

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday August 23. to Thursday August 26. 1680.

Leopol, July 26.

THe Polish Army continues Encamped at Trembowla, and in the Neighborhood, where Prince Demetrius Wisnowieski the Great General, and the Palatine of Russia, Lieutenant General, have held several Councils of War, to take such resolutions as may be agreeable to the present State of their Affairs. We have Advice that the Army of the Moscovites is separated, and that the Troops are marching to their Quarters, which gives us a suspicion that they have made a Peace with the Turks, or at least that they are certain of doing it; and at the same time we understand, that to animate the Turks against this Crown, Advices have been sent the Grand Vizier, That the Poles have drawn their Troops together, with a design to attack Caminiec.

Naples, July 30. The French Men of War, who have for some time had their Station near the Isle of Procida, Sailed from thence on Monday last, and have not been since seen in these Seas. It was at first believed that they were gone for Sicily, but we since understand that the Sieur du Quesne, who Commands them, had received Orders by a Felucca from Leghorne, to take his course towards the Isles of Majorca and Minorca.

Venice, Aug 10. We have Letters of a very fresh Date from Constantinople. which say, that the Grand Vizier had declined going with the Army into the Field this Summer, for that he apprehended he should in his absence be supplanted by one who is extremely in the Grand Signior's Favour, and no Friend of his.

Presbourg, Aug. 10. There is but small appearance of accommodating Affairs with the Hungarians, who among other things demand that they may have a free and publick Exercise of their Religion, and to that end that all the Churches that have been taken from them be restored, together with their Lands and Goods that have been Confiscated, and that severall Ecclesiasticks, whom they look upon as their declared Enemies, may be removed; which the Emperor will not consent to, and on the other hand seems resolved to subdue them by force; and to that end Count Caprara, who has with him a Body of 10000 Men, is advanced to Erla, which is not far from Count Teckeley's Quarters.

Ratisbonne, Aug. 21. Since the dispatch of the Letters written by the States assembled here to the King of England, and to the French King, the Deputies of the Princes that have suffered by the proceedings of the French, have represented to the Dyet, That they have not done enough in writing those Letters, but that they ought at the same time to take care that the places which lye most exposed to the French, and are in continual danger of being attacked by them, be provided with strong Garrisons, and kept in a Posture of Defence; upon which the Dyet have taken this resolution, That the consideration thereof should be referred to a Committee, and that none but amicable means should be made use of to obtain satisfaction from the French Court for the Princes that have been injured.

Strasbourg, Aug. 23. The Marquis de Louvois is expected the 27th at Metz, and the next day at Bisich, from whence he will come to Saverne, to visit these parts, and to give the necessary Orders about the new Fortifications that are making in many places. The French Troops continue Encamped within three Leagues of this place at Sustelnheim and Harlesheim, being divided by Monsieur de Montclar (who is gone to wait upon the King at Stenay) into two Bodies, the one Commanded by the Marquis de la Roque, and the other by the Sieur de Lan-galerie. This day Count Mansfeld parted from hence for France, whither he is sent by the Emperor to complain of the proceedings of the French Officers, which have been so grievous to several Princes of the Empire. The Emperor raises Men at Frankfort.

Cologne, Aug. 26. Prince William of Furstenberg continues still here, and there is a report that he will have the Character of Ambassador from the French King to the Princes on the Rhine, which we can hardly give any belief to.

Berlin, Aug. 25. The last week past through this place the Bishop of Beauvais, in his way to Poland, whither he goes with the Character of Ambassador Extraordinary from the Crown of France. It is said that he has Instructions to give the King of Poland all the Assistance he can, in order to the securing the Succession of the Crown to his Son. The Elector of Saxony is so well recovered of his distemper as to go abroad. The Plague at Dresden encreases daily, about 260 Persons dying of it weekly. From Vienna they write that the Rebels of Hungary are very strong, and that there is ground enough to fear the Turks joyning with them.

Elzenore, Aug. 20. Two days since came to an Anchor near this place six Frigats, having Commissions from the Elector of Brandenburg, mounted from 18 to 20 Guns, except the Admiral, who has 24 and 300 Men: They have with them one Fireship; and are expecting another, which is to come from the Pilow. The design they are going upon is kept very secret, though the general discourse is; That they are bound for the East-Indies, to establish a Colony there, or rather to seek Booty in those parts, where the Natives Trade in small Vessels of their own.

Hamburg, Aug. 27. These parts are at present very quiet; the Elector of Brandenburg is making very great preparations for his Journey to Magdebourg to receive the Homage of the Magistrate that City, and of the Nobility. In Sueden is forming a very considerable standing providing a good Fleet, that so he may be as confident to his Neighbours as his Predecessors have been. ~~The~~ Velt-Maer Conningmark has been here some days, but intends to leave this place very speedily, to go and reside in his Government of Pomeran. From Copenhagen they write that five Frigates, an advice Yacht, and two Fireships, fitted out by order of the Elector of Brandenburg, were in the Soundt, and that according to the general Report they were going for the East Indies.

