Copy of a Letter from Captain Wolley, of His Majesty's Ship Arethusa, to Ewan Nepean, Esq; dated Spithead, the 13th Instant.

S I R,

I Have the Pleasure of informing you, that at Half past Nine on the Morning of the 12th, on our Way round, we fell in with and captured, after Six Hours Chase, the French Privateer Luggier Le Brave of Boulogne, of Fourteen Guns and Fifty-seven Men, on her first Cruize, perfectly New.

I am, &c. THOMAS WOLLEY.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, April 17, 1801.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Court will go out of Mourning on Sunday next, the 19th Instant.

Westminster, April 18, 1801.

THIS Day the Lords being met, a Message was sent to the Honorable House of Commons by Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorized by virtue of His Majesty's Commission for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate Attendance of the Honorable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An Act for reviving and further continuing, until Six Weeks after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament, several Acts made in the Thirty-eighth, Thirty-ninth, and Fortieth Years of His present Majesty's Reign, and in the last Session of Parliament, for empowering His Majesty to secure and detain such Persons as His Majesty shall suspect are conspiring against his Person and Government.

An Act for the better Regulation of the Office of Master of the Rolls in that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, and for augmenting the Salary annexed to the said Office.
