

wardneſs the new Fortifications that are making there, are in, is gone for Lorraine. to continue in his Government of that Countrey. The Marquis de Boufflers is marching towards Stenay, where will be held, about the middle of the next Month, in the Kings preſence, a general Muſter of the Dragoons.

Hamburg, Aug. 9. The ſeveral reports that have been ſpread abroad of the Death of the Elector of Saxony prove hitherto falſe. However we have an account from all hands, that his Electoral Highneſs continues very ill, and that he has withdrawn himſelf from publick affairs. The Elector of Brandenburg's Journey to Magdebourg is put off till the end of September, and the ſecond of October is the day appointed for his publick Entry into that City, and his receiving the Oath of Homage and Allegiance from the Magiſtrates, and the Nobility and Gentry of that Countrey. The Letters we have from Poland ſay, That they began to hope that the endeavours that were uſed to beget a Rupture between the Turks and that Kingdom would be unſucceſſful, and that the Grand Signior's Army was marching againſt the Moscovites.

Cologne, Aug. 9. On Tueſday laſt arrived here the Prince of Naffaw, Stadtholder of Friſeland, and parted again the next day to go to take the waters at Smalbach. We have Letters from Vienna of the 28th paſt, which ſay, That Count Caprara, General of the Imperial Troops in Hungary, and Count Tockly, chief of the Rebels, had agreed to a new Truce, and that Propoſals had been made by the latter in order to a Peace, which Count Caprara had ſent to the Emperor to know his pleaſure upon; That the Proceſs againſt Count Zinzendorf, formerly Preſident of the Emperor's Revenues, was drawing towards a concluſion, and that it was believed Sentence would be pronounced againſt him the beginning of September; and that the Count de Tburn, whom the Emperor is ſending into England, would very ſpeedily begin his Journey.

Bruffels, Aug. 13. The 11th Inſtant paſſed through this City, on his return for Holland, an Officer of the Prince of Oranges Guards, whom the States General had ſent to the French King to deſire a farther Prolongation of the Term, which he had lengthned to the 15th Inſtant, for the Spaniards to declare themſelves in, concerning the Title of Burgundy; We are told, that the Kings Anſwer was, That he would always have a great Regard to what the States ſhould deſire of him; and that his Ambaſſador at the Hague ſhould acquaint them with his reſolution in this matter. The Duke de Villa Hermoſa continues his intention of going for Flanders yet this Week: and the beginning of the next, the Marquis de Bourguennero will begin his Journey towards the Imperial Court. We are told from Rasibonne, That the Elector of Bavaria will not permit the Count de Fb, whom the Emperor is ſending into England, to paſs through his Territories, without performing a Quarantine.

Bruffels, Aug. 13. The French Court being removed from Valenciennes to Cambray, parted again from thence the 9th, Lodged that night at Landreſies the 10th at Avignes, and the 12th at Mabenge, where the King viſited the new Fortifications that are making there. As this day the Court would go thence to Barbanzon, and will be to morrow at Philipville and from thence their Majeſties continue their Progreſs to Rocroy, where they will not be till the 27th. On the 15th Inſtant the laſt Term ſet by the French for the Spaniſh Commiſſioners at Courtray to obtain a new Power in, without the Title of Burgundy, expires, ſo that we muſt now expect to ſee what conſequences this Pretention of the French, which our King will, it's ſaid, by no means yeild to, will have. An Expreſs is arriv'd in 14 days from Madrid, but we know not what he brings.

Paris, Aug. 10. All we can write from hence is, That the Court, according to the laſt Advices we had, was at Cambray, and would remove from thence as yeſterday.

Kinſale, July 27. Yeſterday arrived here the Ann and Mary of this place with Tobacco and Sugar from Antego, from whence they came in company of the Ann of London, bound home, with whom they parted about three weeks ſince. The new Fort that is making here advances ſpace.

York, Aug. 2. The laſt week the Lady Tempeſt, Daughter to Sir Thomas Gaſcoigne, and Mrs. Prifwicke, were Tryed at the Aſizes here, upon an Indictment of High-Treafon, For Conſpiring the Death of the King, &c. and were acquitted, but Mr. Thwing the Priſt, who was Tryed at the ſame time, was found Guilty. Sir Miles Stapleton has not been yet brought to his Tryal.

Plymouth, Aug. 3. Yeſterday Sailed from hence the Garland for Portſmouth, and this day about 20 Sail of Merchant Ships, bound for the Streights and other parts, ſailed from hence likewiſe, under the Convoy of the Mermaid, who has the Soldiers on Board which the Garland brought from Ireland.

Portſmouth, Aug. 5. Yeſterday the Garland Frigate, Captain Hollder Commander, came to Spithead. On Tueſday arrived here the Yachts with the new raiſed Troopers deſigned for Tangier.
