Madrid, July 25.

From Barcelona we have an Account, that 18 French Gallies, Commanded by the Duke de Vivonne had been in that Road, and that the usual Compliments had passed between the Duke de Bouronville, Viceroy of Catalonia, and the Duke de Vivonne, but that the French Gallies parted again without giving or receiving any Salutes, for that they could not agree about the manner of doing it, between the French Gallies, and those of the Squadron of the Duke of Turfis, which happened to be then there. The French Ambassador at this Court, has presented a Memorial concerning the Title of Burgundy, which the French would have this Crown to quit; but we are told, That the King has positively resolved not to do it. Care is taking to remit a very considerable sum of Money to Flanders, for the Service of those Countreys. By an Express from Cadiz we have Advice, that the New-Spain Fleet sailed from thence the 11th Instant.

Vienna, July 31. In our last we told you, that General Caprara had made a Truce with the Rebels in Hungary, and that some Proposals made by the latter in order to a Peace, had been sent to the Emperor; since we have an Account from Lintz, that his Imperial Majesty had absolutely rejected the said Proposals, and had resolved, so soon as the Trace is expired, to attack the Rebels with a far greater Force than has yet been employed against them; and to that end, Orders had been sent to the Imperial Troops quartered in Silesia, Moravia, and Stiria, to march immediately towards Hungary, who as we are informed, will make a Body of 14000 Men; and at the same time we are told, that the Emperor has given out Commissions, for the raising of 20 new Regiments. There is a Report that the Grand Vizier is dead at Constantinople, and that the Grand Signior had already made choice of another to succeed him.

Ratisbonne, July 30. The States of the Empire, Assembled in the Dyet here, have dispatched the Letter, which we formerly told you they had resolved to write to the King of England; Wherein they Declare, That the Roman Empire does most gratefully acknowledge the Peace to have been restored to Christendom, by His Majesties Mediation at Nimeguen, which though it was upon very hard conditions to the Empire, yet has hitherto been punctually and faithfully executed on their part, in all the points of it, and that these His Majesties unwearied endeavours, and Councils, so Gloriously employed for the restoring the publick Peace, will be Sacred to Posterity.

That they cannot doubt but His Majesty has been from other hands sufficiently informed of the unjust and hostile Proceedings of the French Officers, as well Civil as Military against the Electors, Princes, and States of the Empire, and their Territories, contrary to the said Peace of Nimeguen; which confirms that of Westphalia; insomuch, that there seems nothing left of the Peace, but the specious name of it. That the Princes who have been thus injured, having thereupon demanded Relief of the Dyet, they had thought it their part to represent the same to the most Christian King; and though they cannot but expect from his Justice and Equity, that he will have a Regard to their Desires; yet they have brought it necessary, in the name of the Princes and States of the Empire, to acquaint His Majesty (of Great Britain) as the Common Mediator, by whose Authority and Guaranty the said Peace was concluded, with what has been acted in so unusual and hostile a manner, and to pray His Majesty, that for the Royal Zeal wh ch he has on all occasions so Gloriously employed for the publick tranquillity, he would represent what has been thus done, to the prejudice of the publick Peace, to the most Christian King, and would interpose His Royal Offices, to the end these Violences may cease, and things may be restored to their former state, and greater Evils prevented; and that the Disputes which have arisen, may amicably be determined by the Arbitrage long since agreed to, or any other legal way.

Which as it becomes the Faith and Justice of the Publick Treaties, so His Majesty will do therein a thing acceptable to God and all Christendom, and Glorious to Himself, and will oblige the Electors, Princes, and States of the Empire, to acknowledge his great Affection and Good Will towards them, and to study on their part to deserve the same.

Francfort, Aug. 8. The Electoral Prince Palatine, and his Princels, are passed through this City on their way to Holland; and it's said the Prince is going for England!

Cologne, Aug. 9. The Stadholder of Friesland, who came hither some days since, is parted again for Dief.

