St. James's, May 25, 1802.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgeses of the Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts.

WE, your Majesty's most faithful Subjects the Mayor and Burgeses of your antient and loyal Borough of Devizes, in Common-Council assembled, humbly beg leave, with every Sentiment of Loyalty and Affection, to approach your Majesty's Throne to offer our sincere Congratulations on the happy Termination of that long and arduous Contest, on the Event of which depended our Religion, our Laws, and the very Existence of our glorious Constitution.

With Pride do we contemplate the many brilliant Achievements of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, which will render your Majesty's Reign the Boast and Glory of future Ages, and which at length have enabled your Majesty to put a successful Termination to the Calamities of War.

To the Wisdom and Firmness of your Majesty's Councils, seconded by the unshaken Loyalty, and unceasing Exertions of a free and grateful People, do we attribute the Extinction of that Principle of Anarchy which at one Period threatened the Destruction of that venerable Constitution which has for Ages been the Boast of Britons and the Admiration of the World.

Conscious of the many Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Government, we shall not cease to offer up our most fervent Prayers to the Almighty long to preserve your Majesty to fill in Glory, Happiness, and Peace that Throne which your Majesty has preserved unshaken, and from which your Majesty has dispensed the greatest Blessings upon an affectionate and grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal, this Seventeenth Day of May, in the Forty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Presented by the Right Honorable the Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Joshua Smith, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient and loyal Borough of Devizes, beg Leave humbly to congratulate your Majesty on the happy Return of Peace to the United Kingdom.

When we consider the unexampled Difficulties which we have encountered, and the imminent Dangers with which we have so long been threatened, we feel the most lively Sentiments of Gratitude to your Majesty for the Adoption of those wise and prudent Measures which have so admirably preserved the internal Tranquillity of your Majesty's Dominions, and which have ultimately secured to us, unviolated and unimpaired, our Religion, our Laws, and our Liberties.

To these excellent Measures, and to the gallant Exploits of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, which have added such distinguished Lustre to the British Name, and on which we shall ever reflect with Pride and Exultation, do we attribute the Termination of the Calamities of War, and the happy Restoration of external Peace and Security.

That the Blessings we now enjoy may be of long Continuance is our fervent Prayer; but should it ever unhappily be necessary again to resort to Arms in Defence of your Majesty's Crown, and the Support of our just and dearest Rights, we have the fullest Confidence that the same Wisdom and Firmness will appear in your Majesty's Councils, the same unexampled Valour in your Fleets and Armies, and the same Loyalty, Attachment, and Affection in all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects, as were so eminently conspicuous during the long and arduous Conflict from which we have just been delivered.

That the Almighty may long preserve your Majesty to reign in Peace and Happiness over a free, loyal, and grateful People, is the most ardent Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

[Presented by the Right Honorable the Chancellor of the Exchequer and Joshua Smith, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

The Inheritance in Fee Simple, of, and in all that capital Messuage or Mansion-House, with the Out-Buildings and other the Appurtenances thereunto belonging, situate in Woodley, within Bredbury, in the Parish of Stockport, and County of Chester, together with the Closes, Fields, and Parcels of Land, to the said Messuage belonging, situated in Woodley aforesaid, commonly called or known by the several Names of the Hard Earth Meadow, the Calf Key Meadow, the Micklebottom, the Wood, the Lower Long Field, the Higher Long Field, the Woodhead Croft, the Coal Pit Field, the Marled Earth, the Little Marled Earth, the Further Marled Earth, the Longstead, the Filley Door, and the Lower Filley Door, containing together, by Estimation, Thirty-four Acres of the Cheshire large Measure, or thereabouts, and now in the Possession of Mr. Morrey, Mrs. Morrey, Widow, and of others, as Tenants at Will.

The Mansion is large, elegant, commodious, and modern built, is within Three Miles of Stockport, most delightfully situated on a rising Ground, adjoining to the Turnpike Road leading from Stockport to Mottram, in Longdendale, surrounded with beautiful Gardens, in a high State of Cultivation, extensive Orchards stored with the choicest Fruit Trees and Pleasure Grounds, in the highest State of Neatness and Perfection; there is also a large Quantity of excellent Outhousing of every Description, suitable to the said Mansion; a Tan-Yard with a Number of Tan-Pits lately in Use, well supplied with good Water, a Bark Mill, and other Conveniences for the Tanning Business; there is also upon the Estate a good Farm House and a Cottage, with convenient Gardens thereunto belonging: Eight or Nine Cheshire Acres of the lower Part of the said Estate, the greatest Part of which being remarkably level, and being bounded for upwards of Six Hundred Yards by the River Tame, and very liberally supplied with several Springs and Rivulets of clear Water, form a very desirable Situation for Printers, Bleachers, or Dyers.

From the Top of the Coal Pit of Nineteen Yards deep already sunk, there is a Fall of upwards of Forty Yards within the Estate, and by Means of a Tunnel, which may be cut at a small Expence, will lay a considerable Quantity of the Coal dry.

There is also another Coal Mine that ranges through the Estate, of Twenty-seven Inches thick, of very good Coal, and not more than Thirty Yards of sinking between the Two Mines, which Mine is now in working, not more than Three Hundred Yards from the Estate, beside other Mines of Coal which are within the Estate, the Peak Forest Canal running through the Middle of the Estate, not only brings Lime-Stone thereto, at a very moderate Expence, but will be found
