden with Wine: taken by Ditto, May 8, 1800.
- Genoese Settee Amina Purgatorio, from Cette bound to Genoa, laden with Wine: taken by Ditto, May 8, 1800.
- Genoese Settee Virgine Rosaria, from Cette bound to Genoa, laden with Wine: taken by Ditto, May 8, 1800.
- French Felucca Privateer Infant Cherie de la Victoire of One Gun, Two Swivels, and small Arms, and Twenty-two Men: taken by the Port Mahon, Captain Buchanan, May 8, 1800.
- A Danish Dogger with Army Stores, &c.: taken by the Phaeton, Captain Morris, May 11, 1800.
- A French Tartan, from Corfica, laden with Oil: taken by Ditto, May 11, 1800.
- The French Settee St. Joseph, from Sardinia bound to Marseilles, in Ballast: taken by the Mermaid, Captain Oliver, May 11, 1800.
- The French Privateer L'Intrepid, of Six Guns and Forty-two Men: taken by the Speedy, Captain Right Honorable Lord Viscount Cochrane, May 11, 1800.
- The Danish Brig Ulriche Koiche, laden with Corn: recaptured by Ditto, May 12, 1800.
- The Ragusan Brig Carle Felice, laden with Corn: recaptured by Ditto, May 15, 1800.
- The French Cutter Privateer La Vengeance, of Fifteen Guns and One Hundred and Thirty-two Men: taken by the Minerve, Captain Cockburn, and Netley Schooner, Lieutenant Bond, May 15, 1800.