The London Gazette.

Publilled by Authority.

From Chursday July 8. to Monday July 12. 1680.

Madrid, June 27.

He King, as we are told, has refolved not to Quit the Title of Duke of Burgundy, and yesterday two Expresses were sent from hence, the one with Letters to the Duke de Villa Hermofa, Governor of the Spanish Netherlands, and the other to the Kings Minister in England. The Marquis de Grana, Ambaffador from the Emperor, has not yet made his publick Entry, but will now very fuddainly. The Plague begins to break out in Andaluzia, and all perfons that come from thence, are obliged to make a Quarantine. The last week the Court was entertained with a Bull Feaft, in which, near 20 perfons were wounded, and one killed. On Sunday next the Inquifition will pronounce Sentence against above 200 Jews and others, now in prifon, of which it's expected the greatest part will be condemned to be burnt. It is certain that the Prince of Parma is declared Governor of the Spanifb Netherlands, and that the Count de Melgar is continued in the Government of Milan.

Milas, first 26. These parts are at prefent in great peace and quietness, and wholly freed of the appr chenfions they were fome time fince in, of the defigus of the French: however, our G vernor continues, what in him lies, to p ovide against the worft, by putting all places that are of any importance, into a poflure of Defence. Befides the Spanih Soldiers that lately arrived at Final, 500 more are daily expected there.

Venice, June 29. The laft week we had news from Conflantinople, wh ch gave an account, that the Grand Signior intended to pafs this Winter at Belgrade, and to goe and Command his Armies in perfon the next Spring; that according to all appearance, this year would pafs without any great action on the part of the Turks, who would act only Defenfively; That on the other fide, the Mofcovites did Arm very vigoroufly; and that they had obtained a great Victory over the Tartars. On Thurfday laft Signior Morofini, who is lately returned from his Embaffy at Conflantinople, made his publick Entry, and took polfedion of the Dignity of Procurator of $1. Mark, which has been conferred up og him.

Legorn, July 2. The Six Algerines (we formerly gave you an account of) continue on this Coaft; they have lately taken above 100 perfons belonging to Corfice

Prague June 29. The Plague Increases daily in this City, to the interruption of all Commerce; the Shops are shut up, and all Processions and publique Meetings are forbid; Mass is faid only once a day, at Ten a clock, and if the Plague increases, the Churches will be quite shut up. The Emperor is with a very small Court at Pardubits, from whence he will remove to Snitz in the Upper Auftria, and from thence return to Vienna, where the necessary preparations are making for the Reception of the Court.

Francfort, $fuly_7$. The States of the Empire Affembled at R_sisbonne, are now debating what Refolutions to take, upon the feveral Complaints that have been made to them by the Princes of the Empire, concerning the proceedings of the French, which its not to be doubted, would be more vigorous, were things in a better pofture, than they are now like to be. The Plagu begins to be violent at Prague, and 7 or 800 dye of it in a week. There has been a great mutiny in the Regiment of Danemoldt in Lungary, and feveral of the molt guilty, have been executed.

Strasburg, July 8. Since the taking the Callle of Falkenburg (the Garrifon whereo confifting in 40 Men, is come to Manheim) the French have fent their Lannon for Battery, and their Mortar-pieces back to Brifack; their Infantry is likwife matched that way, but the Cavalry continues at Landaw. and will do fo till the middle of the next month. The French Troops that lye on the Jaar, arc, as we are told, to march from thence towards the Meufe; and the Baron de Monelar is going to the Franche Comte, to take a Review of the Lavatry there, Hamburg, July 12. The King of Denmark is expected at Gluck flads on the 16 Inflant in his return to Copenhagen ; before his d-parture from Oldenburg, where he is at present : the Duke of Zell will, as is faid, give his Majefty a visit, to discourse with him concerning the Moneys he demands from the Countrey of Embden, for Winter Quarters, and to defire. his Majefty to depart from that pretention, for that he, the Duke of Zell, and the other Princes of Lunenburg are obliged to protect the faid Countrey of Embden. On Friday laft the Margrave of Baden arrived in this City from the Elector of Brandenburgs Court; he is here Incognito, and is going to Zell to confer with the Princes of Lunenburg, concerning the present flate of the Empire. The Letters from Drefden and Leipzick will not own that the Plague is there.

