

gratulations on the late happy Restoration of Peace to your Majesty's Dominions; an Event which must prove so highly pleasing to your Majesty, and salutary to the Empire, cannot fail of diffusing universal Joy amongst all your faithful Subjects, and must, therefore, necessarily fill our Hearts with the utmost Thankfulness to Divine Providence. Permit us to assure your Majesty, that your loyal Citizens of Dublin will be ever ready to evince their warmest Gratitude to your Majesty for your uniform paternal Care, and especially for this recent Instance of your Attention, in securing to your People the Blessings of Peace, in which every Part of Europe was so deeply interested.

In Testimony whereof we have caused our Common Seal to be hereunto affixed, the Twenty-fourth Day of May, in the Forty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Foreman, and Grand Jury of the County of Dublin.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Foreman, and Grand Jurors of the County of Dublin, assembled at Easter Term One thousand eight hundred and two, request to be permitted to offer to your Majesty our heartfelt Congratulations upon the Restoration of Peace to your Majesty's Dominions (as well as to Europe in general) upon safe and honorable Conditions.

Your Majesty has the Satisfaction of feeling that the Devotion of your Subjects is unabated, that the Character of your People has been exalted beyond Praise, that the Dominions, Commerce, and Resources of the Nation have been increased.

To the Excellence of the Principles of our glorious Constitution, to the Heroism and Discipline of your Majesty's Forces by Sea and Land, to the Example of your private Virtues, and the Firmness of your Majesty's Measures, we are indebted, under Providence, for these Advantages.

May your Majesty long live to witness the Blessings resulting from Peace, and to receive the affectionate Homage of a loyal, grateful, and united Empire.

Grand Jury Room, 31st May 1802.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Worcester, in Common-Council assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of your Majesty's ancient and faithful City of Worcester, impressed with the deepest Sense of Gratitude, Loyalty, and Affection, beg Leave to offer our sincere Congratulations on the happy Termination of the War, on the Event of which depended our Religion, our Laws, and the very Existence of our most excellent Constitution.

We cannot have a stronger Assurance of your Majesty's Attention to the Happiness and Prosperity of your Subjects; and we cannot too much acknowledge your Majesty's gracious Manifestation of your late Goodness towards us in obtaining the most desirable of all Objects the Restoration of Peace and Tranquillity to all Europe.

Conscious of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Government, we shall unceasingly offer up our fervent Prayers to the Almighty long to preserve your Majesty to fill in Glory and Peace that Throne which your Majesty has preserved unshaken, and from which your Majesty has dispersed the most signal Blessings upon a grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal, in the Council-Chamber of the said City, the Third Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, in Guild assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty to express our heartfelt Satisfaction upon the happy Restoration of Peace.

To your Majesty's uniform Magnanimity and Firmness, to the Wisdom and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils, and to the unexampled Valour and Perseverance of your Fleets and Armies, we are, under the Favour of Divine Providence, indebted for a happy Termination of the most arduous Struggle for the Preservation of Religion, Laws, and Liberty; in which these Kingdoms have ever been engaged.

That we may long enjoy the Blessings of Peace, and that your Majesty's Life may be prolonged to a very late Period, for the Happiness and Prosperity of these United Kingdoms, is and ever must be the most fervent Prayer of all your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects.

[Presented by Sir John Callander, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty, and other Inhabitants of the ancient Town of Rye.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave humbly to approach your Royal Person to express how sensibly we feel your paternal Care and Goodness in restoring to your Subjects the Blessings of Peace; and that, by the Mildness and Wisdom of your Government, you have united your People in every Sentiment of Loyalty and Affection.

At the same Time, we presume to offer our Congratulations to your Majesty on the unexampled Prosperity of your Dominions, after having with-
