By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION,

Containing His Majesty's Declaration, That it is expedient that the Lords and Commons of the present Parliament of Great Britain should be the Members of the respective Houses of the First Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, on the Part of Great Britain; and commanding the said Lords and Commons to give their Attendance accordingly.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by the Fourth Article of the Articles of the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, as the same are ratified and confirmed by Two Acts of Parliament, the one passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, intituled An Act for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, the other passed in the Parliament of Ireland, also intituled An Act for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, to have Force and Effect from the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and one, it is provided, that if We, on or before the said First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and one, on which Day the Union is to take place as aforesaid, should declare, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, that it is expedient that the Lords and Commons of the present Parliament of Great Britain should be the Members of the respective Houses of the First Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, on the Part of Great Britain; then the said Lords and Commons of the present Parliament of Great Britain should accordingly be the Members of the respective Houses of the First Parliament of the said United Kingdom, on the Part of Great Britain: And whereas it is Our Intention to appoint Thursday the Twenty-second Day of January next ensuing for the assembling of the First Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, by Proclamation under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom; We do judge it to be expedient, that the Lords and Commons of the present Parliament of Great Britain should be the Members of the respective Houses of the First Parliament of the United Kingdom, on the Part of Great Britain: And We do, pursuant to the said

Articles of Union, and to the Acts of Parliament ratifying and confirming the same, hereby declare, under Our Great Seal of Great Britain, that it is expedient that the Lords and Commons of the present Parliament of Great Britain should be the Members of the respective Houses of the First Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, on the Part of Great Britain; and the Lords and Commons of the present Parliament of Great Britain are accordingly to be the Members of the respective Houses of the First Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, on the Part of Great Britain: And the said Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, are hereby required and commanded to take Notice thereof, and to give their Attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said Twenty-second Day of January next ensuing.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's, the Fifth Day of November One thousand eight hundred, in the Forty-first Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 12th of November 1800,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Information hath been received that an Epidemic Fever is now raging in the Town of Norfolk, in Virginia, and at Baltimore, in Maryland, within the United States of America; His Majesty deeming the said Fever to be probably infectious, doth, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, deem it expedient to declare, and by this His Order doth declare, that the said Fever is probably infectious within the Meaning of the Act passed in the Thirty-eighth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to amend Two Acts made in the Twenty-sixth Year of King George the Second, and the Twenty-eighth Year of His present Majesty, respecting the Performance of Quarantine, &c." And doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that all Ships, Vessels, Persons, Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, which, since the first Day of this instant November have arrived, or which shall hereafter