Cologne, July 2. The Governor of the Caffle of Falkenburg is very much blamed, for having no better defended a place, which by its Scituation was made fo flrong, and he will hardly be able to free himfelf from a fulpition, that he was influenced upon by the promifes of the Baron de Monelar. The French Troops have again quitted the Palatinate, and the Elector Palatine has cauf a Oggersheim to be demolifhed, left the French might be invited to poft fome of their Troops there.

Amfterdam, Fuly 16. The Lading of the Eaf India Ships (of whole arrival we told you in our laft,) is valued at 300 000 pound fterling, befides three more that are expected. The Heer Starenberg, Ambaffador from this State to France, will begin his jourpey in few days.

Hague, July 12. Last Wednesday the States of Liolland met for the first time, fince their Receis, but have not proceeded to any business of confequence as yet, becaufe of the abfence of the Prince of Orange, who will be in Town this Evening. We are told that the Dutch Ambassadors in France have in their last Letters to the States, given them an account, That the French King had affured them, that he would maintain the Peace and the Parriere in Flanders, that for what concerned the Title of Burgundy, he defired only the King of Spain would omit it, when he Treated with him; and as for the Order of the Golden Fleece, he would make a Declaration, that he had not any pretenfion to it. Eut at the fame time, the States would be glad his most Christian Majefty would fet fome bounds to his pretenfions. concerning Dependencies, in Flanders, as well as in Germany. Monficur d'Avaux, the French Ambaffader here, is going to meet the king his Maffer in his new Conquells; and we are informed, that the States-General intend to fend to Compliment the King when he is there. This evening Mr. Sidney arrived here from England.

Hague, July 16. The States of Holland met again this day, after a floort Adjournment they made on Saturday laft; their chief bufine's at prefent is to fettle their Revenues. The Prince and Prince's of Orange came to Honflaerdyke on Saturday laft; where their Highnefles have received the Compliments of all the Forreign Miniflers; who have been fikewife to make their vifits to Mr. Sidney, fince his return from England; from whence the Earl of Middleton arrived three days fince, and this morning his Lordlhip departed again on his journey to the Emp.rors Court.

Antwerp, July 8. The Duke de Villa Hermofa continues fill here, but, no advantage is made is the matter of the Subfidies, the Magisfrates fill pleading their difability to comply with what his Excellency demands of them, by reason of the great decay of Trade, and other accidents, which has impoverished this City; and it's believed, then we we have of the Prince of Parma's being Declared his Excellencies Succeffor will make them the more backward, that so they maybe the better able to gratific their new Governor in that kind.

Bruges, July 13. The 11th Infant Monfieur Blundel, Intendant of this Province, Monfigur Timont, Commissioner of the Finances, and the Governor of Newport, went fi om hence with some Ingeniers to Dixmuyde, to give the necessary Orders for the demolifhing the Fort fications of that Town; and from thence they will go to Newendam, a Fort of great Importance, within Cannon fhot of Newport. ro put it into a better condition of Defence, than it is at prefent in, by repairing the old Works, and adding fome new ones. The Conferences at Courtray between the Commissioners of both Crowns, for adjusting the limits, are put off till the 15th of August. The Prince of Parma is named by the King of Spain to fucceed the Duke de Villa Hermola, in the Government of these Provinces,

Bruffels, July 12. On Wedneiday last arrived the Spanih Letters, of the 27th past, and brought us an Account; that Prince Alexander of Parma, was declared Governor of these Provinces, and that he would begin his journey hither, within three weeks or a month; That the Prince of Montalto, Generakof the Horse in these Provinces, was preparing to return hither, and that the Prince of Vaudemont is made General of the Horfe in Milan. The Duke de Villa Hermofa has not yet been able to effect what he chiefly went to Antwerp for ; and its faid, his Excellency will return hither in a day or two. From Zell they write, that the Princes of Lunenburg have refolved to joyn their Forces together, for the fecurity of the Empire.

