We the poor distressed and half starv'd Tradesmen of W. We will wait but a short Time longer and if the same, down with old England, your neighbour Perry brings Corn and asks 26s a strike and declares he will not sell under, you will see his Building in Flames and him hanging against his Door in a short time We have fixed upon him, and Bennet of Clarley, Smith of D^o Lea of Ludston as the first but Perry first. We hope your Ladyship will hear the cries of the poor who are glad to eat that which your Ladyships dogs will not come to Hampton and see our Children picking Potato peelings of the Dunghill to boil for Food. We are starving in the midst of plenty—O hear our cries, and we will ever pray for you—let them sell out at small measure at their own Houses.
