From Tuesday June 1, to Saturday June 5, 1802.

St. James's, June 2, 1802.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Citizens of the City of Bath, in Common-Council assembled, most humbly present your Majesty our unfeigned Congratulations on the happy Restoration of Peace to your United Dominions, and the several Estates of Europe.

When compelled to the Defence of our dearest Interests by the destructive Rage of impious Ambition, we acknowledge the experienced Efficacy of your Majesty's Counsels (under Divine Providence) in maintaining our Safety from the manifold Dangers of domestic Conspiracy and foreign Invasion.

Through the gracious Dispensations vouchsafed to this Kingdom, we have not been destined, with other contending Powers, to the fatal Extremities of War, but remain to rejoice in the envied Possession of an unrivalled Constitution, the Purity of our Holy Religion, and the Advancement of National Glory, obtained by unparalleled Achievements.

Long may your Majesty abide in continual Peace and Tranquillity, the zealous Guardian of our distinguished Blessings; and may your devoted and affectionate People give Testimony of their peculiar Happiness by due Observance of their social Duties, by steadfast Fidelity and grateful Obedience.

Given under our Common Seal of the said City this Eighteenth Day of May, in the Forty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Presented by Sir William Watson, Mayor, Earl Camden, Recorder, Lord John Thynne, and Mr. Palmer, Members for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Citizens, and Inhabitants of the City of Gloucester.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Citizens, and Inhabitants of the City of Gloucester, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the most grateful Acknowledgments for your Majesty's paternal Goodness in restoring to the British Empire the Blessings of Peace.

While we admire the Wisdom of our Ancestors; and the Perfection of that Constitution, which gives to your Majesty the Prerogative to determine on the Events of Peace and War, we exult in expressing the most lively Satisfaction in your Majesty's judicious Use of it on this happy and important Occasion.

Amidst the general Wreck of Empires we have seen this favoured Land rise superior to the Storm, our Commerce increased, our Naval and Military Glory blazing forth with additional Lustre, and the Integrity of your Majesty's Dominions fully maintained.

In contemplating these important Effects, which, under Providence, we owe to the Wisdom and Energy of your Majesty's Councils, and to the Fortitude which has been displayed by all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects, we doubt not that your Majesty's sacred Person, and our unrivalled Constitution, will ever be defended with the same Spirit and Perseverance which has brought this arduous Conflict to so happy a Conclusion.

Taught by Experience the fatal Effects of defying Laws and contemning Sanctuaries, we are persuaded that, by a dutiful Submission to the one, and by an uniform Reverence for the other, we shall ensure to ourselves the most effectual Means of enjoying and perpetuating the Blessings of Peace.

That your Majesty may long live the Guardian and Protector of a free and united People is our ardent Wish and our fervent Prayer.

[Presented by Henry Howard, Esq; M. P. for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne to express our sincere and heartfelt Gratitude on the Termination of the Horrors of War, and the Restoration of the Blessings of Peace to your Majesty's Empire.

We most earnestly pray that the Wisdom and Talents of your Majesty's Councils, and the Zeal, Skill, and Valour which directed the late Military Operations, may, under Divine Providence, effectually combine to render your Majesty's Power respected and revered by all Nations; and have the happy Effect of continuing to your Majesty's Subjects the Blessings of social Order and Peace, now so happily restored to Europe.

We beg to embrace this Opportunity of expressing our unalterable Attachment to our most excellent Constitution, and our zealous and ardent Wish for a long Continuance of your Majesty's Reign.

In Testimony of the above, we, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry, have caused our Common Seal to be hereto affixed this Twenty-ninth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and two.

[Presented by Mr. Jefferys, M. P. for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of your antient and loyal City of Hereford, in Common-Council assembled, are happy in the Opportunity of approaching your Majesty's Throne on this Occasion, and of joining in the universal Joy diffused over your Dominions at the Conclusion of a long and expensive War, and the Restoration of Peace.

We have admired with Gratitude the wise Selection of your Commanders both by Sea and Land, the great and glorious Exertions of your Fleets and Armies, which have brought about this happy Event, and which, we hope, will be signalized by the Prosperity of our National Commerce, and crowned with the Overflowings of Plenty.

