

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Edinburgh, beg Leave to approach the Throne with grateful Acknowledgements of your Majesty's parental Regard for your People, in restoring the Blessings of Peace.

We cannot, however, look forward to the Enjoyment of that Repose which your Majesty has procured for us, without expressing our Conviction of the unavoidable Necessity which engaged your Majesty in War, and our Admiration of the Wisdom and Firmness with which your Majesty supported a Contest, involving equally the Security of the Throne and of the People.

It gives us Satisfaction to think, that your Majesty's ancient and loyal City of Edinburgh seconded, to the best of its Power, your Majesty's generous Efforts in Defence of the Nation; and we trust, and venture to assure your Majesty, that your faithful Subjects of this City will endeavour, by habits of Industry and good Order, to improve to the best Advantage the Tranquillity which your Majesty has restored.

We congratulate your Majesty on the Bravery and Conduct exhibited by your Forces by Sea and Land, and on that Determination with which your Subjects armed themselves at Home, to defend their Country from foreign and domestic Foes. In this Spirit we recognise the best Pledge of the Permanency of that invaluable Constitution, under which this Nation enjoys that Liberty which others have in vain endeavoured to find in other Forms of Government.

We pray to Almighty God that the Peace may produce all the Advantages which we know your Majesty intended for your People, and that, by its long Continuance, it may give full Scope for your Majesty to follow out those Measures for advancing the Prosperity of the Empire which have uniformly distinguished your Reign.

Long may your Majesty live to enjoy the Thanks and Blessings of your People; and may the Evening of your Life, invariably dedicated to the Service of God and to the Happiness of your Subjects, be undisturbed either by foreign War or by domestic Faction.

Signed by Appointment, and in Presence of the Magistrates and Council, in Absence of the Lord Provost, this Twelfth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and two,

By Neil Macvicar, Preses.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Master, Wardens, and Commonalty of Merchant Venturers, of the City of Bristol, hasten, in common with the Rest of your Majesty's Subjects, to offer our Congratulations on the happy Termination of the long and arduous Contest in which we have been engaged—a Contest on the Success of which has depended our best Rights, our Religion, and Independence.

We most sincerely rejoice that, having subdued the Spirit of Innovation in your Majesty's Dominions, having checked the Principles of Anarchy, which were spreading with alarming Rapidity over Europe, and having maintained untarnished and unimpaired the Honor and Independence of these Realms, your Majesty has been at length enabled to conclude a Treaty of Peace with our Enemies, and to terminate the Miseries ever inseparable from a State of Warfare.

We feel confident that the same Disposition which has been uniformly evinced by your Majesty for the Attainment of this Object, and which prompted your Majesty to treat for Peace even in the Moment of Victory, will lead to the Adoption of every Measure for insuring it. Duration not inconsistent with our National Honor and Dignity.

[Presented by Charles Bragge, Esq; one of the Representatives for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Berks, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with our Congratulations on the Restoration of Peace.

Your Majesty has had the Satisfaction of witnessing the Exertions of your Subjects in the arduous Contest in which they have been engaged, Exertions which will distinguish your Majesty's Reign as one of the most brilliant Periods of British Glory. But, severe as these Exertions have been, we doubt not that they would be renewed with equal Spirit and Perseverance if ever they should again be required for the just Support of your Majesty's Dignity and Honor, and the Security and Independence of your People.

We feel it our Duty to say, that we owe our present Happiness (under the Protection of Divine Providence) to the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and the unparalleled Bravery of your Forces by Sea and Land.

That Almighty God may long continue a Life so justly endeared to the Nation, in the Possession of the Blessings of Peace, and of every other Blessing which the affectionate Wishes of a grateful Country can conceive, is the fervent Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects.

Signed by Order of the County Meeting,

Thomas Windfor, Sheriff of Berks.

[Presented by the Honorable Thomas Windfor, High Sheriff, the Members of the County, and Sir Joseph Andrews, Bart. Mr. Croft, Mr. Huddleston, Mr. Goodlake, Captain Ximenes, Mr. Vansittart, and Mr. Golding.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, in Common-Council assembled, approach your Majesty with our most sincere and unfeigned Congratulations on the Success of your Majesty's Endeavours in the Restoration of Peace to all your Majesty's Dominions. Fully sensible that the Preservation of our religious and civil Liberty is inseparably connected with the Stability of your Majesty's Throne, we feel it our bounden Duty to make it our constant and fervent Prayer to the Sovereign Disposer of all Events, that your Majesty's Reign
