AT the Court at St. James's, the 29th of July 1800,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for erecting a Lazaret on Chetney Hill, in the County of Kent, and for reducing into one Act the Laws relating to Quarantine, and for making further Provisions therein," it is, among other Things enacted, that from and after the first Day of October One thousand eight hundred, all Ships and Vessels arriving, and all Persons, Goods, and Merchandizes whatsoever coming or imported into any Port or Place within Great Britain, or the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, from any Place from whence His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, by and with the Advice and Consent of his or their Privy Council, shall judge it probable that the Plague or other Infectious Disease or Distemper which His Majesty, with the Advice of his Privy Council, shall, from Time to Time, declare to be of the Nature of the Plague, may be brought, shall be liable and obliged to make their Quarantine in such Place and Places, for such Time, and in such Manner, as shall from Time to Time be directed by His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, by his or their Order or Orders of Council, and notified by Proclamation, or published in the London Gazette; and that until such Ships, Vessels, Persons, Goods, and Merchandizes shall have respectively performed, and shall be duly discharged from such Quarantine, no such Person, Goods, or Merchandizes, or any of them, shall come or be brought on Shore, or go, or be put on board any other Ship or Vessel in any Place within His Majesty's Dominions, unless in such Manner, and in such Cases, and by such Licence as shall be directed or permitted by such Order or Orders made by His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors in Council as aforesaid; and that all such Ships and Vessels, and the Persons or Goods coming or imported in, or going, or being put on board the same, and all Ships, Vessels, Boats, and Persons receiving any Goods or Persons out of the same, shall be subject to such Orders, Rules, and Directions concerning Quarantine and the Prevention of

And all Letters to such Persons so under Quarantine, shall be delivered to the Superintendent or his Assistant, and shall be distributed by him, or according to his Directions; and no Communication or Conference shall be had by Persons not under Quarantine, with Persons so under Quarantine, except by Permission, or in the Presence of the Superintendent, or his Assistant, and under such Regulations and Restrictions as shall be directed by the said Superintendent; nor, in Cases where such Persons shall perform Quarantine on board any Ship or Vessel, unless from the Boat of the Superintendent, or his Assistant, one of whom shall always, and in all Cases, be present during such Communication and Conference, and such Communication and Conference shall be had at the Distance observed by the Superintendent, or his Assistant, in their usual Communication with Ships and Persons under Quarantine.

XV. And it is hereby further ordered, for the Purpose of preventing all clandestine Communication between the Lazaret and Hospital, or Pest House at Chetney Hill, and between the Floating Lazaret and the Hospital Ship, and Ships and Vessels under Quarantine, and between such Ships and Vessels

XVII. And it is hereby further ordered, That the Quarantine Guardians, who shall be placed on board Ships and Vessels not furnished with clean Bills of Health, shall be instructed to take especial Care that nothing whatever be delivered from on board such Ships or Vessels when under Quarantine, without an Order in Writing from the Superintendent or his Assistant; every such Order to be entered in a Book by one of the said Guardians, and the Original to be delivered back to the Superintendent or his Assistant, and nothing, however little susceptible it may be thought to be of Infection, shall be conveyed from one Ship or Vessel under Quarantine to another, nor any personal Intercourse be permitted from any such Ship or Vessel to another; and one of the Quarantine Guardians, when thereto required by the Superintendent of Quarantine, or his Assistant, shall accompany the Lighters and Boats which shall be employed in passing to or from the Ship or Vessel on board of which such Guardians are placed, during the Passage of such Lighters and Boats to and from such Ship or Vessel, in order to prevent any Communication in the Transit of the Cargo from the Ship to the Floating Lazaret, or to the Lazaret at Chetney Hill, and shall take Care, after every Removal of Goods, that no Remnants of Cotton, or of any other Article enumerated in either of the said Two Classes herein after stated, remain in the Lighters or the Boats.

XXIX. And it is hereby further ordered, That the said Guardians shall take Care, that after the Discharge of the Cargoes into the Lazaret, the Holds and Decks of the Ships shall be completely swept, and the Sweepings burnt.