We are very thankful for the Preservation of our civil and religious Liberties; and join in our hearty Prayers to the great Disposer of all Events, that this Peace, so long wished for, may be solid and permanent, that your Majesty may experience the Blessing of good Health, and many Years to enjoy it, and your Reign continue long and glorious over a free and grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal this Twenty-seventh Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

[Presented by His Grace the Duke of Norfolk, Chief Steward, and Major Symonds, M. P.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the City of Gloucester, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

PERMIT us, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the City of Gloucester, in Council assembled, to approach your Royal Presence with our sincere and ardent Congratulations on the Termination of a most dangerous and bloody Warfare, and the happy Return of the inestimable Blessings of Peace.

Already, Sire, do we feel the Benefits attached to this most desirable Event; we have seen that (under Providence) Plenty has attended on the Steps of Peace; our Commerce, we trust, will increase more and more, our Manufactures flourish, and, under your Majesty's auspicious Patronage, the useful Arts will revive and be encouraged.

To your Majesty's paternal Care and Anxiety for the Welfare of your faithful Subjects do we owe this happy Change. Accept, most gracious Sovereign, our warmest Acknowledgments for it; and may the God of Peace continue long to protect and preserve your Majesty to the anxious Wishes and Prayers of a loyal, grateful, and affectionate People.

Given under our Common Seal at the Tolsey, in the said City, the Eighteenth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

[Presented by Samuel Woodcock, Esq; Mayor, His Grace the Duke of Norfolk, Recorder, Sir Edward Jeynes, Knt. Alderman, John Wilton, Esq; Sheriff, and Henry Howard, Esq; M. P.]

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Corporation, and principal Inhabitants of the City of Wells, beg Leave to lay at your Majesty's Feet our most respectful Congratulations on the Restoration of Peace to your Majesty's Dominions; and we most sincerely pray for the long Continuance of a Blessing which we are persuaded it is the first Wish of your Majesty's Heart to preserve to your faithful Subjects.

But should the Tranquillity which we now enjoy be ever again disturbed by any unprovoked Aggression from whatever Quarter, the just and deep Sense of Gratitude which we feel for the Benefits which we derive from your Majesty's mild and paternal Government will re-animate that Energy, Resolution, and unshaken Constancy in Defence of the just Rights and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown which has been so recently displayed; and we fully trust that the Exertions of a zealous and faithful People will ever, under Divine Providence, effectually maintain the ancient Honor of your Majesty's Kingdoms against the Ambition of any foreign Foe, and protect that glorious and invaluable Constitution, under which we have so long flourished, against the restless Machinations of any domestic Enemies.

We most humbly pray that your Majesty may long continue to reign in the Hearts, and over the Persons of a loyal and affectionate People.

[Presented by Mr. Tudway, Admiral Holloway, &c.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Winchester, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the strongest Assurances of the most sincere and inviolable Reverence and Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and to express our humble Congratulations on the general Re-establishment of Peace in your Majesty's Dominions, and in Europe.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty that your loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Inhabitants of this ancient City, have cheerfully sustained those Burthens which we found necessary for the Support of your Majesty's Crown and Dignity, and the dearest Interests of the Empire, through the long, arduous, and expensive Contest into which your Majesty was reluctantly driven.—We are most sensible of the great Difficulties with which your Majesty has had to encounter during a War, which was directed by the Enemy against every Principle both Divine and Human, that was pointed against every Tie that binds Men together in Society, and menaced the whole civilized World with Anarchy and Confusion.—We cannot sufficiently express our Gratitude to your Majesty for the Wisdom and Firmness of those Councils, by which a War of such unexampled Danger and Difficulty has been conducted to a happy Conclusion, and to which, under the Blessing of Divine Providence, we ascribe the unimpaired Preservation of the Constitution, the Safety of the established Religion, and the Security of the Laws, Liberties, and Properties of your faithful Subjects.—And we trust that, as the Successes of the War have raised the Character of the British Arms, both by Sea and Land, to an unexampled Pitch of Glory, that the Peace which your Majesty's parental Regard to the Welfare of your People has led you to conclude, will be equally productive of the happiest Consequences to the Commerce and Manufactures of the Empire, and to the confirmed and permanent Establishment of Order, Regularity, and general Satisfaction through every Part of your Majesty's Dominions.

Given under the Common Seal of the City of Winchester the Twenty-eighth Day of May, One thousand eight hundred and two.

