Published by Authority.

From Tuesday May 18, to Saturday May 22, 1802.

St. James's, May 19, 1802.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of Durham.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of your ancient City of Durham, presume to approach your Majesty's Throne to offer our heartfelt Congratulations on the late most interesting and happy Event—the Return of Peace.

We have beheld with the most sincere Satisfaction the great and meritorious Services of your Majesty's Navy and Army, and the firm and affectionate Attachment of all Ranks of People to your Majesty's Person, and our glorious Constitution:—And we feel, while we are congratulating your Majesty on the Subject of Peace, that should the same Exertions be again requisite, your Majesty's faithful Subjects would again step forward with the same Loyalty, Zeal, and Activity.

Conscious as we are that it is only in Peace we can fully enjoy the Benefits of your Majesty's mild Reign and Government, and of our happy and much envied Constitution, we sincerely hope your Majesty and your faithful Subjects will long enjoy the Blessings of uninterrupted Peace and Tranquillity.

May the Almighty still keep your Majesty, our gracious and beloved Queen, and your Royal and illustrious Progeny, under His most holy Protection; and may your Majesty long reign in the Hearts of an affectionate, grateful, and free People.

Given under our Common Seal the Fourteenth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

Martin Dunn, Mayor.

By Order,

Wilkinson, Town-Clerk.

[Presented by Ralph John Lambton and Michael Angelo Taylor, Esqrs. Representatives for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, in Common-Council assembled, with Hearts warmed with Zeal and Gratitude, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the Signature and Ratification of the Definitive Treaty, which have put an End to the late bloody, extended, and expensive War.

It is with the greatest Satisfaction we learn that, through the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and the unexampled Bravery of your Fleets and Armies, the Differences with Russia, Denmark, and Sweden, have been finally adjusted; and, by the System of the Armed Neutrality being completely abandoned, that the Source of Disputes in future with those Powers is happily removed.

Having an entire Confidence in your Majesty's unwearied Attention to the Religion, Laws, and Liberties of your Subjects, and to the public Welfare, and trusting that, by the Blessings of Peace, the National Commerce, and other essential Interests of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, will be so increased as to render us a happy and flourishing People, permit us to assure your Majesty that we shall constantly endeavour to further your earnest and gracious Wishes and Intentions to preserve unimpaired our glorious Constitution, to cultivate the Arts of Peace, and to transmit its Blessings to our latest Posterity.

[Presented by Charles Bragge, Esq; one of the Representatives for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with heartfelt Gratitude, with an Assurance of our unvaried Loyalty to your Royal Person and Family, and of our sincere Attachment to our excellent Constitution.

and to offer to your Majesty our warmest Congratulations on the Re-establishment of the invaluable Blessings of Peace, which, by your paternal Care and Wisdom, will, we trust, be of long and happy Duration, promote the Restoration of our Commerce and Manufactures, and diffuse throughout your Majesty's Dominions Prosperity and Happiness to your loyal and grateful Subjects.

We rejoice in contemplating that, pending the arduous Contest, the Zeal and Bravery of your Armies, and the unparalleled Skill and Intrepidity of your Navy, have extended through the Universe the Fame and Glory of the British Empire.

May your Majesty's Reign be long and prosperous; may it be attended and adorned with the Blessings and Arts of Peace, and flourish over a loyal and happy People.

Given under the Common Seal of the said City, the Third Day of May One thousand eight hundred and two.

[Presented by Jeremiah Ives, Esq; Mayor, Sir Roger Kerriſon, Mayor Elect, and J. Forſter, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of York, in Common-Hall assembled, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere and cordial Congratulations on the Termination of the late most bloody, extended, and expensive War.

The Return of Peace, Plenty, and Repose to your People, after their late patient and laudable Endurance under the united Pressure of Scarcity and heavy Taxes, must be particularly grateful to your Majesty's Feelings.

Permit us, great Sir, to renew, on this Occasion, our Assurances of an inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to the Principles of that excellent Constitution under which we live.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign over us, and that your Dominions may, to the latest Ages, under the Auspices and Government of your illustrious Family, continue to enjoy the Blessings of Peace, Liberty, Prosperity, and Happiness, is, and ever shall be, our sincere and fervent Prayer.

