In a Meeting or Assembly of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Liverymen, of the several Companies of the City of London, in Common-Hall assembled, at the Guildhall of the said City on Monday the 29th Day of September 1800,

Resolved unanimously, That the Thanks of this Common-Hall be given to the Right Honorable Harvey Christian Combe, Lord Mayor, for his wife, temperate, and well-timed Conduct, in suppressing the late dangerous Riots, that greatly threatened to disturb not only the Peace and Tranquillity of this City and Suburbs, but the general Happiness of all His Majesty's Subjects.