[Presented by John Silver, Esq; the Mayor, John Newbolt, Esq; the Recorder, M. P. Sir Richard Gamon, Bart. M. P. for the said City, and Sir Henry Mildmay, Bart. M. P.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Northumberland, have received, with Sentiments of unfeigned Satisfaction, the happy Account of the Ratification of the Definitive Treaty of Peace between your Majesty and the Allied Powers of France, Spain, and Holland.

We beg Leave humbly to offer to your Majesty our heartfelt Congratulations on this joyous Occasion; and we most earnestly pray that the Peace, so necessary to the Prosperity of the United Kingdom, may, by the Blessing of Divine Providence, be rendered permanent; and that your Majesty may long reign in Health and Happiness over a loyal, free, and flourishing People.

Signed at the Request and on Behalf of the Meeting, the Twelfth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

Charles William Bigge, Sheriff and Chairman.

[Presented by Mr. Bigge, Sheriff of the County.]

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Surrey, beg Leave to approach your Throne with Sentiments of the truest Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

We acknowledge your Majesty's paternal Solicitude in giving Peace to your People.

Aided by the Valour and Skill of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, by the Wisdom and Prudence of your Councils, and by the united Energies of brave and loyal Subjects, the War has been terminated, and our Religion, Liberty, and Laws preserved. These invaluable Blessings are, under Divine Providence, secured to us, and your Majesty's extensive Dominions not only maintained in their Integrity but even augmented.

We observe, with Admission, the high Degree of Confidence reposed in the Resources of the Empire, so unequivocally displayed by the Support of public Credit.

We anticipate the numerous Advantages of an extensive Commerce, combined with domestic Economy, in the confident Expectation of Prosperity and Plenty, and the Diffusion of public and private Happiness.

We begin to feel the Blessings of Peace, and we hope and trust it may not be interrupted. But if, contrary to these just Expectations, we should be disappointed, we pledge ourselves to support your Majesty's Exertions whenever Circumstances may render them necessary; trusting, however, that by a due Mixture of Conciliation with Precaution, by a Firmness in Preparation, united with a Readiness to act upon any unexpected Emergency, the Peace which is now restored may prove lasting and secure.

May it be permitted us, in a peculiar Manner, to participate in the benign Sentiments which this auspicious Event has inspired, and to wish your Majesty many Years of a peaceful and happy Reign.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Norfolk.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Norfolk, humbly beg to congratulate your Majesty on the joyful Return of Peace.

We have witnessed, with heartfelt Satisfaction, the unremitting Exertions displayed by every Class of your Majesty's Subjects during the arduous Contest in which this Country has been so long engaged; and we are conscious that, to the unexampled Valour of your Majesty's Naval and Military Forces, we are, under Divine Providence, indebted for a Restoration of the Blessings of Peace.

Permit us to repeat the Declaration (which it is at all Times gratifying to us to express) of our unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person, and of our inviolable Attachment to the Constitution, which it has been our chief Object to preserve.

We most solemnly assure your Majesty, that, constant as the Exertions, and great as the Sacrifices have been which we have made during the late War, we shall be ready to renew them with undiminished Ardour should your Majesty, at any future Period, deem it necessary to assert, by Arms, the Independence and Honor of the United Empire.

We flatter ourselves that such an Event is far distant; it is our earnest Prayer that every Part of your Majesty's extensive Dominions may, without Interruption, enjoy the Blessings of Peace; and that your Majesty may long and prosperously reign to witness the Affections of a grateful and loyal People.

[Presented by the High Sheriff, attended by the Marquis Townshend, the Lord Lieutenant, Sir Jacob Astley, Member for the County, Major-General Loftus, M. P. Mr. H. Jodrell, M. P. and Lord Bayning.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the County of Somerset.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects most humbly beg Leave to lay at your Majesty's Feet our unfeigned Congratulations, as well as the deep Sense we shall ever entertain of your Majesty's paternal Care and Goodness to your People, in having put an End to the Calamities of War, and restored to them the Blessings of Peace; and although we shall be at all Times prepared to defend your Majesty's Crown and Dignity against all Invaders, whether Domestic or Foreign, yet, we supplicate and trust the All-ruling Providence will so direct your Majesty's Councils as to avert from us any Return of those Evils we have so long undergone; and that the same Divine Power will be pleased to continue to your Majesty a long and happy Reign over a free and loyal Nation.