Given under our Common Seal the Fourteenth Day of May, in the Forty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

William Hotbam, Mayor.

[Presented by Earl Fitzwilliam, Mr. Alderman Wilson, and Mr. Sheriff Darbyshire.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the City of Exeter.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common-Council of your ancient and loyal City of Exeter, in Chamber assembled, beg Leave to repeat our strongest Assurances of our firm, loyal, grateful, and affectionate Attachment to your Person and Government at this Period of general Pacification. At the Close of an arduous and unprecedented Contest, which commenced in Defence of the best and dearest Interests of Society, we have to thank Divine Providence for the Wisdom and Energy of your Councils, which have preserved your Throne, protected the civil and religious Liberties of your People, and, we trust, effectually secured them on the solid Foundation of lasting Peace.

Posterity will collect from the Page of History what astonishing Proofs of Heroism your Majesty's Forces, both by Sea and Land, during a most awful War, have displayed in the Service of their King and Country, exciting the Admiration of Foreign Nations, and entitling themselves to the warmest Praise and Gratitude of their own.

It is our devout Wish, Sir, that the Lesson which the Inhabitants of the Earth have been taught on this memorable Occasion, may have its due Effect, by convincing them that Establishments of Religion and Order are indispensably necessary to the Happiness of Mankind; and that the People of this Realm, for Ages to come, under the Auspices of your illustrious Descendants, may continue to exhibit to the Rest of the World as perfect a Model of Society as human Nature will admit.

Given under our Common Seal at the Guildhall of the said City, the Eleventh Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

[Presented by Charles Fanshawe, Esq; Recorder of the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Gentry, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the City of Exeter.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Gentry, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the City of Exeter, in our Guildhall assembled, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our humble Expressions of Congratulation on the restored Blessing of Peace.

The Contest in which we have been engaged, involved in its Event an Interest of no less Importance than the Security of our Country and Constitution against the Designs of an Enemy, whose Ambition knew no Limits, but the Subjugation of the World. To the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, aided by the unequalled Valor of your Fleets and Armies, under the directing Hand of Providence, we owe our Preservation:—to the same Wisdom, favored by the same Divine Influence, we look for the full Enjoyment of the Benefits of Peace; and as we have now the Happiness of beholding the Triumph of Religion and Government over those wicked Principles which lately threatened Dissolution to all civil Society, we beg your Majesty to be assured that our best Energies will be exerted to perpetuate the Triumph, and to cultivate and promote, in our respective Stations and Capacities, those Sentiments of Loyalty, Unanimity, and public Spirit, which have ever regarded your Majesty, (and long, very long, may you continue to be revered) as the Father of your People.

Thomas Floud, Mayor.

[Presented by Charles Fanshawe, Esq; Recorder of the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Edinburgh, beg Leave to approach the Throne with grateful Acknowledgements of your Majesty's parental Regard for your People, in restoring the Blessings of Peace.

We cannot, however, look forward to the Enjoyment of that Repose which your Majesty has procured for us, without expressing our Conviction of the unavoidable Necessity which engaged your Majesty in War, and our Admiration of the Wisdom and Firmness with which your Majesty supported a Contest, involving equally the Security of the Throne and of the People.

It gives us Satisfaction to think, that your Majesty's ancient and loyal City of Edinburgh seconded, to the best of its Power, your Majesty's generous Efforts in Defence of the Nation; and we trust, and venture to assure your Majesty, that your faithful Subjects of this City will endeavour, by habits of Industry and good Order, to improve to the best Advantage the Tranquillity which your Majesty has restored.

We congratulate your Majesty on the Bravery and Conduct exhibited by your Forces by Sea and Land, and on that Determination with which your Subjects armed themselves at Home, to defend their Country from foreign and domestic Foes. In this Spirit we recognise the best Pledge of the Permanency of that invaluable Constitution, under which this Nation enjoys that Liberty which others have in vain endeavoured to find in other Forms of Government.

