St. James's, May 31, 1802.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Wilts.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Wilts, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the happy Restoration of Peace.

Whilst we contemplate, with Pleasure and Satisfaction, the Exertions of all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects in the long and arduous Contest in which your Majesty has been engaged, we cannot but be sensible that, to the Wisdom and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils, and the unexampled Valor of your Majesty's Forces both by Sea and Land, we are (under Providence) indebted for the present happy Termination of the Miseries of War.

Permit us, at the same Time, to assure your Majesty, that, great as our Exertions have hitherto been, they will be repeated with unabated Spirit and Perseverance whenever they may be necessary for the Support of the Honor of your Majesty's Crown, and the Security and Independence of your Dominions.

May the Almighty continue to your Majesty and your Dominions the Blessings of Peace; and may your Majesty's Reign be long and prosperous over a loyal, grateful, and happy People.

Signed in the Name, and on Behalf of a General Meeting of the County,

A. Bayntun, Sheriff.

[Presented by Sir Andrew Bayntun, High Sheriff, attended by H. P. Wyndham, Joshua Smith, and M. Hicker Beach, Esqrs.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, and principal Inhabitants of your Borough and Parish of Barnstaple, in the County of Devon, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our Congratulations on the happy Event of the Restoration of Peace. Allow us, Sire, humbly to express our Hopes that we shall long continue to receive the Benefit of a Blessing which so materially adds to the Happiness of our Fellow Subjects, and the Welfare of our Country.

Given under the Seal of Incorporation of the said Borough and Parish this Twenty-fifth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

Thomas Copner, Mayor.

[Presented by John Cleveland, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

St. James's, May 31, 1802.

THE following Address having been transmitted to the Right Honorable Lord Pelham, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by him presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Westbury, in the County of Wilts, humbly present to your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations on the happy Restoration of Peace: A Blessing we consider so highly estimable, that our Sense of Duty will irresistibly impel us, on the approaching Occasion, to join your Majesty, and our Fellow Subjects, in offering to the Almighty the Sacrifice of Thanksgiving for the same.

We shall be happy likewise, on every Opportunity, to demonstrate the high Sense we entertain of the meritorious Services of your Majesty's Army and Navy, by Means of which the Event we so joyfully hail, has been accomplished.

Whilst with heartfelt Satisfaction we have observed, during the late arduous Conflict, the most loyal and affectionate Attachment in all Ranks of People to your Majesty's Person and Government, we were, at the same Time, and still are convinced, that to your Majesty's unceasing Care and Regard for the Welfare of your Subjects that Attachment must be ascribed; and we are fully assured, that on the continued Exercise of those paternal Attentions your faithful Subjects may at all Times confidently rely.

Impressed with these Sentiments we shall therefore always feel it our Duty and Interest to pray for your Majesty's Health, and that under the Auspices of your Majesty's Virtues, the Councils of this Realm may long continue to be directed.

Daniel Vine, Mayor.