B. Greenhill, Sheriff.

[Presented by William Gore Langton, Esq; William Dickenson, Esq; Knights of the Shire, Clement Tudway, Esq; Rear-Admiral John Holloway, John Berkeley Burland, Esq; Thomas Samuel Jolliffe, Esq; S. Twysford Jolliffe, Esq; John Heaniker Major.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

SIRE!

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Devon, beg Leave to convey to your Majesty the strongest Assurances of our loyal and affectionate Attachment to your Person and Government, and to unite in one general Sentiment of sincere Congratulation to your Majesty on the Restoration of the Blessing of Peace.

The Termination of the arduous Contest in which this Nation has been lately engaged, excites in us the most lively Gratitude to that Divine Being, under whose Providence your Majesty's Throne has been protected, and the civil and religious Liberties of your People effectually secured.

Whilst we lament the Calamities inseparably attendant on War, we feel a Pride as Britons in reflecting on the numerous and unexampled Proofs of Heroism which have been shewn by your Majesty's Forces, both by Sea and Land, during the late Conflict, and on that steady Attachment to the Constitution which has been manifested by all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects; conveying a Lesson to surrounding Nations, and likewise to Posterity, that Establishments of Religion and social Order, protected by the Exertions of a free and independent People, are invulnerable.

Truly sensible of your Majesty's paternal and affectionate Regard for your People, we pray the Almighty that your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free, happy, and united Nation.

Signed on the Behalf of and with the unanimous Consent of the Meeting,

Castle of Exeter, 26th May 1802.

[Presented by Sir Lawrence Palk, Bart. and Mr. Bastard, Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Town and County of the Town of Southampton.

VOUCHSAFE, most gracious Sovereign, to permit the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Town and County of the Town of Southampton, to approach your Majesty with every Mark of Loyalty and Affection for the best of Kings, the Monarch of his People's utmost Wish.

While we, with Pride, contemplate the great Events which signalize your Majesty's Reign, tending to promote the Happiness of your Subjects, and to increase the National Importance by holding forth an illustrious Example of princely Virtues for the Imitation of distant Potentates, we are anxious to add the personal Endowments which dignify the Heart, and form your Majesty's exalted Character—Claims such as these, so widely known, so much admired, cannot fail to transmit your Royal Name to Posterity with unrivalled Honor when contrasted by the delusive Conduct of temporizing Allies! Deserted by such, we saw with Indignation the arduous Task of protecting oppressed Nations fall on your Majesty alone; and on your Majesty alone depended the awful Choice of Peace or War! Happily, for a weary World, you sacrificed the poignant Feelings of most just and honorable Resentment of unprovoked Injuries and Wrongs to the Restoration of Peace, with its appendant Train of Blessings, arresting the Arm of Violence, and sheathing the Sword sated with the Blood of Millions! Long may these Blessings last, and yield to your Majesty the rich Reward of Gratitude!

Permit us, Sire, to make an easy Transition from this interesting Subject to a recent Measure nearly connected with it; and to observe, that in the Register of your memorable Acts as Sovereign of these Realms, your Majesty's paternal Care, and the Wisdom of your Councils, were most conspicuous in the Accomplishment of the Union with our Sister Kingdom; by thus drawing nearer to your Royal Breast your brave and loyal Subjects of Ireland you add a Wreath of Honor to your Crown, and of Two Nations, jealous for their respective Privileges, form one Imperial State, and harmonize the Whole by an indiscriminate Partici-vation in the Advantages of our excellent Constitution!

May the Almighty, by whose peculiar Favour this Country has been preserved from the accumulated Horrors of War, which stained the Face of Nature, and threatened to depopulate Half the Globe, grant to your Majesty Length of Days, and prosper your renewed Ardour to advance the liberal Arts, to cheer the Labour of the Husbandman, encourage the Skill of the Artificer, raise the dejected Head of Commerce, and bid it spread its benignant Influence to the remotest Climes! And may all your Majesty's Subjects know how to value and defend our Religion, Laws, and Liberties, and with one exulting Voice resound God save our King!

Frederick Breton, Mayor.

[Presented by Mr. Amyatt and Mr. G. H. Rose, attended by Lieutenant-General Stibbert and Colonel Heywood.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Beverley.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeſſes of Beverley, impressed with the most grateful Sense of your Majesty's paternal Regard for the Welfare and Happiness of your People, humbly beg Leave to express our warmest Congratulations on the Restoration of Peace, which, from the Wisdom and Energy that distinguished your Majesty's Councils during the arduous Contest in which we have been engaged, we confidently trust, has been concluded on such fair and honorable Terms, that it cannot fail permanently to secure the Safety, Honour, and Welfare of our Sovereign and his Dominions.

