—Let the Rich y^e lowest slave disdain:
He's equally a Link of Nature's Chain;
Labours to y^e same End, joins in one View;
And both alike y^e will divine pursue;
And at the last, are levelled, Kings and Slave
Without distinction in one silent Grave.

I presume you are not unacquainted, of the meeting of a Great number of the injured poor-inhabitants of this once happy City, & the great reason there is for a redress of their present miserable state, come forward as a Man and a good Magistrate; and let the World see that you are not that selfish cynic in heart, that your former conduct have made you appear to be.——Depend upon it that if there is not some redress & that speedily, the consequences will be dreadful, as we are resolved, nor can we any longer support ourselves and Families.——

Therefore it is better to Die like Men than any longer to hear y^e cries of our starving Children for Bread, when thro' the villainy of a few designing Men, (who for the sake of a little paltry Gold) hath in the midst of Plenty advanced the prices of every necessary Article of Life to such an enormous price, that we are unable to purchase them.——We have waited with the greatest patience for redress, without effect, & are now Determined to redress ourselves.——we fear not the Soldiers, neither the Volunteers (vulgarly termed the Farmers Bull-Dogs,) they are our Friends, Brothers, and Fellow sufferers,——we know the principal Villains in our neighbourhood, & are determined to be revenged.——

Fire and Sword, is the word, and by the Almighty God they shall not escape our vengeance, we have cried unto Man in vain, we have now appealed unto God, who hath inspired us with the just means of revenging ourselves take care of your-
