AT the Court at St. James's, the 12th of November 1800,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Information hath been received that an Epidemic Fever is now raging in the Town of Norfolk, in Virginia, and at Baltimore, in Maryland, within the United States of America; His Majesty deeming the said Fever to be probably infectious, doth, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, deem it expedient to declare, and by this His Order doth declare, that the said Fever is probably infectious within the Meaning of the Act passed in the Thirty-eighth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to amend Two Acts made in the Twenty-sixth Year of King George the Second, and the Twenty-eighth Year of His present Majesty, respecting the Performance of Quarantine, &c." And doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that all Ships, Vessels, Persons, Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, which, since the first Day of this instant November have arrived, or which shall hereafter arrive in any of the Ports of this Kingdom, or the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, from any of the Ports of Virginia or Maryland, (not having any Person or Persons on board the same actually ill of the said Fever,) do perform a Quarantine of Fourteen Days at the several Places appointed, and according to the Rules prescribed by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Twenty-ninth of July last, for Performance of Quarantine by all Ships and Vessels coming from or through the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary on the Atlantic Ocean, and arriving with clean Bills of Health; and in case any of the Crew or Passengers on board any such Ship or Vessel, which, since the said first Day of November has arrived, or which hereafter shall arrive in any of the Ports of this Kingdom or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, from any of the said Ports of Virginia or of Maryland, shall have died of the said Fever during the Course of the Voyage, the Clothes and all personal Effects which are susceptible of Infection, worn by or belonging to such Person, shall be forthwith burned or sunk in deep Water; but if such Clothes and Effects shall not be so burned or destroyed, the said Ship or Vessel, with the Whole of her Cargo and Crew, shall not be permitted to perform Quarantine at any Port or Place except at Standgate Creek, and shall be compelled to depart from any other Port or Place at which the same has arrived or shall arrive as aforesaid, and shall repair to Standgate Creek and there perform Quarantine, and not elsewhere: And His Majesty is further pleased to order, with the Advice aforesaid, and it is hereby ordered, that if it shall appear, upon the Arrival of any Ship or Vessel from any of the said Ports of Virginia or of Maryland, that any of the Crew or Passengers belonging to the same are actually ill of the said Fever, then such Ship or Vessel, and the Persons, Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, on board the same, shall not be permitted to perform Quarantine at any Port or Place except Standgate Creek, and shall be compelled to depart from any other Port or Place, and to proceed immediately to Standgate Creek in order to perform Quarantine, and shall there perform Quarantine, and not elsewhere: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the Time being of the said Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

A REWARD OF FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS.

Whitehall, November 10, 1800.

A Printed Hand Bill of the most seditious and inflammatory Tendency, and highly dangerous to the publick Peace and Tranquillity, having been secretly distributed, inviting a tumultuous and unlawful Assembly to meet on Kennington Common on Sunday the 9th Instant; and it being important to the publick Welfare, that the Author, Printer, and Publisher of the said Hand Bill should be discovered and made amenable to public Justice, as a Warning and Example to others in like Case offending, a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS,

(to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury,) will be given to any Person who shall discover the Author, Printer, or Publisher of the said Hand Bill, so that he or they may be convicted of writing, printing, or publishing the same.

PORTLAND:

Whitehall, November 8, 1800.

Whereas it has been humbly represented unto the King, that an anonymous Letter was received, on Tuesday the 21st Ultimo, by Mr. John Ackers, Governor of the House of Industry at Whitechurch, in the County of Salop, of which the following is a Copy, viz.

“ Mr Ackers this is to give you notice to get “ room in the industry for the Poor this winter but “ it shall not be the same as it was last winter but as
“ for Waiting for crops of corn it is no use to them
“ if ther was to come of the earth as wat we should “ think wat was gult according to the nation but be “ fore we Come to you will fier all the cuntry as they “ shant ord the corn this winter as they did the last.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing and sending the said Letter, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who actually wrote the same,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND:

Whitehall, November 15, 1800.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that some evil-minded Person or Persons did, on the 23d or 24th Ultimo, place a Piece of burning Wood wrapt up in some old Thatch under a Barn filled with Stubble, the Property of Joseph Goodale Baker, of Withersfield, in the County of Suffolk;

