By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Thirty-seventh Year of Our Reign, intituled "An Act to shorten the Time now required for giving Notice of the Royal Intention of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, that the Parliament shall meet and be holden for the Dispatch of Business, and more effectually to provide for the Meeting of Parliament in the Case of a Demise of the Crown;" and reciting that it is expedient to shorten the Time required for giving Notice of the Royal Intention of Us, Our Heirs, or Successors, that the Parliament should meet and be holden for the Dispatch of Business; it is enacted, that whenever We shall be pleased, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue Our Royal Proclamation, giving Notice of Our Royal Intention that Parliament shall meet and be holden for the Dispatch of Business, on any Day, being not less than Fourteen Days from the Date of such Proclamation, the same shall be a full and sufficient Notice to all Persons whatever of such Our Royal Intention; and the Parliament shall thereby stand prorogued to the Day and Place therein-declared. And forasmuch as, for certain Causes, We are desirous that Our Parliament which now stands prorogued to Thursday the Twenty-second Day of this instant October, without Notice having been given requiring the same then to meet for the Dispatch of Business, should meet on an early Day thereafter for the Dispatch thereof, We, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, do, by this Our Royal Proclamation, publish and declare Our Royal Will and Intention, that Our said Parliament shall stand prorogued to, and shall meet and be holden on Thursday the Twenty-ninth Day of this instant October, for the Dispatch of divers weighty and important Affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights Citizens, and Burgessees, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required to give Attendance accordingly at Westminster, on the said Twenty-ninth Day of this present Month of October.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's House the Sixth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and one, in the Forty first Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.
