Extract of a Letter from Captain Hood, Commander of His Majesty's Ship Venerable, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated at Sea, the 7th Instant.

I Beg Leave to enclose you a Copy of a Letter from the Honorable Captain Legge, of His Majesty's Ship Cambrian.

S I R, Cambrian, at Sea, April 6, 1801.
THE Vessel you sent me in Chace of this Morning, proved to be L'Audacieux French Lug-ger Privateer, of Fourteen Guns and Fifty Men, commanded by S. B. Ant. Candeau, belonging to Bourdeaux, which Place she left on the 30th March, and has since only detained one American.

The Ship we recaptured Yesterday, was the Nancy Letter of Marque, of London; she was taken on the 2d Instant, in Lat. 50 Deg. 42 Min.
 N. and Long. 9 W. by Le Braave French Privateer.
 I am, &c. &c. &c.

ARTHUR K. LEGGE.

Samuel Hood, Esq; Sc. Sc. Sc.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. William Weston, Collector of His Majesty's Customs, at Weymouth, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated the 20th Instant.

S I R,
I Beg Leave to acquaint you, that Captain Wilkinson, of the Greyhound Revenue Cutter, has captured and sent into this Port, a French Luger Privateer, called the Le Petit Piratte, Anselme Sep-tan, Commander, mounting Four Carriage Guns, (pierced for Twelve,) small Arms, and manned with Twenty-four Men, out Three Days from St. Maloes.
 I am, &c. &c. &c.

W. WESTON, Collector.

Sheerness, April 14, 1801.

WHEREAS Thomas King, a Shipwright, and Joseph Bleaze, a Blacksmith, both belonging to His Majesty's Dock Yard at this Place, stand charged before me Aaron Graham, Esq; one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace in and for the County of Kent, with having, on Monday the 13th Instant, at the said Dock-Yard, unlawfully, riotously, and tumultuously assembled with divers other Persons, to the great Disturbance of the public Peace, and violently assaulted me, the said Justice, in the Execution of my Duty, and together with more than Twelve of the said Rioters, refused and neglected quietly to depart to their Habitations or their lawful Business within One Hour after Proclamation had, by me the said Justice, been made, commanding them so to do, contrary to the Act of the 1st George I. commonly called the Riot Act.

A Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person or Persons who shall apprehend and lodge in One of His Majesty's County Prisons, the said Thomas King and Joseph Bleaze, or for each of them, so that they may be conveyed before me at this Place, and proceeded against according to Law.

A. GRAHAM.

We, the undersigned Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, do hereby enjoin the Commissioners, and charge all inferior Officers and others of His Majesty's Dock-Yards respectively, to be aiding and assisting in apprehending and securing, so that they may be proceeded against according to Law, the above-named Thomas King and Joseph Bleaze.

A. S. Hammond.

J. Henslow.

Whitehall, April 25, 1801.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Saturday the 11th Instant, an anonymous threatening Letter, of which the following is a Copy, was found in the Streets of Totnes, in the County of Devon:

Mr. Welsford

You are desired to keep that infernal Tongue of yours quiet otherways you will stand a chance to have your brutish Brains blown out the Mills tore down, and your house sat on fire therefore remember what I've said and not abuse nor oppress the Poor any more You nor your Blackguard Company but consider we are all ready to a Man 1. 1 and 10/6 and damn the Lord Lieutenant's Letter—We are not to be fooled with

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing and dropping the said Letter, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who actually wrote the same,) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) upon the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, to be paid by Giles Welsford.

Whitehall, April 25, 1801.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King,
 that on the Morning of Friday the 17th Instant, a Stack of Wheat, Value Four Hundred and Fifty Pounds, the Property of Mr. Edward Farmer, of Dean Park, in the Parish of Bursford, and County of Salop, was discovered to be in Flames, and that there was Reason to believe the same was wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some evil-minded Person or Persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who