Confiding in your Majesty's unwearied Attention to the true Interests of your Subjects, we entertain the most sanguine Hope, that under the Protection of their beloved Monarch, your faithful People will cherish and cultivate the Arts of Peace, with no less Zeal and Energy than they evinced, when compelled to take up Arms in Defence of the invaluable Constitution under which we live, and which hath so long been the Envy and Admiration of the World.

Be assured, Gracious Sire, that when we offer up our Thanksgivings to the Almighty for the Blessings of Peace, we most ardently pray, that your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free, happy, and affectionate People.

Given under our Common Seal, the Nineteenth Day of May, in the Forty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign. J. B. Tuke, Mayor.

[Presented by Major-General Burton and Morritt, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of Stirling, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the happy Restoration of Peace.

We contemplate this great Object as another Instance of your Majesty's paternal Care, and we flatter ourselves that the illustrious Example of Magnanimity and Moderation, which your Majesty has displayed at the Moment when Providence was pleased to crown your Arms with complete Success, will have the happy Effect of securing the Confidence of other Nations.

We cheerfully embrace this Opportunity of repeating our unfeigned Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government; and our sincere Wishes that your Majesty may be long spared for a Blessing not only to these Lands, but to the whole civilized World.

Signed in our Names, and by our Appointment, at Stirling, the Nineteenth Day of May, One thousand eight hundred and two Years.

[Presented by the Honorable Captain Cochrane, Member for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portreeves, and other the Inhabitants of the Borough of Ashburton, beg Leave most humbly to approach your Majesty's Throne to offer our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the happy Return of Peace to your Majesty's Dominions.

In that Return we see a strong Display of those paternal Feelings for your People which have so eminently dignified your Majesty's Reign, and reflected a glorious Radiance on the Splendor of the Throne.

We are sensible of the Unimportance of our trivial Tribute of Gratitude and Loyalty amid the numerous public Testimonies which have been offered to your Majesty on this happy Event, but we cannot be silent on such an auspicious Occasion.

May your Majesty long live in the Enjoyment of the Blessings of Peace, and in the Exercise of those national and domestic Virtues which have ever shone conspicuous in your Majesty's Character; and may this United Kingdom enjoy that perfect and unalloyed Tranquillity which your Majesty's mild and parental Government must always inspire in the Bosom of every true Briton.

[Presented by Walter Palk, Esq; Member for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of Dunfermline, beg Leave humbly to offer your Majesty our sincere Congratulations on the happy Event of the Ratification of the Definitive Treaty of Peace, after a Contest of unexampled Ardour and Difficulty, in which the Valour of your Majesty's Forces both by Sea and Land shone forth with signal Lustre.

Amidst such Variety of Difficulties and Dangers it affords us just Grounds of Rejoicing, that the Constitution of this Country has been preserved in Defence of all open or secret Enemies; and it is our sincere Prayer that it may long continue to prosper under your Majesty's paternal Care, and afterwards descend unimpaired to Posterity.

While the Trade and Manufactures of the surrounding Nations have been ruined by the wild

Spirit of Anarchy, it is with singular Satisfaction that we view the Commerce of Great Britain flourishing and increasing, and her Resources still adequate for maintaining the National Honor and Independence.

Although it is our earnest Desire that Peace may be of long Duration, yet we have a firm Reliance on the Wisdom and Energy of your Majesty's Councils in preserving the Dignity and Integrity of the British Empire.

Signed by Order of the Town-Council,

[Presented by the Honorable Captain Cochrane, Member for the Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your most gracious Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chief Magistrate and Town-Council of your Borough of Queensferry, beg Leave humbly to approach the Throne with our most dutiful Thanks to your Majesty for restoring to us the Blessings of Peace.

We cannot fail to recollect the unavoidable Necessity of the War thus terminated, as well as the Firmness with which your Majesty and your Councils have vindicated the Honor of the Nation in the Course of the Contest.

We beg also to congratulate your Majesty on the Valour and Exertions of your Forces by Sea and Land; and feel the highest Pleasure in reflecting that our Representative in your Parliament has rendered useful Services as an Officer in your Majesty's Navy.