We pray to Almighty God that the Peace may produce all the Advantages which we know your Majesty intended for your People, and that, by its long Continuance, it may give full Scope for your Majesty to follow out those Measures for advancing the Prosperity of the Empire which have uniformly distinguished your Reign.

Long may your Majesty live to enjoy the Thanks and Blessings of your People; and may the Evening of your Life, invariably dedicated to the Service of God and to the Happiness of your Subjects, be undisturbed either by foreign War or by domestic Faction.

Signed by Appointment, and in Presence of the Magistrates and Council, in Absence of the Lord Provost, this Twelfth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and two,

By Neil Macvicar, Preses.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Master, Wardens, and Commonalty of Merchant Venturers, of the City of Bristol, hasten, in common with the Rest of your Majesty's Subjects, to offer our Congratulations on the happy Termination of the long and arduous Contest in which we have been engaged—a Contest on the Success of which has depended our best Rights, our Religion, and Independence.

We most sincerely rejoice that, having subdued the Spirit of Innovation in your Majesty's Dominions, having checked the Principles of Anarchy, which were spreading with alarming Rapidity over Europe, and having maintained untarnished and unimpaired the Honor and Independence of these Realms, your Majesty has been at length enabled to conclude a Treaty of Peace with our Enemies, and to terminate the Miseries ever inseparable from a State of Warfare.

We feel confident that the same Disposition which has been uniformly evinced by your Majesty for the Attainment of this Object, and which prompted your Majesty to treat for Peace even in the Moment of Victory, will lead to the Adoption of every Measure for insuring it. Duration not inconsistent with our National Honor and Dignity.

[Presented by Charles Bragge, Esq; one of the Representatives for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Berks, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with our Congratulations on the Restoration of Peace.

Your Majesty has had the Satisfaction of witnessing the Exertions of your Subjects in the arduous Contest in which they have been engaged, Exertions which will distinguish your Majesty's Reign as one of the most brilliant Periods of British Glory. But, severe as these Exertions have been, we doubt not that they would be renewed with equal Spirit and Perseverance if ever they should again be required for the just Support of your Majesty's Dignity and Honor, and the Security and Independence of your People.

We feel it our Duty to say, that we owe our present Happiness (under the Protection of Divine Providence) to the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and the unparalleled Bravery of your Forces by Sea and Land.

That Almighty God may long continue a Life so justly endeared to the Nation, in the Possession of the Blessings of Peace, and of every other Blessing which the affectionate Wishes of a grateful Country can conceive, is the fervent Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects.

Signed by Order of the County Meeting,

Thomas Windfor, Sheriff of Berks.

[Presented by the Honorable Thomas Windfor, High Sheriff, the Members of the County, and Sir Joseph Andrews, Bart. Mr. Croft, Mr. Huddleston, Mr. Goodlake, Captain Ximenes, Mr. Vansittart, and Mr. Golding.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, in Common-Council assembled, approach your Majesty with our most sincere and unfeigned Congratulations on the Success of your Majesty's Endeavours in the Restoration of Peace to all your Majesty's Dominions. Fully sensible that the Preservation of our religious and civil Liberty is inseparably connected with the Stability of your Majesty's Throne, we feel it our bounden Duty to make it our constant and fervent Prayer to the Sovereign Disposer of all Events, that your Majesty's Reign may continue to be long and happy over a free and grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal this Twelfth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

[Presented by the Honorable W. H. Bouverie and William Hussy, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Warwick, in the County of Warwick.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Warwick, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our heartfelt Thanks for having graciously restored to your Subjects the invaluable Blessings of Peace, and to congratulate your Majesty on the Termination of the many and unavoidable Calamities of War.

We acknowledge, with Gratitude, the Benefits which this happy Event has already produced to the great Mass of your Majesty's Subjects, in the Removal of the most grievous of the Burthens which the public Necessities had required.

May the Divine Providence so order the Hearts of Nations, and their Rulers, as to render these Benefits permanent. May the Wisdom, Firmness, and Moderation of your Majesty's Councils command the Respect of Foreign Powers, and preserve unimpaired the Independence of the British Nation; and may the domestic Tranquillity of these Countries continue uninterrupted, and rest on the solid Basis of the general Happiness.