Hague, Aug. 13. The States-General having lately sent Capt. Van Hill to the French Court, with Letters to that King, and Monsieur Colbert his Secretary of State, in which they desired a further Prolongation of the Term, for the Spaniards to Declare themselves in, concerning the Title of Duke of Burgundy; This morning arrived here an Express with Letters to the States, informing them, that that King had directed his Ambassador here, the Count d'Avaux, to give them his Answer thereupon, which we shall know in a day or two what it is. The Emperors Minister here has presented a Memorial to the States-General, in which he tells them, That by Order of his Imperial Majesty, he was to acquaint them, that the Officers of the most Christian King had already seized great part of the Territories of the Elector Palatine, and that it is to be feared they will do the like with the rest of his Country, on-prentce of Dependencies, and other Rights, which they search Antiquity for, even to the time of King Dagobert. The Elector of Trier has already suffered a like Treatment, and that other Princes of the Empire are exposed to the same dangers, and particularly the City of Stralsburg, which being contrary to the Peace of Nimeguen, the preservation of which is not only necessary to the quiet of Germany, but likewise to the good of this State;

State, whose Interest it is no less to have a good Barrier towards the Rhine, than towards the Spanish Netherlands; He desires the said States would continually employ their Offices at the French Court, to the end these Contraventions may cease. This morning the Duke of Bouillon parted from hence for the French Court, but the Countess de Soissons will remain here some time longer. The Prince and Princess of Orange designing to continue at Dieren till the beginning of the next month, Mr. Sidney intends to go and wait upon their Highnesses there.

Amsterdam, Aug. 13. From Hydelberg we have an Account, that the Elector Palatine is sending the Prince his Son into England, and that his Highness was already on his journey hither, in order to his embarking in the Maes, on a man of War which the Admiralty here has been desired to furnish for that purpose. In a day or two we shall know the French Kings Answer to the States-General, upon their desiring to have the term sett the Spanish Commissioners at Courtray, in the matter of the Title of Burgundy, farther prolonged; for we are assured that the French Ambassador at the Hague, has received Instructions to acquaint the States with it; and its said, the said Term is prolonged to the 15th of September.

Brussels, Aug. 17. The French Court is at present at Rocro, from whence it will remove again to morrow to Mazières on the Meuse. The King during his stay at Philippsvile, ordered great alterations to be made in the Fortifications of that place. We are told that that King has lately made an Edict, Declaring, that he will not admit of any Sale or Mortgage which has been heretofore made by the King of Spain, or any of his Officers, of Lands belonging to the Crown, by which several particular people will suffer extremely, and be turned out of all they have. And by another Edict the King requires that all such as hold any Fiefs, shall pay to him one years Revenue in every Twenty year.

The 14th their Majesties and the whole Court came to Philippsvile.

Windsor, Aug. 5. His Majesty having in consideration of the great Abilities, and twenty years faithful Service of Thines Pett, Esq; in the Employment of Master Shipwright of his Yard at Chatham, been pleased to advance him to the place of one of the Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Navy, in the place of Sir Anthony Dean, whom His Majesty (at his humble Suit) has permitted to quit the same; His Majesty as a farther mark of his Favour to the said Mr. Pett, was this day pleased to confer upon him the Honor of Knighthood.

Windsor, Aug. 9. This day His Majesty was pleased to conferr the Honor of Knighthood upon Jonas Moore Esq; Master Surveyor of His Majesties Ordnance and Armories; His Majesty being pleased to give him this Mark of His favour, as well in consideration of his own Abilities, as of the faithful Services of his Father Sir Jonas Moore Deceased.

Whitehal, Aug. 7. His Majesty has been pleased to nominate the Right Honourable Sir William Temple, Baronet, one of His Privy Council, to go His Ambassador Extraordinary to the King of Spain.

Whitehal, Aug. 11. At the late Assizes held at Exeter for the County of Devon, the Grand Jury for the Body of the said County, made the following Declaration, Being very sensible of the restless endeavours of some Jealous Persons, to fill the Heads of the People with Jealousies and Discontents against the Government, and to affront the King (whom God long preserve) with Petitions for the Sizing of this Parliament; whereupon His Majesties Royal Proclamation, is an unparallel'd violation of their Duty.

We the Grand Jury for the Body of the County of Devon, do solemnly protest against such Proceedings; and do humbly and truly Acknowledge His Majesties great care of Us, in checking and discountenancing such a sloyal Proceedings, which tend to the subverting the fundamental Laws, Religion and Government; and the bringing the Kingdom into the Ruine, Confusion, and Disorder, which it lately so miserably suffered under. We therefore, that we might not shew less Zeal for the preservation of His Sacred Person, and for the peace of the Kingdom, which will inevitably be in danger by such mutinous Practices, than other Loyal Courts have done, have thought it our Duty to make this Declaration of our Loyalty and Fidelity to His Majestie, and Obedience and Submission to His Laws.

Signed by the said Grand Jury.
