Whitehall, January 6, 1801.

THEreas it has been bumb!; reprefented to the King, that an anonymous threatening Letter was found on Sunday the 14th Day of December at the Door of the Church of Durfham, in the County of Suffolk, ad-idreffed the Reverend John Lockwood, of which the following is a Copy, viz.

Gentlem anD famers I find you are Daely Contriven the pore to flave & the pore are Confilton & in a thort time your mafters will be but the first that mix his Grain shall forfit his heid, for your entent is to flarve us to ded but we have born it with paafent to fee your intent to flave us or muder-tis all that you want but the lord have Enfid our Curage fo hie that foner than flave we fight till we die for the poor against the rich through out the land will Conker the rich and have them at Command So repent of your fins do not take it amifs it is your Cruelty the Caufe of all this the day is epointed & that you will find the poor will have all this to fhare mind to be red in the Church by the Clargeman after furmon. Derected

.For the

revert Mr Lockard

And whereas, alfo it has been humbly reprefented to the King, that on the Night of Wednefday the 24th Ul timo, a Barn, fituate in the Parifh of Reydon, near Southwold, in the faid County of Suffolk, the Property of Mr. Robert Gayford, was different to be on fire, whereby the fame, together with the Corn, Sc. therein where on fume, together which the board, Oct. therein avere confumed, and that there is every Reafon to be-lieve the fame was wilfully and malicioufly fet on fire by fome evil-minded Perfon or Perfons; His Maiefly, for the better apprehending and bringing to Juffice the Author or Authors of the faid Letter and fitting Fire to the beforementioned Barn, is hereby pluifed to promife his noft gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Perfons who wrote the above-mentioned Letter or fet fire to the faid Barn,) who fhall difcover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, fo that he, fhe, or they may be apprehended and convicted .thereof. PORTLAND

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Right Honorable Lord Rous and Eleazar Davy, Efq; to any Perfou who shall discover the Author or Authors of the faid Letter, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

And a Reward of FORTY POUNDS is also hereby offered by Mr. Robert Gayford, to any One making fuch Discovery as aforefaid, of the Perfons concerned in fetting fire to the faid Barn, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

Whitehall, January 13, 1801. W Hereas it has been humbly reprefented to the King, that an anonymous threatening Letter has been fent to Lady Glynne, of Farmcott, Bridgnorth, of which the following is a Copy, viz.

We wrote to you fometime ago defiring you to compell your Tenants to fell Corn out to the Poor at a lower price no notice as been taken of our letter but laughd at by your Tenants mentiond in athesletter, you shall foon iee whether or not our threats are put in execution, as well as feveral other's that we wrote to-The building mentiond in cur first letter would by this time have been burnt to the ground but our receit for combustable was not a good one it mils'd but one we have now will not mils you may depend upon it. The time is not far off when molt of the Farmers and Millars faa'l fuffer part of them we will cut off their Ears and flit their Nofes to the Bone as a mark that the country may know them and thefe mentin'd in our letter shall hang as we have deferib'd .- When we can all fettle it to meet together we do not fear the Solders fent to keep peace three parts out of four have foorn to join us when they are fore we are a body fufficient to conquer and that we are already we only wait for orders from our leaders which are fome of the first Gentlemen in the kingdom, we wrote to you by their direction and orders that you might fave your life and buildings but now you have treated our warning with contempt you shall fuffer with the rea, It was not for the fake of the Farmers occupying your Farms mentiond in our firfe letter that we wrote to you but for your fake only the Farmers mention'd zre the worft of all Farmers -We have found out as great a rogue fince we wrote to you before as the other we are informed of one Batch of the Grean House who has bought 200 Acrs of Corn growing for is a firike and will not fell it 'till it is at 305 we are determind to have part with him before he is much older but if We cannot have our fhare we will burn it to the Ground that he may dam as well as we we are inform'd alfo of Wilfon and Waldron of Bebridge Wilfon of Arly and a Tonge of the Park who have thrashed 7 or 8 hunderd firike and hid it in the chaff. We have distributed Notes to Wolverhampton Dudley Stourbridge lie walle Brignorth to let our Friends know of the above perfon that they may know where to find Corn. out of all the Farmers for 15 Miles round W. Hampton we can only find 3 Good onea and thole we will protect to our loft drop of Blocd and any Friends they shall with. We hav in a letter drop'd let our Friends know who the are that they may be fafe and we shall foon feud them our pais word but if they expole it that any other may know it they will fuffer with the reft.

His Majelly, for the better apprehending and bringing to Juffice the Perfons concerned in writing and fending the fuid Letter, is hereby pleased to promife His mife gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Perfor auto actually wrote the fame,) who field difeover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, fo that he, fhe, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to to any Perfon making fuch Difcovery as aforefaid, (ex-cept as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

Whitehali, January 13, 1801. Wereas it has been bumbly represented to the King, that several Inflammatory Papers have lately been diffributed in the Town of Helftone, in the County of Cornwall, of which the following are Copies, viz.

Friends to your Country.

Affert the Rights or quit the name of Man What fignifies your Petitions? ("And Pharaohs