By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Thirty-seventh Year of Our Reign, intituled "An Act to shorten the Time now required for giving Notice of the Royal Intention of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, that the Parliament shall meet and be holden for the Dispatch of Business, and more effectually to provide for the Meeting of Parliament in the Case of a Demise of the Crown;" and reciting that it is expedient to shorten the Time required for giving Notice of the Royal Intention of Us, Our Heirs, or Successors, that the Parliament should meet and be holden for the Dispatch of Business; it is enacted, that whenever We shall be pleased, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue Our Royal Proclamation, giving Notice of Our Royal Intention that Parliament shall meet and be holden for the Dispatch of Business, on any Day, being not less than Fourteen Days from the Date of such Proclamation, the same shall be a full and sufficient Notice to all Persons whatever of such Our Royal Intention; and the Parliament shall thereby stand prorogued to the Day and Place therein-declared.
