Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the 15th Day of December last, about Eleven o'Clock at Night, as Two Boats, manned with the Crews of the Tartar and Lively Cutters, in the Service of the Customs, were out upon Duty in the Downs, and proceeding along Shore they discovered a Lugger, to which they gave Chace, and on their nearing her, the People on board the Lugger ordered the Crew of the Tartar's and Lively's Boats to keep off, and threatened to fire into them and sink and destroy them, and immediately fired one Musket; That notwithstanding this Resistance the Crews of the Tartar's and Lively's Boats succeeded in boarding the said Lugger, and drove the Crew, consisting of Twenty-two Men, overboard, in effecting which, one of the Crew of the Tartar was wounded and another thrown overboard; that the said Lugger got aground on the Beach, near the Town of Deal, and she proved to be the Ned of Deal, laden with a large Quantity of smuggled Goods, a great Part of which they seized and secured, and sent on board the Tartar Cutter; that in about an Hour afterwards as the Crews of the said Tartar's and Lively's Boats were endeavouring to heave the said Lugger off they were attacked by a great Number of Smugglers who came down upon the Beach armed with Muskets, within Half Pistol-Shot of them, and kept up a constant Fire of Musketry, which the Crew of the Tartar's and Lively's Boats returned for some Time, when finding it impossible to get the Lugger off and being overpowered by superior Numbers, they quitted her, the Smugglers on the Beach still continuing to fire upon them until they got out of Sight; that in the Course of this Attack Two of the Crew of the Lively's Boat were wounded, one of them dangerously; that some Time after this the Smugglers rescued and carried off the said Lugger, and the same has not since been heard of;

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in this Felony and Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One or more of the said Offenders who shall discover hi: or their Accomplice or Accomplices, so that any One or more of them may be apprehended.

PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby offer a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Person or Persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause and procure to be discovered and apprehended any One or more of the said Offenders, to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs, upon Conviction.

By Order of the Commissioner,

H. Hutson, pro Secretary.

Whitehall, March 2, 1802.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the 17th Day of December last, about Seven o'Clock in the Evening, as Mr. James Ireland, Mate of the Tartar Cutter, in the Service of the Cust-zoms, stationed at the Port of Dover, was upon Duty in the Six-Oared Boat, off Walmer, together with some of the Crew of the said Cutter, they fell in with a Smuggling Lugger, and followed her to the Town of Deal, where she anchored, and the Officer then boarded her:—That as the said Officer and his Men were in the act of getting the said Lugger off, a great Number of Boats full of Men, to the Amount of One Hundred and Fifty or more, were launched from the Shore of Deal, and came along side of the said Smuggling Lugger, and, with threatening Oaths, struck the said Officer and his Boat's Crew several Times, and at last compelled them to leave the said Lugger through Fear of being killed by the Smugglers, one of whom took a Pistol out of one of the Hands of the Tartar's Boatmen, and presented it to him, but it flashed in the Pan and missed Fire;

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above Felony and Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One or more of the said Offenders, who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, or they may be apprehended.

PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby promise a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause and procure to be discovered and apprehended, any One or more of the said Offenders, to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs upon Conviction.

By Order of the Commissioners,

Broadley and Company,) was feloniously broken open by some Persons, who, having secured the Cashier, by tying him in Bed, obtained by Threats, the Keys of the Bank and Iron Chest, and stole therefrom Cash, Bank of England Bills, and other Bills, and Country Bank Notes, to a considerable Amount, the Property of the said R. C. Broadley and Company.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Burglary above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who first broke open and entered the said Dwelling-House,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.