Bruffels, July 16. On Saturday laft his Excellency returned hither from Antwerp, and on Friday next he intends to go for Flanders; he has appointed Monfieur del Val to attend the French King in his Progrefs, in quality of his Envoye. Our Letters fiom Strasburg fay, they are there in greater apprehenfions of the French than ever.

Deal, July 8. This morning about 30 Sail of Merchant Ships, bund for leveral parts, failed out of the Downs.

The officers of the Receipt of Hin Majejlies Exchequer, have Money in Bank to pay to the Eleventh Order inclusive, upon the Second Alt for Disbanding the Army.

Advertisements.

The Committee Appointed and Authorized for Letting the City Lands, are minded to dilpole of and demile by Leafe for term of years, the ground, called Litt.c Monfrids. without Morgate. for an Hay-market or otherwife; Thefe are to give Notice, that the iaid Committee will meet in the Council Chamber in the Guild Halt, London, on Wednefday the tath of July next, part Three of the clock in the afternoon, and receive Propolals in Writing of any Perfon or Perfons, who fhall defire to take the faid Ground. Whereas Mofris Pin of Londor, Book-feller, having undertaken the publifting an English Autas, the infe

Volume of which being initial and a ready preferred Moles Philip an English Atlas, the tirfle Volume of which being initialed, and already preferred, to the great Liking and Approbation of His Majelty, as alfo, of all the Nobility and Centry that have leen it, is now ready to be delivered. It is defired, that all those Noblemen and Luna y that have Subferibed, would be pleafed to bring in the Receipts for their first payment, and upon delivery of the Firth Volume, to pay 40 s. towards the Second Roccipt, from the faid M. fest int, at his Houfe, at the Angel in St. Fauls Courdbard, or Dr. Themas Tate, Vrincipal of Brazen-nofe Collidge, Oxon.

GrAn Inftitution of General Hiftory, or the Hiftory of the World, being a compleat Body thereof, when are deferibed the feveral Empires, and their Contemporaries with them; all diffincly by themfelves, and yet link'd to ether by Synchronitms; as alfo the Forms and Models of Government, with the Power and Nature of their respective Magiltrates, Cultoms, Laws. and Antiquities, all in fuch unbroken Order and Method, as yet never was Extant : In Two Volumes in Folio, By William Howe I: L. L. D. Chancellor of Lincoln, Some time Fellow of Mega a. Fa Colledge in Cambridge. Sold by The, Baffer. Will. Croos, ard Will. Cademan, at the George in Fleetforce. at the Gre a Dr. gra without Tref I Bir, and at the Popes Head, at the New Exchange in the Strand.

T Hele are to give notice, that in a Meadow called Sysinton Med m, near Alisbury, in the County of Bush, will be given threePlates to be run for by Hunting Horles only; the First on Wednesday the 25th of Angust next, at Twelve llone weight, the winning Horle to be fold for 25 Gui éas; the Second, on Thursday the 26th at I leven itone, the winning Horle to be fold for Twenty Guineas; the Third on Friday, the 27th at Ten flone, to be fold for Fifteen Guineas;

Oft on Wednelday night the 7th of July, out of a Field near Precham, in the Parifh of July, out of a Field ty of Surry. an Iron Grey Gelding, full aged Fourteen hands and a half high, bob Tail'd, and Trots all A Daple Grev Gelding about Seven years old; Pourteen hands high, being a finall'limmed Nagi with feveral Feathers in his Breaft, trots fwift, and eafie, cut Tail, fhorn Mane, fhort Neck, and thick Head. Whoever gives notice of the faid Horfes, or either off them, to Mr. The mas Worret, Dyer, living on the B mi-fide, or to Mr. Smith, Holfer, at the Three Pidgeons at the Bridgefidt, Southwart, fhall have 20 a rreward for each Horfe.

Printed by The Newcomb in the Savoy, 1680.