And whereas it has also been humbly represented to the King, that some Person or Persons on the Morning of the 24th Ultimo, did feloniously and maliciously set fire to a Hay Stack, the Property of Thomas Flack, of the Parish of Haverhill, in the said County;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the abovementioned Felonies, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them (except the Persons who actually placed the said burning Wood under the Barn, or set fire to the said Hay Stack,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of TEN GUINEAS is hereby offered by the Inhabitants of the Parish of Withersfield, in Addition to a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS also offered by the Norwich Insurance Office to any Person making Discovery of the Persons concerned in attempting to set fire to the said Barn, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

As also a Reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the Inhabitants of the Parish of Haverhill, to any Person making Discovery of the Persons concerned in setting Fire to the said Hay Stack (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

Whitehall, November 15, 1800.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Monday the 20th October last, about Nine o'Clock in the Evening, a Barley Rick, of about 160 l. Value, the Property of Mr. Daniel Parker, of the Parish of Dunstable, in the County of Bedford, was discovered to be on Fire, and that there is every Reason to believe that the same was wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some evil minded Person or Persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in setting Fire to the said Barley Rick, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them (except the Person who actually set Fire to the same) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person who shall make such Discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by Daniel Parker.

Whitehall, November 15, 1800.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that an anonymous threatening Letter has been picked up in the Town of Clare, in the County of Suffolk, of which the following is a Copy, viz.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of TWENTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Inhabitants of the said Town, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

Whitehall, November 15, 1800.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that an anonymous threatening Letter has been sent to Lady Glyn, of Claverley, near Bridgenorth, of which the following is a Copy, viz.

We the poor distress'd and half starv'd Tradesmen of W. Hampton Bilston lye Waste and other places do on our knees beg your Ladyship to compel your Tewants to sell Wheat at 10^s and Barley at 5 to mix for Bread; We have heard of the humanity your Ladyship is possess'd of, and several other Noblemen, which wee have Petion^d to do the same, at the meeting of 20 distress'd Tradesmen—We are 126 Thousand Men ready to take the Corn and what we can find if provisions are not lower'd and if you do not compell your Tenants to sell as above, expect to see your Buildings at all your Farms, in Flames, and the Tenant hung at his Door. We will wait but a short Time longer and if the same, down with old England, your neighbour Perry brings Corn and asks 26^s a strike and declares he will not sell under, you will see his Building in Flames and him hanging against his Door in a short time We have fixed upon him, and Bennet of Clarley, Smith of D^o Lea of Ludston as the first but Perry first. We hope your Ladyship will hear the cries of the poor who are glad to eat that which your Ladyships dogs will not come to Hampton and see our Children picking Potato pearings of the Dunghill to boil for Food. We are starving in the midst of plenty—O hear our cries, and we will ever pray for you—let them sell out at small measure at their own Houses.

East-India House, October 22, 1800.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies do hereby give Notice,

That they will be ready to receive Proposals, in Writing, at any Time on or before Thursday the 20th of November, from any Persons on what Terms and Conditions they are willing to build Ships of about 800 Tons, to be let on Freight for the said Company's Service for Six Voyages certain, at full Freight for 800 Tons, and half Freight for surplus Tonnage; such Proposals specifying a permanent Peace Freight, which must be alike to China and all Parts of India, with Knowledge or without Knowledge for the said Six Voyages; and also a Rate per Ton during War, which must include all extra Expences of Manning and Bounty, Difference of Wages, and every other additional Charge occasioned by War, the Expences of returning Lascars only excepted; that these several Rates of Freight be offered on the lowest Terms for Ships built in the River Thames, or at the Out-Ports; and as there will not be an Opportunity of making any Abatement, and as Questions may arise between Tenders made, the one a higher Tender for Peace and lower for War, and the other Tender the contrary, the Court mean to accept the Tenders which appear to them, under all Circumstances, to be the lowest Offer, if they shall appear to the Court to be reasonable. The Tenders, with the Words "Ship Tender" on the Cover, to be severally sealed up and left with the Secretary at or before Twelve o'Clock at Noon on the said Thursday the 20th of November, beyond which Hour not any Tender will be received. W. Ramsay, Secretary.

The Particulars of the principal Dimensions and Scantlings, also an Inventory of the principal Stores, the Copy of the usual Charter-Party as an Outline, together with the other Terms and Conditions on which the Ships are to be tendered and entertained in the Company's Service, may be had on Application to Mr. Coggan, Clerk to the Committee of Shipping, on or after Monday the 27th Instant.

Not any Tender will be considered unless made in every Respect conformably to the above Terms.