We also recollect, with the utmost Satisfaction, the humble but willing Aid which we rendered for the Protection of domestic Tranquillity and the Security of internal Defence, while the Exigencies of the Service called your regular Forces to a Distance; in a Spirit general among your Subjects, and which we consider as a sure Pledge for the Preservation of that Constitution which other Nations may imitate but cannot rival.

With the Restoration of Peace it has been the Will of Providence to send us Plenty, for which it is peculiarly incumbent upon us to be thankful, and, by a virtuous and sober Demeanour, to testify that we are not unworthy of the Blessings thus bestowed upon us.

That your Majesty may long sway the Sceptre of those Realms, for the Government of a free, happy, and dutiful People, is our most earnest Wish and Prayer.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Queensferry, this Twenty-second Day of May, One thousand eight hundred and two Years. The Seal of the Burgh being also hereto affixed.

Alex. McNabb, Chief Magistrate.

[Presented by the Honorable Captain Cochrane, Member for the Borough.]

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Great Torrington, in the County of Devon, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Presence with our most sincere Congratulations and Gratitude to your Majesty on restoring to your Subjects the Blessings of Peace.

In the Continuance of the late just and necessary War we express our Admiration of the Fortitude and Vigour with which your Majesty pursued every Measure that could contribute to the Glory and Security of your United Kingdom. We therefore entreat your Majesty graciously to permit us to say, that we are fully sensible of the many and great Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and good Government; and, with the strongest Attachment to your Majesty's Person, we offer up our Prayers to God that your Majesty may long reign over a happy and free People.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Banbury, in the County of Oxford, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with our most hearty and sincere Congratulations on the happy Restoration of Peace. Sensible of the inestimable Blessings that will arise from so momentous an Event, we are emboldened to add our most ardent Hopes that your Majesty's most excellent Government may long remain flourishing under an auspicious Termination of a long and tedious War.

Given under our Seal the Third Day of May, One thousand eight hundred and two.

[Presented by Dudley North, attended by the Earl of Guildford, High Steward, and Lord Glenbervie, Recorder of Banbury.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bailiffs and Burgesses of the ancient Borough of Scarborough.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WITH the most ardent and unshaken Sentiments of Loyalty, Gratitude, and Affection to your Majesty, we, the Bailiffs and Burgesses of Scarborough, in Common-Hall assembled beg Leave to offer our sincere Congratulations on the Termination of the Calamities of an afflictive War, and the auspicious Restoration of Tranquillity and Peace.

When we contemplate the arduous Contest in which the Nation has been engaged, and the unexampled Dangers to which our invaluable Constitution has been exposed, we are constrained to adore the Manifestations of Divine Providence, so conspicuously displayed in the Protection of our Fleets and Armies in the Day of Battle, in crowning with Success the native Courage and Ardour of our Seamen and Soldiers when opposed to numerous potent Enemies, and in preserving to us inviolate that excellent Constitution, the Basis of our Liberties, and the Bulwark of our envied Privileges.

While we gratefully acknowledge the Wisdom and Energy of your Majesty's Councils in restoring to this and other Nations the Blessings of Peace, we ardently pray that the Tranquillity, Prosperity, and permanent Security of the Country may, under Providence, be maintained by unshaken Loyalty to the Sovereign, a sacred Reverence for the Laws, and a cordial and steady Attachment to that venerable System of Government, framed by the Wisdom of our Ancestors, which, we trust, will descend vigorous and unfulfilled to the latest Posterity.

Long, very long, Royal Sire, may the Almighty continue His especial Care over your sacred Person, and bless your Majesty with a peaceful and happy Reign over a free, loyal, and united People.

Given under our Common Seal this Twenty-eighth Day of May, in the Forty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

By Order,

Travis, Town Clerk.

[Presented by the Honorable Major-General Phipps and Lord Charles Somerset.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations on the Conclusion of Peace.

We are sensible that this Town has derived considerable Advantages from the Fleets which have been assembled in our Roads for Foreign Expeditions, and for the Protection of our Coasts, yet we, in common with our Fellow-Subjects, heartily rejoice at the Termination of Hostilities: The Contest has been long and arduous; our Efforts, and those of our Allies, have not been able to prevent, upon the Continent, too great an Accession of Power to one Nation; but our invaluable Constitution has not been impaired, the Integrity of your Majesty's Dominions has been preserved, two valuable Islands have been acquired, and the Triumphs of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies have raised them to such a Height of Honor and Glory as, we trust, will deter any Nation, however powerful, from destroying that Tranquillity and Happiness which we hope long to enjoy under a King we love, and a Constitution we revere.

