By the KING.
A PROCLAMATION.
GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Thirty-seventh Year of Our Reign, intituled "An Act to shorten the Time now required for giving Notice of the Royal Intention of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, that the Parliament shall meet and be holden for the Dispatch of Business, and more effectually to provide for the Meeting of Parliament in the Case of a Demise of the Crown;" and reciting that it is expedient to shorten the Time required for giving Notice of the Royal Intention of Us, Our Heirs, or Successors, that the Parliament should meet and be holden for the Dispatch of Business; it is enacted, that whenever We shall be pleased, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue Our Royal Proclamation, giving Notice of Our Royal Intention that Parliament shall meet and be holden for the Dispatch of Business, on any Day, being not less than Fourteen Days from the Date of such Proclamation, the same shall be a full and sufficient Notice to all Persons whatever of such Our Royal Intention; and the Parliament shall thereby stand prorogued to the Day and Place therein-declared. And forasmuch as, for certain Causes, We are desirous that Our Parliament which now stands prorogued to Thursday the Twenty-second Day of this instant October, without Notice having been given requiring the same then to meet for the Dispatch of Business, should meet on an early Day thereafter for the Dispatch thereof, We, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, do, by this Our Royal Proclamation, publish and declare Our Royal Will and Intention, that Our said Parliament shall stand prorogued to, and shall meet and be holden on Thursday the Twenty-ninth Day of this instant October, for the Dispatch of divers weighty and important Affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required to give Attendance accordingly at Westminster, on the said Twenty-ninth Day of this present Month of October.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's House the Sixth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and one, in the Forty-first Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION,
Declaring the Cessation of Arms, as well by Sea as Land, agreed upon between His Majesty and the French Republic; and enjoining the Observance thereof.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS Preliminaries for restoring Peace between Us and the French Republic were signed at London on the First Day of this instant October, by the Plenipotentiary of Us, and by the Plenipotentiary of the French Republic: And whereas, for the putting an End to the Calamities of War, as soon and as far as may be possible, it hath been agreed between Us, and the French Republic, as follows; that is to say, That as soon as the Preliminaries shall be signed and ratified, Friendship should be established between Us and the French Republic, by Sea and Land, in all Parts of the World, and that all Hostilities should cease immediately; and in order to prevent all Causes of Complaint and Dispute which might arise on account of Prizes which might be made at Sea, after the Signature of the Preliminary Articles, it has been also reciprocally agreed, That the Vessels and Effects which might be taken in the British Channel and in the North Seas, after the Space of Twelve Days, to be computed from the Exchange of the Ratifications of the Preliminary Articles, should be restored on each Side; That the Term should be One Month from the British Channel and the North Seas as far as the Canary Islands inclusively, whether in the Ocean or in the Mediterranean; Two Months from the said Canary Islands, as far as the Equator; and lastly, Five Months in all other Parts of the World, without any Exception, or any more particular Description of Time or Place: And whereas the Ratifications of the said Preliminary Articles between Us and the French Republic were exchanged by the respective Plenipotentiaries of Us, and of the French Republic, on the Tenth Day of this instant October, from which Day the several Terms above-mentioned of Twelve Days, of One Month, of Two Months, and Five Months, are to be computed: And whereas it is Our Royal Will and Pleasure, That the Cessation of Hostilities between Us and the French Republic should be agreeable to the several Epochs fixed between Us and the French Republic, We have thought fit, by and with the Advice of our Privy Council, to notify the same to all Our loving Subjects; and We do declare, That Our Royal Will and Pleasure is, and We do hereby strictly charge and command all Our Officers both at Sea and Land, and all other Our Subjects whatsoever, to forbear all Acts of Hostility, either by Sea or Land, against the French Republic, and their Allies, their Vassals or Subjects, from and after the respective Times above-mentioned, and under the Penalty of incurring Our highest Displeasure.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, the Twelfth Day of this instant October, in the Forty-first Year of Our Reign, and in the Year of Our Lord One thousand eight hundred and one.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th of October 1801,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to declare and order, that, for the Convenience and Security of the Commerce of His loving Subjects, during the Cessation of Arms notified by His Royal Proclamation of this Day's Date, Passes will be delivered, as soon as they can be interchanged, to such of His Subjects as shall desire the same, for their Ships, Goods, and Merchandizes, and Effects, they duly observing the several Acts of Parliament which are or may be in Force. W. Fawkeners.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th of October 1801,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHIEREAS His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council, of the Twenty-first of May last, to direct that the several Bounties therein mentioned, should continue to be paid to every Able and Ordinary Seaman, and Able-bodied Landman, who should voluntarily enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Navy, on or before the Thirty-first Day of this instant October; and also that the Reward therein mentioned for discovering Able and Ordinary Seamen, who should secrete themselves, should likewise continue to be paid to any Person who should discover such Seamen, so that such Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service: His Majesty having this Day taken the said Order into consideration, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to declare, That the said Bounties and Reward shall from henceforth cease, determine; and be no longer paid or payable, any Thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding: Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice and govern themselves accordingly. W. Fawkeners.

TO MERCHANTS, FACTORS, CAPTAINS of SHIPS, &c. &c. &c.

GENTLEMEN.

I Have received a great Variety of Applications from Merchants and others concerned in Foreign Trade, complaining of the Difficulty they find in procuring the Genuine Dr. Anderson's Scots Pills; several of your Correspondents abroad have repeatedly sent to my Warehouse, No. 165, Strand, Parts of the printed Bills, to ascertain whether they were authentic.

To avoid these Inconveniences in future, I trouble you with this Letter, for the express Purpose of stating the Two distinct Criteria to ascertain the Genuine Pills from dangerous Counterfeit:

1st. My Name, B. H. Inglis, No. 165, Strand, opposite the New Church, is engraved in, and forms a Part of the Stamp, by Order of the Commissioners.

2^d. B. H. Inglis is signed at the Bottom of the printed Bills.

To counterfeit the First is a capital Felony under the Stamp Acts.

The Second is punishable both by Indictment and Action at Law for Damages.

An Attention to either of these Two Cautions must prevent Counterfeits, as I am determined to prosecute to the utmost Rigour all Persons who commit either of these Forgeries. I am, Gentlemen,

Your most obedient Servant,

B. H. INGLIS.

Truro, October 10, 1801.