XXX. And it is hereby further ordered, That the said Guardians shall diligently search the Lockers, Chests, and other Repositories of the Officers, Passengers, and Crews, and every Part of the Ships and Vessels, so that no Article so enumerated in either of the said Two Classes, nor any Matter or Thing considered as susceptible of Infection, remain undelivered to the Lazaret, unless what shall be declared by the said Superintendent, or Medical Attendant, to be requisite for daily Use, and shall see that all the said Chests, Lockers, and other Repositories, and all the Clothes and Bedding in the Ship or Vessel, be daily opened and aired, in such Manner as shall be directed by the Superintendent of Quarantine, and shall also make the like diligent Search in Ships and Vessels laden with other Goods not enumerated in either of the said Classes, so as to be able the better to ascertain that nothing enumerated, or considered as susceptible, has been left on board.

XXI. And it is hereby further ordered, That one of the said Guardians shall make a daily Report to the Superintendent of Quarantine, or his Assistant, and to the Medical Attendant, of the State of Health of every Person on board, and whether the Regulations of Quarantine have been properly complied with; and in case any Impediment shall occur in the Execution of the Duties required of the said Guardians, they shall give Notice immediately to the Master or other Person having Charge of the Ship or Vessel in the first Instance, and if thereupon such Impediment be not instantly removed, they shall then give Notice thereof to the Superintendent of Quarantine, or his Assistant, who shall take Care to use effectual Means for the Removal of the same.

XXII. And it is hereby further ordered, That if any Person on board, shall fall sick, and any Medical Person shall be on board the Ship or Vessel, such Medical Person shall confer with the Medical Attendant alongside the Ship or Vessel, the Medical Attendant keeping to Windward at a Distance of not less than Ten Feet; and in case there shall be no Medical Person on board, and it shall be necessary for the Medical Attendant to inspect the Sick, the Visit shall be made at the Ship's Boat by the Medical Attendant in his own Boat, keeping to Windward at the like Distance of not less than Ten Feet; and if any Patient, after being examined in the Manner before-mentioned, shall be found to require such Medical or Chirurgical Aid as cannot properly be administered, except in the Pest House or Hospital Ship, he shall be removed either to such Pest House or Hospital Ship, as the Case may require.

XXIII. And it is hereby further ordered, That Patients under Circumstances which shall induce Suspicion that they may be infected with any pestilential Disorder, whether such Person shall be in the Lazaret at Chetney Hill, or in the Floating Lazaret, or in any of the Ships or Vessels performing Quarantine, shall be sent to the Pest House, or to one of the Huts on Shore, or to the Hospital Ship, according to the Discretion of the Superintendent of Quarantine, with the Advice of the Medical Attendant; and when it shall appear that there is no longer any Reason to apprehend any Danger of Infection from such Patients, they shall be sent back to the Ship or Vessel from whence they were removed.

XXIII. And it is hereby further ordered, That in case any pestilential Disorder shall actually discover itself on board any Ship or Vessel, or among any of the Persons under Quarantine, whether in any Ship or Vessel performing Quarantine, or in the Lazaret at Chetney Hill, or in the Floating Lazaret, the Person or Persons affected with such Disorder shall be removed with all possible Care and Dispatch under the special Direction of the Superintendent of Quarantine and Medical Attendant to the Pest House, or to one of the Huts on Shore, and a proper Attendant shall be assigned to such Patient or Patients by the Superintendent of Quarantine, with the Advice of the Medical Attendant, and such Patient or Patients shall be visited at a due Distance by the said Medical Attendant, and in case near Approach shall be required some Person shall be specially appointed by the Medical Attendant for that Purpose.

XXIV. And it is hereby further ordered, That the Passengers and Crew of any Ship or Vessel under Quarantine may have the Assistance of any Medical Persons they may desire from the Shore, subject to the official Visits of the Medical Attendant, and to such Regulations and Restrictions as the Superintendent of Quarantine, with the Advice of such Medical Attendant, shall judge necessary; but all such Medical Persons, as well as all others, if they communicate by Contact with the Sick, shall perform the same Quarantine as the sick Persons themselves.

XXV. And it is hereby further ordered, That after the Quarantine Guardians shall have been placed on board any Ship or Vessel, the Pilot may quit such Ship or Vessel, and be removed to an Apartment in the Lazaret at Chetney Hill, or in the Hospital Ship, provided he comes from a Ship or Vessel having no suspicious Sickness on board; but if otherwise, such Pilot shall be sent to the Pest House, or to one of the Huts on Shore, at the Discretion of the Superintendent of Quarantine, with the Advice of the Medical Attendant; and such Pilot shall, in both Cases, continue under Quarantine until the probationary Airing of the Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, as hereinafter directed, shall be finished; and at the Expiration of such probationary Airing, such Pilot, if he continue free from Infection, shall be fumigated and discharged from Quarantine; provided always, that during the Performance of such Quarantine, either on board the Hospital Ship, or at the Pest House, or Huts on Shore, such Pilot shall not have Communication with any other Person, except under similar Restrictions to those herein directed with regard to other Persons under Quarantine.

