AT the Court at the Queen's-House, the 12th of December 1801,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and three, and amend an Act of the Thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty for prohibiting the Exportation, and permitting the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty, and to continue for the same Period, an Act of the last Session of Parliament for prohibiting the Exportation from Ireland of Corn, or Potatoes, or other Provisions, and for permitting the Importation into Ireland of Corn, Fish, and Provisions without Payment of Duty;" It is, amongst other Things enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, his Heirs, and Successors, and he and they is and are thereby authorised, with the Advice of his or their Privy Council, during the Continuance of the said Act, from Time to Time, when, and as often as the same shall be judged expedient, to prohibit generally, or under and subject to such Restrictions, Regulations, and Provisions, as shall be specified by His said Majesty in any Order in Council, the Exportation from any Part of the United Kingdom of any Articles of Provision; and in like Manner to recall such Prohibition, either in Part or in the Whole, or to make any new Regulations, Restrictions, and Provisions relating thereto, as Circumstances may require, any Thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament, to the contrary thereof notwithstanding; His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers given by the said Act, is pleased to order, (and it is hereby ordered,) that for and during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the Date of this Order, no Person or Persons whatsoever shall export, or shall load or lay on board any Ship or Vessel, with the Intent to export from any Port or Place of Great Britain, any of the following Articles, viz. Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lamb, Swine, Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, Lamb, whether salted or otherwise, or any Beans, Butter, Onions, or Pulse of any Sort, or any Barley-hulled, or Pearl-Barley: But it is His Majesty's Pleasure that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the Exportation or carrying out of such and so much of any of the said Articles as shall be necessary to be carried in any Ship or Vessel on its Voyage out and Home for the Sustainance, Diet, and Support of the Commander, Master, Mariners, Passengers, and others on board such Ship or Vessel, or for the Use and Sustainance of the Cattle, Live Stock, or other Animals on board such Ship or Vessel; or for the necessary victualling or providing any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or other Ships and Vessels in His Majesty's Service, or for the necessary victualling or providing any of His Majesty's Forces, Forts, or Garrisons; nor to prohibit at any Time the Exportation of such and so much of any of the said Articles as may be necessary for the Supply of the British Forts, Castles, or Factories in Africa, or of British Ships trading upon that Coast, which have usually been supplied with the same from Great Britain; nor to prohibit the Exportation by the East India Company, or any Agent employed by them, of any of the said Articles for the necessary Supply of their Garrisons at St. Helena, Bombay, and Bencoolen, or the necessary Use of the Ships belonging to the said Company; nor to prohibit the Exportation to the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, or to any of His Majesty's Colonies, Islands, or Plantations in America, or the West Indies, or to the Town or Port of Gibraltar, for the necessary Use of the Inhabitants of the same respectively, in such Quantities as shall be judged to be necessary by the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, upon Application to be made from Time to Time, and under Licences to be granted by their Lordships; or without such Licences, provided Proof shall be made to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, that the Articles so to be exported as aforesaid, are not of British Growth, Produce, or Manufacture:

And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prohibit the Exportation from any Port of Great Britain to any Port of Ireland, of any of the Articles above-mentioned, provided the Persons so exporting the same shall enter into Bonds, with sufficient Sureties, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, for the due landing thereof in the Ports in Ireland for which the same shall be respectively cleared out, and shall also comply with all other Conditions which now are or hereafter may be required by Law in respect to such Exportation:

And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prohibit, at any Time, any Person or Persons from shipping or putting on board any of the Articles above-mentioned, to be carried from any Port, Creek, or Member, or Part of Great Britain, to any other Port, Creek, or Member, or Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, having such or the like Coast-Sufferance, Cocquet, or other Coast-Dispatch, for that Purpose, and on such and the like Security being given for the landing and discharging the same as now is or hereafter may be by any Law or Laws, Act or Acts required in Relation to the carrying Coastwise any Corn or other Articles, or any Goods, Wares, and Merchandize:—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly. Steph. Cottrell.

At the Court at the Queen's House, the 12th of December 1801,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty by an Act, passed in the Thirty-ninth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled "An Act for enabling His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation and permit the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty, to continue in Force until Six Weeks from the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament," (which Act, by subsequent Acts, has been further continued until Forty Days after the Commencement of the present Session of Parliament,) His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Tenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred, to order, (and it was thereby ordered,) That the Prohibition contained in an Order made, by His Majesty in Council, on the Sixteenth Day of October One thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, on the Exportation, or the loading or laying on board any Ship or Vessel with Intent to export, from any Port or Place of Great Britain, any Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Pease, Beans, Oats, or any Meal or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit, or Malt made thereof, or any Indian Corn or Maize, or Meal or Flour made thereto, should be and continue in Force until the Expiration of Forty Days after the Commencement of the first Session of Parliament that should be begun and holden after the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and one; excepting nevertheless out of such Prohibition, any Foreign Corn, or Meal or Flour that should have been imported and warehoused in the Manner and under the Conditions mentioned in an Act, passed in the Thirty first Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled "An Act for regulating the Importation and Exportation of Corn; and the Payment of the Duty on Foreign Corn imported, and of the Bounty on British Corn exported," and should not have been taken out of such Warehouse for Home Consumption; and with Exception also as to the carrying Coastwise or carrying out, or the Exportation of the several Sorts of Corn, or other Articles as aforesaid, from Great Britain, for any of the Purposes mentioned in the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty was also pleased by His said Order in Council of the Tenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred, to continue in like Manner, and for the like Term, the Liberty to import into any Port or Place of Great Britain any Foreign Corn, or other Articles as aforesaid, in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever; and also to take out of Warehouse, for Home Consumption, any such Foreign Corn, or other Articles as aforesaid, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever; and likewise the Liberty to import into any Port or Place of Great Britain, in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever, any Beans called Kidney or French Beans, Tares, Lentiles, Calavances, and all other Sorts of Pulse; and also Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, and Swine; Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, and Lamb, whether salted or otherwise; Bacon, Hams, Tongues, Butter, Cheese, Potatoes, Rice, Sago, Sago-Powder, Tapioca, Vermicelli, Millet-Seed, Poultry, Fowls,

