

Mr. Welsford

You are desired to keep that infernal Tongue of yours quiet otherways you will stand a chance to have your brutish Brains blown out the Mills tore down, and your House set on fire therefore remember what I've said and not abuse nor oppress the Poor any more You nor your Blackguard Company but consider we are all ready to a Man 1 1 and 10/6 and Damn the Lord Lieutenant's Letter—We are not to be fooled with

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing and dropping the said Letter, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who actually wrote the same,) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) upon the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, to be paid by Giles Welsford.

Whitehall, April 25, 1801.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the Morning of Friday the 17th Instant, a Stack of Wheat, Value Four Hundred and Fifty Pounds, the Property of Mr. Edward Farmer, of Dean Park, in the Parish of Burford, and County of Salop, was discovered to be in Flames, and that there was Reason to believe the same was wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some evil-minded Person or Persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who actually set Fire to the same,) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby promised to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid upon the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by the said

Edward Farmer.

Whitehall, April 28, 1801.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Tuesday the 21st of April, about Nine o'Clock at Night Four Persons, dressed in Blue Sailors' Jackets, armed with Pistols, Swords, and Bludgeons, and having their Faces blacked, and being otherwise disguised, suddenly rushed into the Dwelling-House of Mr. Richard Honey, Farmer, at Bickham, in the Parish of Plympton St. Mary, in the County of Devon, and instantly assaulted and knocked down the said Richard Honey, his wife, and Servants, and continued to beat and wound them for a considerable Time in the most barbarous Manner; repeatedly declaring their Intentions, with the most horrid Oaths, to murder them all:— And that the said Four Persons proceeded to rife the House, and attempted to set it on fire; mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any One of them who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Felony above-

PORTLAND.

And, as a Further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY POUNDS is hereby promised to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid upon the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, on Application to the said

Richard Honey.

Whitehall, April 28, 1801.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that divers incendiary Letters and Writings have recently been dispersed within the Town and Neighbourhood of Swansea, in the County of Glamorgan, with a View to excite the Populace to Acts of Riot and Plunder;

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person or Persons who were actually the Authors of the said Publications, and caused them to be distributed and posted up,) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby promised by the Magistrates of the said Town and Neighbourhood to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, on Application to

W. Grove, Portreeve.

Whitehall, April 28, 1801.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that late in the Night of Friday the 17th Instant, the Dwelling-House of George Elms, Baker, situate in Frances's Alley, in the Town of Plymouth Dock, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire, whereby a Storehouse to the Rear of the said Premises was entirely consumed;

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any of them, (except the Person who actually set fire to the said Premises,) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby promised to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by

R. Morice, Esq.
F. St. Aubin, Esq.
J. Williams, Esq.

Admiralty-Office, April 24, 1801.

Notice is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery for the Trial of Offences committed on the High Seas, within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old-Bailey, London, on Wednesday the 3d Day of June next, at Eight o'Clock in the Morning.