XXVI. And it is hereby further ordered, That until the Lazaret at Chetney Hill shall be erected, such of the Passengers and Crew of any Ship or Vessel arriving as above-mentioned, not furnished with clean Bills of Health, as may be desirous of performing Quarantine in a separate Vessel, to be hired at their own Expence, shall, in case the Superintendent of Quarantine, with the Advice of the Medical Attendant, shall see no Objection thereto, be permitted to quit the Ship or Vessel in which they shall have arrived before the Hatches are opened, and to go on board any other Ship or Vessel to perform Quarantine, (in which other Ship or Vessel a Quarantine Guardian shall be placed at the Expence of the Person or Persons so performing Quarantine,) and such Persons shall there perform a Quarantine of Thirty Days; and such of the Passengers and Crew as shall remain on board the Ship in which they shall have provided, shall continue under Quarantine until the Ship shall be discharged therefrom.

XXXIX And it is hereby further ordered, That all Ships and Vessels arriving in the Ports of this Kingdom, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, having come from or through the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary, on the Atlantic Ocean, which, with their Crews, Pas-

XL. And it is hereby further ordered, That all Ships and Vessels which shall receive any Persons, or any Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes, or other Articles whatever, from on board any Ship or Vessel liable to or under Quarantine, shall, together with the Cargo and Persons on board thereof, perform the like Quarantine as the Ship or Vessel from which such Persons, Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Articles shall have been received.

XLI. And it is hereby further ordered, That notwithstanding any Thing herein contained, it shall be lawful for His Majesty's Privy Council, from Time to Time, as they shall see Occasion, to make such Orders as they shall see fit, and as they have usually done, for shortening the Time of Quarantine to be performed by particular Ships or Vessels, or particular Persons, Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Effects, or for wholly releasing particular Ships or Vessels, or particular Persons, Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Effects from Quarantine, absolutely or conditionally, and generally to mitigate the strict Performance of Quarantine in particular Cases, as special Circumstances shall appear in their Judgment to require.

XLII. And it is hereby further ordered, That the Commanders of any of His Majesty's Ships of War, who shall meet any Ship or Vessel liable to perform Quarantine, coming to any of the Ports of Great Britain, or of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, shall take due Care to prevent the Landing of any Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Persons from on board the same, until they shall be put under the Direction of the Superintendent of Quarantine at Standgate Creek, or of the Officers of His Majesty's Customs employed in the Quarantine Service at any of the Out-ports or Places hereinbefore mentioned.

XLIII. And it is hereby further ordered, That the Commissioners, and other Officers of His Majesty's Customs, do use their utmost Diligence and Care that all the Regulations for the Performance of Quarantine before directed be duly observed.

XLIV. And it is hereby further ordered, That the Commanders of His Majesty's Ships of War, as likewise the Commanders of His Majesty's Forts and Garrisons lying near the Sea Coasts, and all Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Chief Magistrates, Constables, Headboroughs, Tythingmen, and all other Officers and Ministers of Justice, shall be aiding and assisting to the said Officers of His Majesty's Customs, and to all others that shall be concerned in stopping such Ships as aforesaid, and in bringing them to the Places appointed for the Performance of Quarantine, as well as in enforcing due Performance thereof.

XLV. And it is hereby further ordered, That this Order, and the Regulations therein contained, shall take Effect and be in Force from the First Day of October next ensuing the Date hereof, until which Time the Orders and Regulations now subsisting touching Quarantine shall continue in Force, but which subsisting Orders and Regulations, and the Authority of the same shall, from and after the said First Day of October, wholly cease and determine.

XLVI. And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the Rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the Time being of the said Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Whitehall, September 16, 1800.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that some evil minded Person or Persons did, in the Night of Saturday last, stick against the West Side of the Monument, in the City of London, Two Inflammatory written Papers, of rather a greater Size than a Foot Square, one of which Papers was written in large Roman Characters, and might have been legible at a considerable Distance, and the other was written in a plain Running Hand, with the Words "CORN MARKET ON MONDAY," in large Roman Characters at the Bottom of it;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in Writing the said Papers is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious

Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually wrote the same or caused them to be stuck up,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid upon the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, at the Lord Mayor's Justice-Room in the Mansion-House.