Eggs, Game, and Sour Crout; Provided that a due Entry should be made of all such Articles as aforesaid, that should be so imported, with the proper Officer of the Customs at the Port where the same should be imported, under the Penalties and Forfeitures in the said Act mentioned:

And whereas, by an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and three, and amend an Act of the Thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty, and to continue, for the same Period, an Act of the last Session of Parliament, for prohibiting the Exportation from Ireland of Corn or Potatoes, or other Provisions, and for permitting the Importation into Ireland of Corn, Fish, and Provisions without Payment of Duty;" the said Act, passed in the Thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and the subsequent Acts continuing the same, are further continued until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and three:

His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and pursuant to the Powers so vested in His Majesty, to order, and it is hereby ordered, That the said Prohibition to export Corn, or any of the Articles as aforesaid, and the said Permission to import and take out of Warehouse Foreign Corn and other Articles as aforesaid, and likewise to import certain other Articles of Provision, as expressed in the said Order bearing Date the Tenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred, with every Exception, Proviso, Rule, Regulation, and Restriction specified in the said Order respecting such Exportation, Importation, or taking out of Warehouse, and all Matters and Things in the said Order contained shall, be, and continue in Force for and during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the Date of this Order:—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

Steph. Cottrell.

Westminster, December 12, 1801.

THIS Day the Lords being met, a Message was sent to the Honorable House of Commons by Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorized by virtue of His Majesty's Commission for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate Attendance of this Honorable House in the House of Peers to bear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High-Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to HENRY NETTLESHIP, Clerk of the Grocers Company.

London, December 10, 1801.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of His Majesty's Ship Caroline, William Bowen, Esq; Commander, that they will be paid on board at Portsmouth, their Shares of the following Recaptures in January 1799, in Company, or by Agreement, with the Flora, Captain Middleton, viz.

Nymph, Brig; Six Sisters, Ship; Drie Vrienden, Hoy.

And the Recalls will be at No. 22, Arundel-Street, on the first Thursday monthly. James Sykes, Agent.

Notice is hereby given, that an Account will be delivered into the Registry of the High Court of Admiralty of the Proceeds of the Property captured at the Cape of Good Hope, upon, and subsequent to the 15th September 1795, received by us as Attornies to the Two Commanders in Chief General Sir Alured Clarke, K.B. and Admiral Lord Keith, K. B. employed on that Expedition, to whom the same has been given in Trust by His Majesty for Payment and Distribution to the Captors. Alexander Davison, John Jackson.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of His Majesty's Ship Superb, Richard Godwin Keats, Esq; Captain, who were actually on board on the 17th April 1801, at the Capture of the Santa Teresa, and La Virgin del Rosario, that they will be paid their respective Shares of the Proceeds of the said Captures, at No. 10, John Street, in the Adelphi, on Wednesday the 16th Day of December 1801; and the Shares not then demanded will be recalled at the same Place, the first Monday in every Month for Three Years to come. Bea. Tucker, Acting Agent.

To the CAPTORS present at the Surrender of the Cape of Good Hope on the 16th of September 1795.

THE King, by His Majesty's Sign Manual, having been graciously pleased to grant the Proceeds of the Property captured at the Cape of Good Hope to General Sir Alured Clarke, K. B. and Admiral Lord Keith, K. B. in Trust, to be by them paid and distributed to the individual Captors, according to the Proportions described upon the said Royal Grant, and the Receipt of the said Money being immediately expected;

Notice is therefore hereby given, that all Persons entitled to share in the Property captured, as above, upon or subsequent to the 15th September 1795, will be paid their respective Proportions at the following Places, and in the Order and Mode hereafter described:

Those entitled to share for the Army will be paid at No. 21, Millbank-Street, Westminster:

Those entitled for the Navy and the India Ships at No. 36, Broad-Street Buildings, London.

The said Payments will commence on Wednesday the 13th and Thursday the 14th Day of January 1802, to the Non-commissioned Officers and Privates of the Army, and to the Fourth and Fifth Classes of the Seamen, but only to the Parties themselves, as no Power of Attorney will be then paid for either of these Persons or Classes, nor until the Expiration of Three Months after the first Day of Payment, unless such Power be presented by a Wife or other near Relation.

The Payments to the General, Flag, and Field Officers, and to the Captains, Lieutenants, and Warrant Officers, will commence on Friday the 15th January 1802, to themselves or their Attornies legally authorised.

All Sums remaining unpaid will be recalled at the above Places on every Wednesday and Thursday for the first Three Months, and then on the last Wednesday for the Army, and first Wednesday for the Navy, in every Month until the Expiration of Three Years from the first Day of Payment.

No Order or Power will be paid to for the Privates and Seamen of the Fourth and Fifth Classes which are not conformable to or correspondent with the Act relative to the Payment of Seamen's and Marines' Wages and Prize-Money, and all Agents are requested to send a Week previous to the Times of Payment, Lists of those for whom they intend to claim, mentioning the Authorities in their Possession, and which are requested also to be left with the said Lists.