Given under our Common Seal, at our Guildhall, the Twenty-eighth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

[Presented by the Marquis Townsend, High Steward of that Corporation, Major-General Loftus, and Mr. H. J. J. J., Members for the Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portreeve, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Callington, in the County of Cornwall, beg Leave to express to your Majesty the warmest Assurances of our Zeal and Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

Sensible of the Benefits which we derive from your Majesty's paternal Concern for the Welfare of your People, we approach the Throne with Sentiments of unfeigned Gratitude and Thankfulness for the happy Success which hath attended your Majefty's Endeavours in the Restoration of Peace, at once honorable to the Crown, and advantageous to the Interests of the Empire.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign in the Hearts of a free, loyal, and united People is the fervent Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portreeve, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Callington.

Signed in Behalf of the Meeting, and at their Request, this Eighteenth Day of May, One thousand eight hundred and two.

William Horndon, Portreeve.

[Presented by Lord Rolle, for the Representatives, Messrs. Fortescue and Orchard being unavoidably Absent.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Birmingham, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with the most sincere Congratulations on the happy Restoration of Peace after a most expensive and widely extended War.

We acknowledge with Gratitude to the Almighty Governor of the Universe, the Blessings which this Country enjoys under the best of Sovereigns; we ascribe it, under Providence, to the Vigour of our excellent Constitution, directed by the enlightened Counsels of your Majesty's Government, that our Religion and Liberties have survived the almost general Wreck of surrounding Nations, involved in the late unexampled Conflict.

May Divine Providence so order the Hearts of Nations and their Rulers, that the Repose of the World may not again be interrupted by War, nor the Comforts of Society disturbed by internal Commotion.

We earnestly pray the Great Disposer of all Events, long to preserve your Majesty the Father of a loyal and united People, and that under the Auspices of your illustrious House, the Privileges, Civil and Religious, we now so happily enjoy, may be transmitted, unimpaired, to our latest Posterity.

James Woolley, High Bailiff, on Behalf of the Town of Birmingham.

Birmingham, May 28, 1802.

[Presented by Sir George Shuckburg, Bart. Henage Legge, Esq; High Sheriff for the County, and James Woolley, High Bailiff.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of Newcastle upon-Tyne.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the loyal Inhabitants of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, humbly offer our most sincere Congratulations on the Conclusion of a Treaty of Peace between your Majesty and the allied Powers of France, Spain, and Holland, by which the Independence of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland is preserved, and the Number of our Colonies increased.

While the persevering Spirit of your loyal People during the late arduous Contest, may serve to convince the World, how firmly and truly attached we are to our King, our Country, and our Religion, remain assured, Gracious Sire, that the same Principles shall continue to prevail amongst us, and that the Safety of your Majesty's Person and Government, and the Preservation of our invaluable Constitution, shall ever be Objects of our utmost Care and Solitude; and that we shall ever feel grateful to Divine Providence for having maintained us in the Enjoyment of all these Blessings by the victorious Efforts of your Majesty's Naval and Military Forces, and for having brought us, by the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, to this happy Period, when our Mariners, who, always without Fear, may now, without Opposition, traverse the Seas, when the Resources of our Industry and Genius may be encouraged and improved by a free Intercourse with other Nations, to the Glory of your Majesty's Reign, and Prosperity and Greatness of the United Kingdom.

Your loyal Subjects therefore earnestly pray, that long Life, Health, and Happiness may be the Reward of your Majesty's paternal Attention to their Welfare.

Signed at the Request and in Behalf of the Meeting of the Inhabitants, this Seventeenth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

Joseph Forster, Mayor, and Chairman of the Meeting.

