Copy of a Letter from Vice Admiral Lord Keith, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Mediterranean, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated on board the Minotaur, in Leghorn Roads, the 10th of July 1800.

SIR,

I Enclose a Copy of a Letter from Captain Halsted, of His Majesty's Ship Phoenix, acquainting me with the Interception of the French National Vessel La Revanche, from Toulon, with Dispatches and Provisions for Malta; and have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

KEITH.

MY LORD, Phoenix, at Sea, June 18, 1800.

I Beg Leave to acquaint your Lordship, that early yesterday Morning, being off the Hieres Islands, and little Wind, I sent Lieutenant Thompson, with the Boats of His Majesty's Ship Phoenix, in Chace of a small Vessel standing in for Hieres Bay; and at Nine A. M. they captured her: She proved to be La Revanche French National Vessel, coppered, mounting Four Carriage Guns and Four Swivels, with Twenty-seven Men, partly laden with Brandy, Wine, Cheese, and Pork, Ten Days from Toulon, and bound to Malta with Dispatches, which were thrown overboard.

I am sorry to add, that in capturing the above Vessel we lost One Man; and unfortunately this Morning, it blowing strong, she overfet, but happily no lives lost.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

L. W. HALSTED.

*Right-Honorable Lord Keith,
K. B. Vice-Admiral of the Red, &c. &c. &c.*

Whitehall, October 3, 1800.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Dame Elizabeth Ingilby, Wife of Sir John Ingilby, of Riply, in the County of York, Baronet, and only Child of Sir Wharton Amcotts, of Kettlethorpe-Park, in the County of Lincoln; Baronet, by Dame Anna Maria his late Wife, who was Daughter of Vincent Amcotts, and Sister and Coheir of Charles Amcotts, late of Amcotts, Aitrop, Kettlethorpe, and Harrington, in the said County of Lincoln, Esquires, deceased, His Royal Licence and Authority, that, in consequence of the Death of the said Dame Anna Maria Amcotts her Mother, and with the Consent and Approbation of her said Husband, she may assume and take the Surname of Amcotts, in Addition to that of Ingilby, as a Mark of her Respect for the Memory of the best and most lamented of Parents: And also to order, that this His Majesty's Concession and Declaration be registered in his College of Arms.

Whitehall, September 27, 1800.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that several inflammatory Hand-Bills have, in the Course of Saturday the 20th and Monday the 22d Instant, been fixed up in different Parts of the Town of Nottingham, tending to encourage the most daring Violations of the public Peace;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in publishing and fixing up the said Hand-Bills, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Author or Authors of the said Hand-Bills,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders by George Coldham, Town Clerk.

Whitehall, September 27, 1800.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that several inflammatory Papers (one of which begins with Countrymen, and another with Liberty,) have been thrown in the Streets, and stuck up against the Walls in several Parts of the Town of Birmingham, endeavouring to stir up the People to Acts of Rebellion;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing the said Papers, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who actually wrote, distributed, or posted up either of the said Papers,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by

Mr. Millward, Constable.

Whitehall, September 30, 1800.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that several inflammatory and treasonable Hand-Bills were found posted up in different Parts of the Town of Wigan, in the County of Lancaster, on the Morning of Thursday the 18th Instant; and on the following Night a Letter, addressed "To the Justices of the Borough of Wigan as shold Ad as Justices but does not" was thrust under the Door of the Dwelling-House of Mr. Thomas Rigby, one of the Overseers of the Poor of the said Borough;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in Writing and publishing the said Hand-Bills, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Writers or Publishers of the said Hand-Bills
