

may continue to be long and happy over a free and grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal this Twelfth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

[Presented by the Honorable W. H. Bouverie and William Huffey, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Warwick, in the County of Warwick.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Warwick, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our heartfelt Thanks for having graciously restored to your Subjects the invaluable Blessings of Peace, and to congratulate your Majesty on the Termination of the many and unavoidable Calamities of War.

We acknowledge, with Gratitude, the Benefits which this happy Event has already produced to the great Mass of your Majesty's Subjects, in the Removal of the most grievous of the Burthens which the public Necessities had required.

May the Divine Providence so order the Hearts of Nations, and their Rulers, as to render these Benefits permanent. May the Wisdom, Firmness, and Moderation of your Majesty's Councils command the Respect of Foreign Powers, and preserve unimpaired the Independence of the British Nation; and may the domestic Tranquillity of these Countries continue uninterrupted, and rest on the solid Basis of the general Happiness.

Whilst we presume to lay at your Majesty's Feet these our fervent Wishes, permit us, at the same Time, to express our inviolable Attachment to the British Constitution, and our unfeigned Reverence for your Majesty's Person.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Portsmouth.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgesses of your Majesty's ancient Corporation of Portsmouth, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with our Heartfelt Congratulations on the Restoration of Peace.

While we are sensible that we owe this auspicious Event, under the Protection of Divine Providence, to the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, we feel it our Duty to say, that we conceive their Deliberations have been most ably supported by your Majesty's Forces, both by Sea and Land, whose Exertions will stand almost unparalleled in the Annals of History.

Your Majesty's Paternal Tenderness, the Bravery of your Majesty's Forces, and the Wisdom of those who aided your Royal Wishes to gratify your People with the Blessings of Peace will be remembered by all your loyal and dutiful Subjects with that Gratitude which such a happy Event inspires.

That the Hand of Divine Providence which has preserved your Majesty and your Kingdom through so arduous a Contest, may long continue a life so justly endeared to the Nation in the happy Possession of Peace, is the most fervent Prayer of your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects.

Given under my Hand and Seal, in Common Hall, this Thirteenth Day of May, One thousand eight hundred and two.

[Presented by John Godwin, Esq; Mayor, and the Recorder, attended by the Representatives for the Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of New Windsor, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most ardent Affection and Gratitude, and our most sincere Congratulations on the Restoration of Peace.

After struggling through a Bloody, extended, and expensive War in Defence of our Religion, Laws, and Liberties, we want Words to express our Joy at the Termination of the Contest, by a Treaty of Peace, which Leaves us in full Possession of those invaluable Blessings, and asserts and maintains the Honor and Interests of our Country.

To your Majesty's uniform Magnanimity, to the Wisdom and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils in the late Administration, which directed those Exertions of your Majesty's Army and Navy, which were never surpassed, and to the Wisdom and Promptitude with which your Majesty's present Ministers have seized the first honorable Opportunity of entering upon a Negotiation—to these Causes, under the Favor of Divine Providence, we are indebted for the happy Event which is now the Subject of our Congratulations.

Convinced, as we are, that your Majesty is desirous to improve the Blessings of Peace, we at the same Time beg Leave to express our perfect Confidence that your Majesty will always receive the firm and dutiful Support of your loyal Subjects whenever the Rights, Laws, and Liberties of their Country shall be endangered.

That your Majesty may very long enjoy Peace, with a grateful and united People, and that each succeeding Day and Hour of your Majesty's benignant Reign may be marked with increasing Happiness is our fervent and unceasing Wish and Prayer.

[Presented by the Hon. Robert F. Greville, one of the Representatives for the Borough of New Windsor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Reading, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty, our most sincere Congratulations on the happy Return of Peace.

We are truly sensible that to the Favor of Divine Providence, aiding the persevering Valour of your Majesty's Forces by Sea and Land, through the most arduous struggle in which this Kingdom has ever been engaged, and the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, at a Time when the World was