[Presented by Sir Matthew Ridley and Mr. Brandling.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The most humble Address of the Bailiffs, High Steward, Recorder, and Freemen of your Majesty's Ancient Corporation of Kingston-upon-Thames, in the County of Surrey.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Bailiffs, High Steward, Recorder, and Freemen of the very ancient and loyal Corporation of Kingston-upon-Thames, desire your Majesty's Permission to express our warmest Sentiments of Duty and Gratitude to your Majesty for your tender Regard to the true Happiness and Welfare of your People in relieving them from the encumbering Burthen of a long and expensive War, and procuring for them the inestimable Blessings of Peace.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that nothing in our Power shall be wanting that can contribute to give Happiness to your Majesty's Reign, which we pray may long, very long continue over a loyal and grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal, in the Guildhall of our said Town, the Twenty-sixth Day of May, in the Forty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign, and in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

[Presented by the Recorder Thos. Evance, Esq; accompanied by the High Steward Earl Onslow.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burghesses, and Commonalty of the Town and County of the Town of Poole, humbly beg Leave to offer our sincere Congratulations on the happy Restoration of Peace.

We reflect with the utmost Satisfaction on the Exertions of your Majesty's Subjects on the long and arduous Contest on which they have been engaged for the Support of your Majesty's Dignity and their own Independence.

We cannot but acknowledge, that, under the Protection of Divine Providence, we owe our present Security to the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and the unexampled Bravery of your Majesty's Forces by Sea and Land. And permit us, Sire, to assure you, that however great our Exertions have been, and with whatever temporary Sacrifices attended to ourselves, they would be repeated with unabated Ardour and Perseverance should they again be found necessary to the Protection of your Majesty's Crown, or the Civil and Religious Privileges of your People.

We most earnestly pray, that the Great Disposer of Events will be pleased to prolong your Majesty's Reign and guard that Life which has been so justly endeared to us hitherto, by the Exercise of the most distinguished Virtues, and Maintenance of our National Prosperity, Freedom, and Happiness.

John Lester, Mayor.

[Presented by John Lester, Mayor, attended by John Jeffery and George Garland, Members of Parliament.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common-Councilmen of Liverpool, in special Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common-Councilmen of Liverpool, in special Council assembled, entreat your Majesty's Permission to address our Congratulations on the Restoration of Peace.

During a War of unusual Length, and of unexampled Difficulties, many are the Occasions on which we have participated in the National Exultation at Deeds of Military Valour and of Naval Heroism, such as History nowhere records. Those Victories were indeed productive of immediate and substantial Good; and whilst they tore from our Enemies their Colonies, and consolidated the Empire of the Seas, they have had, throughout this glorious Struggle, the Effect of animating the Spirit of the Nation, and giving Stability to public Order; but it is only now that they have attained their legitimate End, and been crowned with their best Reward, by the Re-establishment of general Tranquillity.

May that Tranquillity be permanent; and, in the full Enjoyment of it, may your Majesty long continue to reign over a free and united People, proud of their Country, and faithful to their King, active in Attention to the useful Arts, of which your Majesty has always been the Patron, and happy in the Practice of those Virtues of which your Majesty has always been the Example.

Given under the Common Seal of the Town and Corporation of Liverpool, this Twenty-first Day of May, One thousand eight hundred and two.

[Presented by F. Hargrave, Esq; Recorder of Liverpool.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Protestant Dissenting Ministers in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, approach your Royal Presence with profound Respect to testify the Gratitude and Satisfaction which we feel on the Termination of the Calamities of War, and on the Restoration of Peace, not only to your Majesty's Dominions but to Europe in general.

We participate the Joy which your Majesty must have experienced on the present happy Occasion; and we are thankful for the Result of those Operations and Counsels which have produced Effects so interesting to our Country and the World.

We beg Leave to express our cordial Wishes that the Blessing of Peace may be uninterrupted; and that it may conduce to the Stability of your Majesty's Throne, to the Permanence of the British Constitution, and to the increasing Prosperity of every Part of the British Empire.

May your Majesty long enjoy the Satisfaction of witnessing the Union and Welfare of the Dominions over which you preside, and the Prevalence of true Religion and social Order, under the Influence of your salutary Counsels, through the various Nations of the Globe!

It is our earnest Wish that the Blessings which we possess under your Majesty's Administration may be preserved, by your Protection, to a distant Period, and transmitted with every Security and Increase of which they are capable to future Generations.

While it shall be our unremitting Endeavour to extend the Influence of the Gospel of Peace and Charity, both by our Instruction and Example, and thus to maintain the Attachment of those of your Majesty's Subjects with whom we are immediately connected to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government, it will be our unfeigned and fervent Prayer that your valuable Life may be long continued; that when Providence removes you hence you may exchange an earthly for a celestial Crown; and that the Blessings which you have perpetuated may descend, in the illustrious Line of your Family, to the remotest Posterity.