Whilst we presume to lay at your Majesty's Feet these our fervent Wishes, permit us, at the same Time, to express our inviolable Attachment to the British Constitution, and our unfeigned Reverence for your Majesty's Person.

John Edwards, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Portsmouth.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgesses of your Majesty's ancient Corporation of Portsmouth, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with our Heartfelt Congratulations on the Restoration of Peace.

While we are sensible that we owe this auspicious Event, under the Protection of Divine Providence, to the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, we feel it our Duty to say, that we conceive their Deliberations have been most ably supported by your Majesty's Forces, both by Sea and Land, whose Exertions will stand almost unparalleled in the Annals of History.

Your Majesty's Paternal Tendernefs, the Bravery of your Majesty's Forces, and the Wisdom of those who aided your Royal Wishes to gratify your People with the Blessings of Peace will be remembered by all your loyal and dutiful Subjects with that Gratitude which such a happy Event inspires.

That the Hand of Divine Providence which has preserved your Majesty and your Kingdom through so arduous a Contest, may long continue a life to justly endeared to the Nation in the happy Possession of Peace, is the most fervent Prayer of your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects.

Given under my Hand and Seal, in Common Hall, this Thirteenth Day of May, One thousand eight hundred and two.

John Godwin, Mayor.

[Presented by John Godwin, Esq; Mayor, and the Recorder, attended by the Representatives for the Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of New Windsor, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most ardent Affection and Gratitude, and our most sincere Congratulations on the Restoration of Peace.

After struggling through a Bloody, extended, and expensive War in Defence of our Religion, Laws, and Liberties, we want Words to express our Joy at the Termination of the Contest, by a Treaty of Peace, which Leaves us in full Possession of those invaluable Blessings, and asserts and maintains the Honor and Interests of our Country.

To your Majesty's uniform Magnanimity, to the Wisdom and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils in the late Administration, which directed those Exertions of your Majesty's Army and Navy, which were never surpassed, and to the Wisdom and Promptitude with which your Majesty's present Ministers have seized the first honorable Opportunity of entering upon a Negotiation—to these Causes, under the Favor of Divine Providence, we are indebted for the happy Event which is now the Subject of our Congratulations.

Convinced, as we are, that your Majesty is desirous to improve the Blessings of Peace, we at the same Time beg Leave to express our perfect Confidence that your Majesty will always receive the firm and dutiful Support of your loyal Subjects whenever the Rights, Laws, and Liberties of their Country shall be endangered.

That your Majesty may very long enjoy Peace, with a grateful and united People, and that each succeeding Day and Hour of your Majesty's benignant Reign may be marked with increasing Happiness is our fervent and unceasing Wish and Prayer.

John Slingby, Mayor.

[Presented by the Hon. Robert F. Greville, one of the Representatives for the Borough of New Windsor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Reading, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty, our most sincere Congratulations on the happy Return of Peace.

We are truly sensible that to the Favor of Divine Providence, aiding the persevering Valour of your Majesty's Forces by Sea and Land, through the most arduous struggle in which this Kingdom has ever been engaged, and the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, at a Time when the World was looking for a Prolongation of the dreadful Ravages of War, we are indebted for the Accomplishment of this auspicious Event.

That your Majesty's Dominions, by the Goodness of the same Divine Providence, may long continue to enjoy the Blessings of Peace; that its Progress may be marked by Plenty and Prosperity; and that the Life of your Majesty may be lengthened to the latest Period for your own Happiness, and the Benefit and Advantage of your United Kingdom, is our earnest and ardent Prayer.

Martin Annesley, Chairman.

Reading, May 17, 1802.

[Presented by Francis Annesley, Esq; and John Simeon, Esq; Representatives for the Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Corporation, and Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Plymouth, in the County of Devon, beg Leave to approach the Throne to offer to your Majesty our sincere and cordial Congratulations on the happy Restoration of Peace to your Majesty's Dominions.

We cannot contemplate the long and arduous Struggle in which this Nation hath been engaged without glorying in the Name of Britons. The Achievements performed by your Majesty's Forces both by Sea and Land have raised the British Name to the highest Point of Distinction, and rendered it at once the Admiration and Envy of surrounding Nations.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign over a brave, a loyal, and united People in the full Enjoyment of uninterrupted Peace and Happiness, is our most earnest Prayer.

