Copy of a Letter from Lord Viscount Nelson, K. B. Vice-Admiral of the Blue, &c. to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated on board His Majesty's Ship Medusa, off Boulogne, the 4th Instant.

SIR,

THE Enemy's Vessels, Brigs, and Flats, (Lugger rigged,) and a Schooner, Twenty-four in Number, were this Morning, at Daylight, anchored in a Line in Front of the Town of Boulogne; the Wind being favorable for the Bombs to act, I made the Signal for them to weigh, and to throw Shells at the Vessels, but as little as possible to annoy the Town; the Captains placed their Ships in the best possible Position, and in a few Hours Three of the Flats and a Brig were sunk; and in the course of the Morning Six were on Shore, evidently much damaged; at Six in the Evening, being high Water, Five of the Vessels which had been aground, hauled with Difficulty into the Mole, the others remained under Water; I believe the whole of the Vessels would have gone inside the Pier but for Want of Water. What Damage the Enemy have sustained, beyond what we see, is impossible to tell. The whole of this Affair is of no further Consequence, than to shew the Enemy they cannot, with Impunity, come outside their Ports.

The Officers of Artillery threw the Shells with great Skill, and I am sorry to say that Captain Fyers, of the Royal Artillery, is slightly wounded in the Thigh by the bursting of an Enemy's Shell, and Two Seamen are also wounded.

A Flat Gun Vessel is this Moment sunk.

I am, &c. &c. &c.

NELSON and BRONTE.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Mudge, Commander of His Majesty's Ship La Constance, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated at Sea, the 28th July 1801.

SIR,

I Beg you to acquaint my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that at Ten Yesterday Morning, Cape Ortegal South Four Miles, a large Brig and Lugger hove round the Point, tracing the Shore within a Quarter of a Mile, running down before the Wind; relying on the Spanish Charts I had in my Possession, I run so close to the Firgu Rocks, as to oblige them to run through the Inner Channel, both receiving the Broadside as they pass. The Stork, which was beating up, stood into the Bay, and by a well-directed Fire obliged the Brig to run on the Rocks directly under a high Cliff, which was defended by the Militia of the Country, who kept up a constant, but ill-directed Fire. Lieutenant Stupart, of this Ship, with the several Boats of the Stork, &c. gallantly pushed in and hove her off without Loss; she proved to be the El Cantara Privateer, mounting Eighteen Pounders, and Four Sixes, with One Hundred and Ten Men, had left Corunna the Night before, (with the Lugger of Ten Guns, which I also captured,) and had taken nothing.

I am, &c. &c. &c.

PROCLAMATION FOR PARDONING DESERTERS.

War-Office, August 4, 1801.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the King, that there are at this Time several Deserters from the different regular Corps in His Majesty's Land Service, who might be induced to return to their Duty by an Offer of His Majesty's gracious Pardon, and that such an instance of His Royal Clemency would have a due Influence upon their future Behaviour: His Majesty has been graciously pleased to grant his Free Pardon to all Deserters from his regular Land Forces, who shall surrender themselves, on or before the 10th Day of September next, to the Commanding Officer of any Regiment, or to any of the Superintending Field Officers of the Recruiting Service, whose Stations are mentioned in the Margin hereof, or to the Inspector General of the Recruiting Service in the Isle of Wight.

Exeter. Such Deserters, if able-bodied Men, and fit for Service, shall be sent to the Regiments from which they respectively deserted, or be appointed to such Regiments as His Majesty may be pleased to command; and, when so placed, shall not be liable to be claimed by any other Corps to which they may formerly have belonged.

Winchester. And whereas many of the said Deserters may have enlisted in other regular Corps, and are now serving therein, His Majesty is graciously pleased to extend to such Deserters the Benefit of this Pardon; and to direct, that they shall continue to serve in the Corps wherein they now are, without being under the Necessity of declaring themselves Deserters, in order to entitle them to the Benefit of this Pardon; and they shall not be liable, at any future Time, to be claimed by the Regiments in which they formerly served: But this Clause is not to extend to Deserters enlisted by the Corps raising Recruits for General Service; which Deserters are only to be entitled to their Pardon on declaring themselves in the Isle of Wight to be such, and being there transferred to some established Regiment.

Any Soldier who may desert after these His Majesty's gracious Intentions are made public, shall not be included in the above Pardon, but be proceeded against with the utmost Severity.

By His Majesty's Command,

C. YORKE.

Such Officers on Half-Pay as are serving in the Militia, or are otherwise employed under Government, (Officers of the Veterinary and Volunteer Corps excepted, whose Reports are to be made to the Generals commanding in Districts as above mentioned,) are to transmit similar Accounts to the Secretary at War, specifying also the Nature of the Public Situations which they possess.

The General Officers commanding in Districts will make Returns to the Secretary at War of the Names of the Officers who shall report themselves in pursuance of the above Notice. C. YORKE.
