Whitehall, March 9, 1802.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the Night of the 4th, or the Morning of the 5th Instant, the House of Mr. F. Taylor, of New Malton, Yorkshire, (the Cashier in the Bank of R. C. Broadley and Company,) was feloniously broken open by some Persons, who, having secured the Cashier, by tying him in Bed, obtained by Threats, the Keys of the Bank and Iron Chest, and stole therefrom Cash, Bank of England Bills, and other Bills, and Country Bank Notes, to a considerable Amount, the Property of the said R. C. Broadley and Company.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Burglary above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who first broke open and entered the said Dwelling-House,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid upon the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by

R. C. Broadley, Esq; and Co.

Whitehall, March 20, 1802.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the Night of Thursday the 4th Day of February last, the Dog Kennel, belonging to Dame Dorothy Mill, at Arlingham, in the County of Gloucesters, was maliciously set on fire by some Person or Persons unknown, whereby the same was totally destroyed, and that on the same, or following Night, Part of the Sea Bank or Wall, in a Field called Horscroft Field, in the said Parish of Arlingham, belonging to her was unlawfully and maliciously cut down by some Person or Persons unknown, whereby a valuable Tract of Land of several Hundred Acres, was in Danger of being overflowed and greatly damaged;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above Felonies and Outrages, or either of them, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of such Persons (except the Person who actually set fire to the said Dog Kennel,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Dame Dorothy Mill, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, of the setting fire to the said Dog Kennel, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

Navy-Office, March 8, 1802.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Tuesday the 30th of this Month, at One o'Clock, they will be ready to treat with such Persons as may be willing to supply His Majesty's Yards at Gbatham and Sheerness with

Tiles and Sand, on a standing Contract, to commence on the 26th of next Month.

A Form of the Tender may be seen at this Office.

No Tender will be received after Twelve o'Clock on the Day of Treaty, nor any noticed, unless the Party, or an Agent for him, attends.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.