Thomas Cleather, Mayor.

[Presented by Sir William Elford, Bart. one of the Representatives for the Borough.]

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of Kingston-upon-Hull.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of Kingston-upon-Hull, humbly approach your Throne with our warmest Congratulations on the Success of your Majesty's Endeavours to terminate, at length, the Calamities of a War which hath so long afflicted the World.

Permit us, Royal Sir, to express our Confidence that the Wisdom and Energy which so eminently distinguish your Majesty's Councils have been conspicuously displayed before all the Nations of Europe by the illustrious Person, to whose Care and Vigilance your Majesty committed, on this important Occasion, the dearest Interests of your People, and that his Memory will be no less endeared to his Countrymen and to Posterity by the Security and Happiness, we trust, they will derive from a Peace concluded under his Auspices, than by the splendid Name in Arms which his Valor hath achieved.

Mingled with our Thanksgivings for the Blessings of Peace, we most fervently implore that Almighty Power which, during a Nine Years' War, hath protected our Fleets and Armies in the Day of Battle, that your Majesty may long, very long, continue to reign over a free, united, and affectionate People.

Given under our Common Seal the First Day of May, in the Forty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign. C. F. Coulson, Mayor.

[Presented by Earl Fitzwilliam and the Mayor of Hull.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the ancient Town and Borough of Southwark, in their Town-Hall assembled, humbly beg Leave to offer our grateful Acknowledgments to your Majesty for your paternal Regard towards your People, in putting an End to the late bloody, extended, and expensive War.

Permit us to express our fervent Hope, that under the equitable Auspices of your Majesty, we may long enjoy the Blessings of that Tranquillity your Goodness has restored to us, and that the Welfare and Prosperity of your Dominions may effectually be secured by the Continuance of an Honorable Peace with the neighbouring Nations, by the mild and prudent Administration of our Laws at Home, and by a rigid Attention to public Economy.

May your Majesty, in the full Possession of every Blessing, long continue to reign over a free, united, and grateful People, and to defend that Constitution, by which, under a just and all-directing Providence, our Liberties (and in them the Happiness of us and our Children) can alone be maintained.

John Tocwold, Deputy Bailiff of Southwark, Chairman.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The respectful Address of the Guild or Brotherhood of the Trinity-House of Kingston-upon-Hull.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Wardens, Elder Brethren, and Assistants of the Corporation of the Trinity-House of Kingston-upon-Hull, in Council assembled, participating with your Majesty's Subjects in general in the universal Joy diffused through the Nation by the Termination of the War, are anxious to be among the first to congratulate your Majesty on that happy Event.

Fully relying that the great Objects which your Majesty so justly had at heart, as well in continuing the glorious Conflict, as in embracing the earliest Overtures of Peace are now attained, we beg Leave thus respectfully to tender your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the Return of the Blessings of Peace.

Having most cheerfully (as far as in our Power) seconded the Exertions of Government in the common Cause of Protection and Defence during the War, we most faithfully assure your Majesty, that our Endeavours shall now be directed, both in our Individual and Corporate Capacity, in encouraging the Increase and Extension of our Maritime Commerce, and Credit, and promoting whatever may most conduce to the real and solid Interest and Prosperity of this United Kingdom.

That your Majesty may long, very long share with your Subjects, the Happiness of uninterrupted Tranquillity and undisturbed Enjoyment of our Religion, Laws, and Civil Liberty, is our sincere and ardent Prayer.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Corporation, the Twenty-ninth Day of April, in the Forty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

William Horncastle, James Frank, Wardens.

[Presented by Earl Fitzwilliam.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common-Council of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common-Council of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the Conclusion of a Definitive Treaty of Peace between this Country and the French Republic and its Allies. The Termination of a long and furious Warfare, during which many of the Governments of Europe have been utterly destroyed, and others involved in the most distressing Calamities, must surely afford Pleasure to the Mind of every Friend to Humanity and established Order; and we cannot but reflect with peculiar Satisfaction, that, amidst the Wreck and Desolation of surrounding States, the British Empire has not only remained Whole and inviolate, but that the Firmness of British Councils, and the Valor of British Fleets and Armies, have been permitted, by the Goodness of Providence, to add new and important Colonies to your Majesty's Dominions.

