

providing a good Fleet, that so he may be as confident to his Neighbours as his Predecessors have been. ~~The~~ Velt-Maerth Conningmark has been here some days, but intends to leave this place very speedily, to go and reside in his Government of Pomeran. From Copenhagen they write that five Frigates, an advice Yacht, and two Fireships, fitted out by order of the Elector of Brandenburg, were in the Soundt, and that according to the general Report they were going for the East Indies.

Amsterdam, Aug. 30. Complaints having been made by the Merchants to the States, That the Mediterranean Seas have been of late extremely infested by the Turkish Pyrates, to the great endangering of their Trade; and that even those of Argiers do not execute the Treaty lately concluded with them, with that faith and punctuality they ought; the States have thereupon written to the several Admiralties to take care to provide, as far as in them lyes, for the Merchants security in their Commerce, which is so much disturbed by the said Pyrates; and have directed their Consul at Argiers to require of that Government a punctual observance of the said Treaty, and particularly that Strangers Goods and Passengers may be safe on Board of Dutch Ships, a point which the Agierines begin already to dispute. The Ambassador of this State at Madrid, as our Letters from thence tell us, had a long Conference with the Prince of Parma, the new Governor of the Spanish Netherlands, who was preparing for his Journey.

Hague, Aug. 30. The 27th Instant Monsieur d'Ody parted hence for Zealand to be present at the opening of the Assembly of the States of that Province. The Prince and Princess of Orange have left Dieren, and are now at Soestdyke, from whence they will remove to Honslaerdike the middle of the next week, about which time the States of Holland are to meet, and then his Highnesses presence will be necessary. We have an account that the French King parted from Stenay the 24th Instant, on his return home, so that those that could not forbear entertaining a Jealousie of his Journey, are now at ease.

Brussels, Aug. 27. The Duke de Villa Hermosa has deferred his Journey to Flanders till towards the end of this Week; His chief business will be to settle the entertainment of the Troops for the next year on the same foot they are at present, which will be a considerable piece of service. The Dutchess de Villa Hermosa goes from hence on Friday next to Engbien, where she will remain till his Excellencies departure for Spain. The Heer Dyckveldt, late Ambassador from the States General of the United Netherlands in France, is come hither on his return home; and has orders to stay here some time. The French Court is now returning towards Paris, and the fears we were in are past for the present. The City of Mons has presented to the Duke de Villa Hermosa a very fine Suit of Tapistry, representing the Blockade of that City by the Duke of Luxemburg, and the Engagement between the Prince of Orange and that General, which freed them from it; besides which, the Province of Hainault has made his Excellency a Present of 100000 Guilders.

Stenay, Aug. 26. The same day the King arrived here, of which we have already given you an account, he saw the Regiment of Tilladet, and 13 other Regiments of Dragoons drawn up near this place, under the Command of the Marquis de Boufflers, Collon General of the Dragoons. The 22 the King went to Mourmely, and returned hither again in the Evening. The 24th the Court removed from hence to Bezaney, and from thence to Vons, and at the same time the Marquis de Louvois parted for Verdun, to visit the Fortifications of that place, and from thence he will go for Lorraine and Alsace, to do the like there.

Paris, Aug. 31. Yesterday, their Majesties (who parted from Stenay the 24th Instant, Lodged that night at Vons, the next at Chateau Porcein, the 28 at Villers Coteret, and the 29th at Dammartin) arrived at Versailles, from whence it's believed they will suddenly remove to St. Germain. We are told that the differences between this Court and that of Rome, concerning the Regality, are in a likely way of being composed, the Pope having written the King a Letter, in Answer to the last he received from him, in Terms very much differing from the former three that had been sent hither upon the same Subject. And at Rome the Duke d'Essee, the Kings Ambassador, has had several meetings with the Cardinals appointed to Treat with him about this affair, whom he found in a disposition to give the King all reasonable satisfaction.

Plymouth, Aug. 20. This morning sailed the Norwich Frigate, Captain Haywood Commander, with several Merchant Ships under his Convoy, bound for the West-Indies. This morning likewise came in here the Pearle, Captain Williams, who was by the last Storm put up as high as Portland; to morrow he will sail again to Ciutise.

Portsmouth, Aug. 22. On Friday Sailed from Spithead His Majesties Ship the Constant Warwick to the Westward.

Whitehall, Aug. 22. This morning the Parliament met at Westminster, and was Prorogued by Commission till the 21 of October next.
