AT the Court at St. James's, the 21st of April 1802,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS Day the Right Honorable Edward Lord Ellenborough, Lord Chief Justice of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

Extract of a Letter from His Excellency Lord St. Helen's to the Right Honorable Lord Hawkebury, dated Moscow, October 28, 1801.

I Have the Honor to transmit to your Lordship, by this Messenger, the Additional Articles to the Convention of the 17/5th June, which have been signed by myself and the Plenipotentiaries of this Crown; together with an Act which I have also concluded with the Danish Plenipotentiary, containing the Accession of that Court to the said Convention and Additional Articles, and its Acceptance on the Part of His Majesty.

Extract of a Letter from His Excellency Lord St. Helen's to the Right Honorable Lord Hawkebury, dated Petersburg, April 2, 1802.

I Have the Satisfaction of transmitting to your Lordship the Swedish Act of Accession to the Convention of the 17/5th June 1801, which was signed (with its Duplicate) on the 30th past, by myself, and the Baron de Stedingk; and Instruments of a like Tenor were at the same Time interchanged between that Minister and the Plenipotentiaries of His Imperial Majesty. I have moreover the Satisfaction of being enabled to assure your Lordship, that the Swedish Ambassador has been distinctly informed by the Count de Kotschoubey, that as the Motives which had occasioned the late Revival of the System of the Armed Neutrality were now happily done away, that System is considered by this Court as completely annulled and abandoned, not only as a general Code of Maritime Law, but even in its more limited Meaning of a specifick Engagement between Russia and the other Confederates.