Amsterdam, Aug. 30. Complaints having been made by the Merchants to the States, That the Mediterranean Seas have been of late extremely infested by the Turkish Pyrates, to the great endangering of their Trade; and that even those of Argiers do not execute the Treaty lately concluded with them, with that faith and punctuality they ought; the States have thereupon written to the several Admiralties to take care to provide, as far as in them lyes, for the Merchants security in their Commerce, which is so much disturbed by the said Pyrates; and have directed their Consul at Argiers to require of that Government a punctual observance of the said Treaty, and particularly that Strangers Goods and Passengers may be safe on Board of Dutch Ships, a point which the Agierines begin already to dispute. The Ambassador of this State at Madrid, as our Letters from thence tell us, had a long Conference with the Prince of Parma, the new Governor of the Spanish Netherlands, who was preparing for his Journey.

Hague, Aug. 30. The 27th Instant Monsieur d'Ody parted hence for Zealand to be present at the opening of the Assembly of the States of that Province. The Prince and Princess of Orange have left Dieren, and are now at Soestdyke, from whence they will remove to Honslaerdike the middle of the next week, about which time the States of Holland are to meet, and then his Highnesses presence will be necessary. We have an account that the French King parted from Stenay the 24th Instant, on his return home, so that those that could not forbear entertaining a Jealousie of his Journey, are now at ease.

Brussels, Aug. 27. The Duke de Villa Hermosa has deferred his Journey to Flanders till towards the end of this Week; His chief business will be to settle the entertainment of the Troops for the next year on the same foot they are at present, which will be a considerable piece of service. The Dutchess de Villa Hermosa goes from hence on Friday next to Engbien, where she will remain till his Excellencies departure for Spain. The Heer Dyckveldt, late Ambassador from the States General of the United Netherlands in France, is come hither on his return home; and has orders to stay here some time. The French Court is now returning towards Paris, and the fears we were in are past for the present. The City of Mons has presented to the Duke de Villa Hermosa a very fine Suit of Tapistry, representing the Blockade of that City by the Duke of Luxemburg, and the Engagement between the Prince of Orange and that General, which freed them from it; besides which, the Province of Hainault has made his Excellency a Present of 100000 Guilders.

Stenay, Aug. 26. The same day the King arrived here, of which we have already given you an account, he saw the Regiment of Tilladet, and 13 other Regiments of Dragoons drawn up near this place, under the Command of the Marquis de Boufflers, Collon General of the Dragoons. The 22 the King went to Mourmery, and returned hither again in the Evening. The 24th the Court removed from hence to Bezaney, and from thence to Vons, and at the same time the Marquis de Louvois parted for Verdun, to visit the Fortifications of that place, and from thence he will go for Lorraine and Alsace, to do the like there.

Paris, Aug. 31. Yesterday, their Majesties (who parted from Stenay the 24th Instant, Lodged that night at Vons, the next at Chateau Porcein, the 28 at Villers Coteret, and the 29th at Dammartin) arrived at Versailles, from whence it's believed they will suddenly remove to St. Germain. We are told that the differences between this Court and that of Rome, concerning the Regality, are in a likely way of being composed, the Pope having written the King a Letter, in Answer to the last he received from him, in Terms very much differing from the former three that had been sent hither upon the same Subject. And at Rome the Duke d'Essee, the Kings Ambassador, has had several meetings with the Cardinals appointed to Treat with him about this affair, whom he found in a disposition to give the King all reasonable satisfaction.

Plymouth, Aug. 20. This morning sailed the Norwich Frigate, Captain Haywood Commander, with several Merchant Ships under his Convoy, bound for the West-Indies. This morning likewise came in here the Pearle, Captain Williams, who was by the last Storm put up as high as Portland; to morrow he will sail again to Ciutise.

Portsmouth, Aug. 22. On Friday Sailed from Spithead His Majesties Ship the Constant Warwick to the Westward.

Whitehall, Aug. 22. This morning the Parliament met at Westminster, and was Prorogued by Commission till the 21 of October next.

Advertisements.

M. Tullii Ciceronis Opera omnia quæ extant ex sola ferè Codd; M s. s. fide emendata, Studio atq; Industria Jans Guilmis, & Jans Gruveri, additis Notis & Indicibus accuratissimè confectis secundum Exemplar Hamburgense. In hac Editione Londinensi annotata omnia Prius in Finem rejecta sunt cuicque Pagina subjiuntur In 2 Vol. Fol.

This Work is now Proposed to Subscription at half the Price of the Hamburg Edition, viz. 30 s. whereof 10 s. to be paid down, and 20 s. more at the delivery. The Body of the Book is Finished, and the ten Indices are Printing: the whole will be ready to be delivered in Michaelmas Term next, and for satisfaction of any persons that it is so forward, the Book, excepting the Indices, may be seen ready Printed at the places under-written, and at Oxford and Cambridge, and many other places for further convenience, which are directed to in the Proposals at large. S. Mead in Little Britain, F. Duxbury, T. Dring at the Harrow in Fleet Street, B. Took at the Ship in St. Pauls Church-yard, and T. Sawbridge at the White Flower-de-Luces in Little Britain.

Lost between seven and eight in the Evening, on the 5th Instant, belonging to a Gentleman of Oxford, a Greyhound Dog and Bitch, both black, full of white spots, and marked with a hot Iron in the neck. Whoever gives notice of them to Mr. William Gilflwer, Brother of Christopher College in Oxford, or to Mr. Charles Poffe heretofore at the Stump upon London-Bridge, shall have 20 s. Reward.