

zoms, stationed at the Port of Dover, was upon Duty in the Six-Oared Boat, off Walmer, together with some of the Crew of the said Cutter, they fell in with a Smuggling Lugger, and followed her to the Town of Deal, where she anchored, and the Officer then boarded her:—That as the said Officer and his Men were in the act of getting the said Lugger off, a great Number of Boats full of Men, to the Amount of One Hundred and Fifty or more, were launched from the Shore of Deal, and came along side of the said Smuggling Lugger, and, with threatening Oaths, struck the said Officer and his Boat's Crew several Times, and at last compelled them to leave the said Lugger through Fear of being killed by the Smugglers, one of whom took a Pistol out of one of the Hands of the Tartar's Boatmen, and presented it to him, but it flashed in the Pan and missed Fire;

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above Felony and Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One or more of the said Offenders, who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, or they may be apprehended.

PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby promise a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause and procure to be discovered and apprehended, any One or more of the said Offenders, to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs upon Conviction.

By Order of the Commissioners,

H. Hutson, pro Secretary.

Whitehall, March 9, 1802.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the Night of the 4th, or the Morning of the 5th Instant, the House of Mr. F. Taylor, of New Malton, Yorkshire, (the Cashier in the Bank of R. C. Broadley and Company,) was feloniously broken open by some Persons, who, having secured the Cashier, by tying him in Bed, obtained by Threats, the Keys of the Bank and Iron Chest, and stole therefrom Cash, Bank of England Bills, and other Bills, and Country Bank Notes, to a considerable Amount, the Property of the said R. C. Broadley and Company.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Burglary above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who first broke open and entered the said Dwelling-House,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid upon the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by

R. C. Broadley, Esq; and Co.
