From Tuesday December 29, 1801, to Saturday January 2, 1802.

Downing-Street, January 2, 1802.

A DISPATCH from the Resident of the Honorable East India Company at Amboyna, dated 6th July 1801, of which the following is an Extract, has been received by the Court of Directors of the East India Company, and communicated to the Right Honorable Lord Hobart, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

I Do myself the Honor to congratulate your Lordship, in Council, on the important Event of the Surrender of Ternate to the British Arms, which was delivered over, by Capitulation, to Colonel Burr on the 21st Ultimo.

The Dutch Governor made a most resolute Resistance, having defended the Place with uncommon Firmness for Fifty-two Days, though, I am sorry to add, at the Expence of the poor Inhabitants, who perished, by Famine, from Ten to Twenty a Day, from our strong Blockade by Sea and Land.

During this excellent Disposition of our Military and Marine Forces, the latter under the Command of that gallant Officer Captain Hages, the annual Supplies for the Enemy were intercepted through his Vigilance, which certainly contributed, in a high Degree, to the ultimate Success of the Enterprize. The Value of the captured Property taken by the Squadron amounts to a Lack and Fifty Thousand Dollars.

The Difficulties the Honorable Company's Forces by Sea and Land had to encounter on this arduous Service, and the Spirit and Intrepidity which they manifested during a Siege of nearly Two Months, do them infinite Credit, and have seldom or ever been exceeded in this Part of the Globe. The Accounts we have received of the Strength of Fort Orange, and its numerous detached Batteries, proved exceedingly erroneous, in so much that Colonel Burr declares the Place to be extremely strong by Nature, and most excellently improved by Art, with a powerful Garrison, and so well provided with Arms and Ammunition, as to throw Difficulties in the Way of our Force, which were as distressing as unexpected; they, however, persevered and kept their Ground with so much Bravery and Resolution as to compel the Enemy to surrender their different strong Holds, one after the others, until the principal Fort and Town were so completely blockaded both by Sea and Land, and so reduced by Famine, as to make them sue for Conditions, which, I understand, are very satisfactory.

I am happy to inform your Lordship, in Council, that, arduous as this Service was, and much as our Forces were exposed to the repeated Attacks of the Enemy, the Loss of Killed and Wounded of the Troops does not amount to above Nine or Ten; that of the Marine does not exceed Twelve Seamen.

Whitehall, December 28, 1801.

The King has been pleased to grant unto David Lindo Abarbanel, of Lambeth, in the County of Surrey, Gentleman, His Royal Licence and Authority, that he may use the Surname of Abarbanel before that of Lindo, and henceforward write himself David Abarbanel Lindo:

And also to order that this His Majesty's Concession and Declaration be registered in His College of Arms.