Restored to the Blessings of Peace, and cherished by the Auspices of your Majesty's paternal Care, we trust that the Pressure of those Burthens which our late arduous Contest has produced will, in due Time, be alleviated by a liberal and enterprising Spirit of Commerce abroad, and by extensive Manufactures, and an improved System of Agriculture at Home. May such be the Fruits of returning Tranquillity! May a well-regulated Economy, both public and private, infuse fresh Vigor into our National Resources! And may your Majesty enjoy, to the latest Period of Life, that pure and exalted Happiness which a benevolent Monarch will ever experience in beholding the Prosperity of a free and loyal People!

Given under the Seal of our Corporation this Twelfth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

Joseph Forster, Mayor.

[Presented by Sir Matthew White Ridley, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Master and Brethren of the Corporation of the Master Pilots, and Seamen of the Trinity-House, in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, do humbly beg Leave to offer to your sacred Majesty our most joyful and sincere Thanks and Congratulations for the great Blessings and Happiness derived to your Majesty's Dominions from the late happy Completion of Peace with all your Majesty's Enemies; an Event which, (under the Direction of Divine Providence,) only the Bravery and Success of your Fleets and Armies, and the Wisdom and Firmness of your Majesty's Councils could hope to obtain; and we hope the present Tranquillity of Europe may be permanent, and that the Effects thereof, combined with a well regulated Economy, both public and private, may produce additional Vigour in our Commerce and national Resources.

We also, on this happy Occasion, most earnestly repeat our unfeigned and constant Wishes for the Health, Felicity, and long Life of your most sacred Majesty, beseeching the Almighty Sovereign of the Universe, long to continue the Prosperity of your Majesty's benign and paternal Reign over this happily United Kingdom.

In Testimony whereof the Master hath hereunto set his Name, and we have caused the Common Seal of our Corporation to be affixed this Fifteenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and two.

Joseph Hogg, Master of the Trinity-House.

NOTICE TO MARINERS, from the Danish Royal Council of Customs and of the Indies, dated Copenhagen, 6th April 1802.

HIS Majesty having been pleased to order that there shall be a Watch Light on the Northern Coast of Bornholm, to guide the Navigators of the Baltic, we give Notice, That Examination having been made of the most convenient Place from whence the Light might be most distinctly seen, as well by those who come from the West as by those who come from the East and the North, and who wish to pass between Bornholm and the Coast of Sweden, a Light-House has been constructed on the Mountain called Steileberg, which is situated, by the Compass, about a Quarter of a Mile from the Northernmost Bay of Bornholm. In consequence of the Height of this Mountain, this Light-House will be 272 Feet above the Level of the Water. Although it is lighted by Means of a Coal Fire, it is surrounded by a Glass Case or Lanthorn of 14 Feet Diameter, constructed upon a New Principle, so that, in all Weathers, the Flame will rise without Interruption, and the Light will be augmented by it, because that Part of the Case or Lanthorn which is on the Land Side, and every Part from whence the Light cannot be seen at Sea, is a Wall, the Interior of which is covered with Plates of polished Block-Tin.

This Light-House will be lighted up for the first Time, on the 21st June 1802, and afterwards it will be continued according to the Terms of the Ordinance of the 21st March 1705, and of the Proclamation of the 1st February 1799, so that in Summer, that is from Easter-Day to Michaelmas-Day, it will be kept burning from an Hour after Sunset till Sunrise, and in Winter, that is, from Michaelmas-Day to Easter-Day, from Half an Hour after Sunset till Sunrise.

Done at Copenhagen, at the Royal Council of Customs and of the Indies, the 6th April 1802.

[Then follow the Signatures.]

Admiralty-Office, April 24, 1802.

Notice is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery for the Trial of Offences committed on the High Seas, within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old-Bailey, London, on Friday the 28th of May next, at Eight o'Clock in the Morning.
