AT the Court at St. James's, the 29th of July 1800,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Twelfth of February last, prohibiting the exporting into any Parts out of this Kingdom any Sheet Copper, or Copper in Boltstaves, Bars, Sheets, Rings, and Nails, or Copper in such a State as may be easily converted into or made useful as a Naval Store, will expire upon the Twelfth Day of August next: and whereas it is expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of his Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, That no Person or Persons whosoever do, at any Time for the Space of Six Months, to commence from the Twelfth Day of August next, presume to export out of this Kingdom to any Parts beyond the Seas, any Sheet Copper, or Copper in Boltstaves, Bars, Sheets, Rings, and Nails, or Copper in such a State as may be easily converted into or made useful as a Naval Store; or ship or lade any of the Articles abovementioned on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to exporting the same beyond the Seas, without Leave or Permission being first had and obtained from His Majesty or his Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act passed in the Thirty-third Year of His Majesty's Reign, Chap. 2.; and also by an Act passed in the Thirty-fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign, Chap. 34, any Thing contained in His Majesty's Order in Council of the Twenty-fifth Day of June last to the contrary notwithstanding: and the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord

Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 23d of July 1800,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Twenty-second Year of His late Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled "An Additional Act for the rebuilding of the City of London, uniting the Parishes, and rebuilding of the Cathedral and Parochial Churches within the said City," taking Notice that great Exactions had been, and were exercised by Wharfingers and others employed about the Wharfage and Cranage of Goods landed or shipped off at or from the said City of London; for Remedy thereof it was enacted, that such Rates and no other should from Time to Time be taken for Wharfage and Cranage, as well of Timber and other Materials for building, as of Coals and other Goods and Merchandizes, as by His said Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, should for that Purpose be assessed and allowed to be taken, a Table of which Rates should be hanged up at every of the said Wharfs respectively; and if any Wharfinger or other should exact or demand, or directly or indirectly take or receive for Wharfage or Cranage, or by Colour thereof more than according to the Rates which should be so assessed, or should refuse to suffer any Goods or Merchandize to be landed or shipped at, off, or from any Wharf or Wharfs within the said City or the Liberties thereof at the Rates aforesaid, such Offender should forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Ten Pounds to the Party or Parties thereby grieved, to be recovered with full Costs of Suit, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster or within the said City of London, as the Cause should arise, wherein no Effoin, Protection, or Wager of Law should be allowed, nor any more than one Impar lance.

And whereas, no Table of Rates has been yet assessed or allowed for many Wharfs within the
