AT the Court at St. James's, the 15th of October 1800.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty-sixth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-two, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Twenty-eighth Day of February then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or Officers employed on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by his said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of the said Month of February, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-three, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next, by any of His Majesty's Sea Officers appointed to raise Men on Shore, or by the Captains or Commanders of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels in the Ports, or on the Coasts of this Kingdom: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward hath been prolonged and extended to the Thirty-first Day of this instant

October; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Reward should be continued to be paid for some Time longer, His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended from the said Thirty-first Day of this instant October to the Thirty-first Day of January One thousand eight hundred and one, inclusive: Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly. W. Fawcener.

THE following Petition has been presented to the King; which Petition His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The most humble and dutiful Petition of your Majesty's loyal Subjects the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Oxford, in Common-Council assembled.

SHEWETH,

THAT your Petitioners holding in utter Abhorrence and Detestation the Tumults and Disturbances that have lately taken place in various Parts of your Majesty's Kingdom, and being most firmly determined at all Times to resist and quell, to the utmost of their Power, such riotous and unlawful Proceedings, cannot at the same Time but feel most deeply affected by the Miseries which your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects are suffering from the present high Price of Provisions; your Petitioners therefore most humbly beseech and intreat your Majesty, as the common Father and Protector of your People, and ever regarding with anxious Solicitude their Welfare and Happiness, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to convene your Parliament, that this most momentous Subject may be taken into early Consideration, and such Measures adopted for alleviating the grievous Distresses of the Country, as by the Wisdom of Parliament shall be judged meet and expedient. And your Petitioners shall ever pray, &c.

Given under the Common Seal of the City of Oxford this Eighth Day of October, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred.

[Presented by Henry Peters, one of the Representatives for the City of Oxford.]
