I Desire you will please to lay before the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty the enclosed Letter from Lieutenant Wells, commanding His Majesty's Hired Cutter the Lord Duncan, giving me an Account of his having captured the French Cutter Privateer L'Eclair, commanded by Jacquiere Touffaint le Terrier, carrying Three Guns and Twenty Men, having been out Two Days from Cherbourg, without taking any Thing.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, December 18, 1800.

NOTICE is hereby given, that there will not be any Levee at Saint James's till further Notice, nor any Drawing-Room until Thursday the 15th of January next.

Downing-Street, December 23, 1800.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is an Extract, dated Head-Quarters, Muhlendorf on the Inn, Thursday, 4th December 1800, has been received from William Wickham, Esq; by the Right Honorable Lord Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Foreign Department:

THE Army marched in the Night of Tuesday, and before Day-break Yesterday Morning, towards Hohenlinden in Three Columns; the Centre along the Great Road to Munich, which passes through Hohenlinden; the Right and Left in the Woods on each Side of the Great Road.

The Corps of General Kienmayer, which was destined to take the Enemy in Flank, marched from Dorfen in the Direction of Schwaben.

The Columns ought all to have arrived at their Destination a little before Day-break, or at the latest between Eight or Nine o'Clock; but from a heavy Fall of Snow and Sleet, which continued all Night and the greater Part of the Morning, the Centre Column only was at its Destination at Eight o'Clock, whilst both the Left and Right were still considerably behind; and the Left, under General Risch had, besides, lost its Way, and marched to the Left towards Ebersberg, instead of turning to the Right, in the Direction of Hohenlinden.

In this State of Things it appears, that the Division of General Richepance pierced between the Left and the Centre about Nine o'Clock, got upon the Great Road behind the Centre, and fell upon the Left Flank and Rear of that Column at the Time that it had formed in Front, and had just begun to attack the Enemy's Position.

I have not yet been able to obtain any accurate Account of what passed afterwards; but it seems that the Disorder soon became irretrievable, and that the Retreat towards the Heights of Ramfau was made with very heavy Loss, particularly in Artillery. Generals Spaniorchi and Loppert are Prisoners. I have not yet heard of the Loss of any other Officers of the same Rank.

General Kienmayer was attacked on his March by Two Divisions from Aerding, and suffered also severely in his Retreat, which he made upon Isen in good Order, on learning the Disaster that had befallen the Main Army.

By the LORD LIEUTENANT-GENERAL and GENERAL GOVERNOR of IRELAND.

A PROCLAMATION.
CORNWALLIS.

WHEREAS His Majesty hath signified unto us His Royal Pleasure that the Parliament of this Kingdom, which now stands prorogued to Wednesday the Twentieth Day of December instant, be further prorogued to Wednesday the Thirty-first Day of December instant: We do therefore publish and declare, That the said Parliament be, and accordingly the said Parliament is hereby further prorogued to Wednesday the Thirty-first Day of December instant; whereof the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this present Parliament, are to take Notice accordingly.

Given at His Majesty's Castle of Dublin, the Seventeenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred.

By His Excellency's Command,
CASTLEREAGH.

GOD save the KING.
